Temperance workers on the east side in their war against the saloons will appear to the voters tomorrow by serving tempting hot lunches at the 21 polling places on the other side of the river.
 The council has passed an ordinance granting the anti-saloon people permission to erect the voting booths from which to serve the refreshments. The anti-saloon people propose to head off illegal voting by taking down a minute description of all challenged voters and a kodak picture of the voter and the men who are sworn to swear him in.
 Leading members of the Anti-Saloon league are confident of success in nearly all of the east side precincts.

 he will stay at the Perkins. After the arrival of the ox team the prairie schooner and "Early Day" Meeker will be seen on the streets of Portland.

No trace of the would-be safe cracker who damaged a safe in the office of the Standard Electric company's office, 415 Alder street, Friday, to the extent of nearly $100, in his efforts to secure $20 on the inside and which, incidentally, he did not get, has been found. The safe was opened on the theory that the man was a novice in every sense of the word and simply tried to get into the safe because he had nothing else particular to do.

Hooks and Eyes

A HOOK on the wall can bear only a certain weight. Add to it ever so carefully and the hook will break.

EYES—human eyes—are able to do only a certain amount of work without straining. Now a defect in the eye like a flaw in the hook, makes it less able to bear its burden. The difference is that if the hook breaks you can buy another but how about the eye? There's the rub and the more you rub the worse the trouble.

NOW, ISN'T IT BETTER to let a pair of glasses take up the strain than allow the eyes to gradually give out through continued abuse?

HEADACHES and those tired feelings often come from the eyes. A whole drug store won't cure the trouble if that's the case. A PAIR OF GLASSES THAT FIT COR-RECTLY will do it. We fit that kind at a moderate price.

GOOD LUCK RING IS GIVEN CHAMBERLAIN

Has Been Worn by Seven Senators at Time of Their Election.

Colonel Frank J. Parker presented to Governor Chamberlain last night his celebrated Irish torque ring which has been worn by nearly every United States senator elected in Oregon and Washington in the past 20 years. The ring was given to Colonel Parker in Dublin, Ireland, by an Irish friend in 1887, who told the colonel that it would always bring luck to the wearer. It has been worn by Senators Dolph, Mitchell and Fulton of this state, and by Senators Squires, Turner, Foster and Ankeny of Washington, all of whom were wearing it at the time of their election.

Colonel Parker says that the fact of Governor Chamberlain's wearing the ring will undoubtedly result in his election tomorrow.

In presenting the ring to Governor Chamberlain, Colonel Parker told him that he was the fittest man in the state to be sent to the senate, and that he would uphold the honor and tradition of Oregon and the Pacific coast better than any man that had ever represented this or any other Pacific coast state in the upper branch of congress.

FIGHTING FOR STATEMENT NO. 1

Farnham, Wilson and Campbell Making Vigorous Fight for Legislature.

Three men have been making a fight for the people during the past few weeks against men who are opposed to the interests of the people. The three men are Walter C. Farnham, candidate for state senator against John E. Coffey, A. King Wilson, candidate for joint representative for Clackamas and Multnomah counties opposed to C. N. McArthur, and D. F. Campbell, candidate for representative from Multnomah county, opposed to Robert S. Farrell.

Coffey, McArthur and Farrell are all opposed to the principles of Statement No. 1. Before the primaries they refused to take the pledge, and during the campaign have advocated its abolition.

Farnham, Wilson and Campbell, on the other hand, have been making a consistent campaign for Statement No. 1. They have throughout the campaign stood solidly on a Statement No. 1 platform, and have advocated the establishment of that principle as one vital to the best interests of the state. Friends of the three candidates are strong in the belief that when the votes are counted it will be found that Coffey, McArthur and Farrell have been left out of the list of Multnomah county's delegation to the legislature.
