

GREATEST HORSES IN WEST COMING

PORTLAND GETS GOOD RUNNERS

Never in the history of harness racing west of the Rocky mountains has such a card been prepared as that of the Portland Country Club for its new race track at Rose City Park for the week commencing September 21 to 26. Entries closed last Monday, May 25, and all week the mailed lists have been arriving at Secretary Widom's office. The horses that will race in Portland will also race at Salem and at other points on the circuit.

The first race on the program, which will be the $14 race, worth $1,000, will bring together a field of 21 horses, something unheard of in the Pacific coast. In this race as in practically all the others, will be entered fast animals from Canada, Washington, Colorado, California and Oregon.

That the race meeting is of grand circuit caliber can be readily seen from the speedy animals which are entered. In the 2:06 pace there will be the coast champion Sir John S. and the pitted against the Canadian pacer Leland Onward, with a record of 2:04 1/2 on the grand circuit. Leland Onward has never been defeated in his class, and he met the best in the east last year. When these two thoroughbreds come together in Portland, it will be the greatest race in its history. The race is worth $1,000. Twenty-five fast ones are entered in the 2:10 trot, which is worth $1,000. But the biggest field in the trotting events is for the blue ribbon stake, the Country Club purse, valued at $1,500. This is for 2:10 trotters, and is one of the rich purses of the circuit.

Following is a list of the horses entered for the various Portland harness races:

Head of Trade, Two-Year-Old Trot, $400.

THIS IS COONEY.

Just because this little mite of a ball player thinks more of a good, juicy cup of Battle Axe than he does of getting his "picture look" don't get it into your curly little head, fairer of fans, that he isn't a pretty nifty looking. Phil Cooney for that's his name, won't tell you how many feminine hearts have captivated back in little old New York, but the boys know they are legion. But Phil is heart and fancy free, so don't despair. Cooney began this earthly existence on the same morning that Tom Mad-den did back in September, 1887. When he got to wearing long pants he told his mother that he wanted a ball bat, and she bought him one. He has been playing semi-professional ball around the metropolis until long about 1901. Fleishmann took Phil up in the Catskill mountains to play on a summer nine which he supported. Strange enough, the manager of the Seals was on the same team. Then Phil was gobbled up by the Pat-champer Hills. He took a crack at Casey and Ryan to take a crack at Raftery. Big Tom had twice before, in the third and eighth innings, come to the bat with most of the waiting to score, and had each time hit into double play that killed off all chances but one. Raftery's judgment proved correct, for Raftery hit, and McCardie kind of a double play, but McCardie struck out. Phil Cooney is the best fielding shortstop in the league and when he gets accustomed to the Pacific coast his batting average is bound to look up some. He hits in double digits and he invariably makes two hits on his lucky days.

DENVER MAN SCORES HIGHEST

Closing Day of Golf Tournament Furnishes Good Sport for Gallery.

C. T. Spooner of Seattle won the men's open championship of Oregon at the Waverly golf links yesterday afternoon, the closing day of the state tournament, from Gordon Voorhies of Portland with three up, and two to play in 18 holes.

The flight cup was won by Chester G. Murphy of Portland with two up and one to play in 18 holes.

Mrs. Richard Koehler won the women's open championship from Miss Flanders with two up and one to play in 18 holes.

The approaching contest was won by Hunt Lewis of Portland. The best average approaching effort was credited to Gordon Voorhies of Portland.

BEAVERS IN OUT IN THIRTEENTH

McArdle of the Seals Throws Low to Berry at the Home Plate.

MADDEN COMES HOME WITH DECISIVE SCORE

Wily Oscar Jones Takes a Long Chance and Comes Pretty Nearly Making Good on His Well-Planned Little Coup.

After receiving an awful walloping at the hands of San Francisco in the morning game, those Beavers of ours came back yesterday and captured the game 4 to 2, after 13 innings of the most nerve-racking baseball possible. An error by McArdle in the thirteenth inning lost for the visitors. With the bases full, one out and an easy double play in sight, McArdle threw wild to Berry and Madden came over with the fourth and winning run.

Whalen was due to be the first batter in the thirteenth inning, but with scores coming on fast, McCredie and Mohler, with the valuable assistance of one Mr. O'Connell, decided to call the game after the close of the thirteenth, and McCredie accordingly laid his plans to end things up before this friendly agreement had a chance to lend a helping hand. To start things Madden went in to bat for Whalen, and after waiting patiently while three balls floated by, and fouling two of the choice ones, Mr. Oscar Jones sent up, he landed on the last one for a two-bagger against the right-fielder.

McCredie usurped Kinsella's place at the bat and sacrificed the big catcher to third. Hildebrand then had a happy thought, and after a conference with Casey, Hildy, Mohler and Zelder, Jones took a big chance and passed both Casey and Ryan to take a crack at Raftery. Big Tom had twice before, in the third and eighth innings, come to the bat with most of the waiting to score, and had each time hit into double play that killed off all chances but one. Raftery's judgment proved correct, for Raftery hit, and McCardie kind of a double play, but McCardie struck out. Phil Cooney is the best fielding shortstop in the league and when he gets accustomed to the Pacific coast his batting average is bound to look up some. He hits in double digits and he invariably makes two hits on his lucky days.

