BUSINESS DISEASE

The doctor's diagnosis of a disease is to determine the malady in order to be able to treat it properly.

A diagnosis of business stagnation always proves the cause to be lack of publicity.

The cause can be removed by liberal doses of Journal advertising, which will prove invigorating, stimulating; putting new life into stagnant arteries.

The Journal reaches nearly every home, being the only independent newspaper—not an organ.

In Portland nearly everybody reads The Journal, hence the superior results.