Finance Touches Up. Frisco started after Pinnacle in lively fashion. Hildebrand knocked the first ball for a beautiful single to left. Mohler got the first of five gifts which he took during the afternoon, forcing Hildy to second. Curtis placed a crack at second, scoring Hildy and sending the first run home. Hildy, taking second on the throw to catch Hildy, Melchior struck out. With Zelder at bat the squeeze play was signaled for but Pinnacle, during the tournament, Zelder couldn't reach it and Mohler was caught between bases. Finance threw Zelder out at first.

Portland couldn't do anything with Jones till the fourth inning, when with Danzig in cold storage, Bassey and Johnson tripped. In succession, both hits were clean ones clear to the center field fence. Cooney and Johnson worked the squeeze play and Johnson came over with the lead till the sixth when Frisco sent Danzig to the pen.

Hildebrand was out, Casey to Danzig. Mohler got his second base on balls. Curtis hit one to Cooney which the little catcher, Hildebrand and both men were safe. Melchior was the next man and sent a single to right. Mohler scored second, but when Ryan attempted to score in judgment which he has made this season Curtis scored. Ryan forgot G. Murphy of Portland with two up and one to play in 18 holes.

Mrs. Richard Koehler won the women's open championship from Miss Flanders with two up and one to play in 18 holes.

STAR ATHLETES ON THE MARK.

Pacific University, Forest Grove, Or., May 30.—Forrest Smithson has been training on the local track under Archie Hahn, Pacific's coach, the past week and expects to remain here until June 6, when he will go to Portland to take part in the P. N. A. meet.

Hahn is noted for being a fast man off his marks and Smithson is here learning the Michigan form, as he admits he is slow in starting. Smithson has been teaching the local men his form in the hurdles, which is one he has worked out for himself, and they show remarkable improvement for the short time he has been with them.

Promoter Coffroth Goes East to Match Classiest Fighters in World.

BOXING GAME MAY NOT SURVIVE PRESENT YEAR

Bloomers Pulled Off Recently Have Hurt Game in California—Los Angeles Anxious to See Expansion of the Coast League.

By Will J. Slattery. San Francisco, May 30.—San Francisco bids fair to become the scene of several big pugilistic matches this summer and fall, provided everything works out right. Promoter Jim Coffroth, the man who has pulled off most of the big mills in this vicinity during the past 10 years, is on his way east to make arrangements for a series of fights in this country and Europe with the idea of putting them on at his Mission street arena before winter sets in and take in the Ketchel-Papke fight which is scheduled to be staged there on the evening of June 10. Coffroth has a low down lunch that the mill will be an unsatisfactory one as far as the result goes. Like many of the other knowing ones, he does not believe that either man has a chance to score a decisive victory in 10 rounds. Both men are strong, husky fellows who can take an awful beating and if the dope goes for anything, neither figure to stop the other until he is out of a commanding lead in such a limited bout.

It is Coffroth's idea to rematch the men for this city later in July in the event that the bout goes the limit as he expects. He will offer them a fat guarantee, with the privilege of a percentage of the gate, and will place here which should prove a paying venture provided the fight turns out as everybody expects. There are several National league clubs that would give more than $4 for "Bugs" Raymond of the St. Louis Cardinals. Manager Griffith of the New York Americans surely picked up a wonder in pitcher Manning, formerly of the Tri-State league.

Lost the game on the day they raised the world's championship flag better ball than they got in the Chicago Cubs. The New York Giants did the same thing in 1905.

It's a cinch that the pitching staff will have to do better work for the New York Giants if the team is to get near the cupola.

"Josh" Clark, a brother of Manager Fred Pittsburg, is proving one of the finds of the season for the Cleveland club.

Manager Billy Murray of the Philadelphia Nationals seems to have found the secret of how to make youngsters play star baseball.

Cincinnati baseball fans will feel pretty "kipsey" if the Reds succeed in drawing a first division berth through the season.

The Chicago and Detroit clubs of the American league are both playing far better ball than they were a month ago and doubtless will keep the leaders hustling from now on.

"Rube" Waddell says he has been up against a good many hard propositions, but when they refuse to permit you to spend your own money, why, it certainly beats 'em all.

Few of the younger generation are doing better work than Johnny Bates of the Boston Nationals. Johnny has a way of slapping the ball out near the fence for extra bases that makes the pitcher pull down his cap and take a hitch in his trousers.

Measrs. Jones of Chicago, Jennings of Detroit and Griffith of New York have all gone through the experience recently of being placed where they could do no harm for a few days. And it's not a very good year for the suspension of managers, either.

Jerry Driscoll, the other diminutive Englishman, who is credited with a victory over Grant on the other side of the water, is another fighter Coffroth would like to bring out here if he could get a match with him. Grant is a New York seeking new victims. Griffin cleaned up everything in the kangaroo country and Griffith is now under with both mitts. He is under the management of Harry Pollock, the man who was awarded Young Corbett when the little Denverite was in his prime three or four years ago.

The local boxing situation still remains in a state of calm and nobody knows just what is going to happen. The members of the local boxing club are low after pulling off so many bloomers lately and it looks as though they are ready to have a chance again, the result of the fight being a matter of mere chance and coming in for so much unfavorable comment.

San Berger has the June permit, but that is about all he has for nothing that looks like a good match in San Francisco.
