THE SAFEST And Best Place to Buy Your Talking Machine

Is to go where you can choose from not one or two, but all the acknowledged world's Best Makes, and there is only one such place in Portland and that place is Ellers Piano House--352 Washington Street, Corner Park, where will be found the largest and most conveniently equipped Talking Machine Parlors in the Northwest. They carry in large stocks Columbia, Edison and Victrola, and thousands upon thousands of records--all the latest complete sets up to everything for June. If you would avoid future regrets choose your machine after hearing them all side-by-side--make your choice from the machines and not from some salesman's recommendation who is probably selling one or two particular makes--it costs you not one penny more to get what you naturally want--the best--if you come to Ellers. Here you can hear all the latest records--popular ballads, all the old songs of long ago, dance music, concert bands and orchestras, vocal solos, quartettes, etc. Then you can hear all the Grand Opera selections and hear them on different machines--music that would cost you $5 or more to hear if rendered in an opera house--if you had such an opportunity. We simply have all--everything, and invite you to come and enjoy the pleasure of music--good music--yes, the best music, and it's all free. From any viewpoint the place to buy your Talking Machine--or if you have a machine, your records--is at Ellers Piano House, Talking Machine Parlors, 352 Washington St., Cor. Park.

1,500 PIONEERS TO SIT AT ARMORY TABLE

Annual Dinner Will Be Given This Year June 11, by Auxiliary.

The annual luncheon to the Oregon pioneers will be given by the ladies' auxiliary, June 11, at the armory. Mrs. Charlotte Cartwright and Mrs. Benton Kilian, who have managed this affair since the formation of the auxiliary, will be in charge. The total number of diners will be in the neighborhood of 1,500, and the task of collecting materials and serving a substantial luncheon to this number of persons is no small task. About 20 tables will be provided, and the hall will be decorated. The purpose of the luncheon is to give all the pioneers an opportunity of meeting and renewing old friendships, and it is an event looked forward to throughout the year. A banquet is also being arranged for the Indian war veterans, to be given by the Sons and Daughters of Indian War Veterans, at W. O. W. hall, on Eleventh street between Washington and Alder. The banquet will be given June 10 and will be in charge of the president, Mrs. C. Henry Chamberlain, assisted by the secretary, Mrs. F. L. Benedict. The reception committee is composed of Mrs. L. M. Parrish, Mrs. B. A. Chamberlain, Mrs. Otto Kleeman, Mrs. T. A. Wood, Mrs. E. E. Wishard, Hosea Wood and Chester Probstel.

At the Baker theatre this week the great western success, "The Halfbreed," which was secured for this special week from the owner, Oliver Morosco of Burbank theatre, Los Angeles, is drawing large and delighted audiences at the Baker this week. Matinee Saturday.

BETTER FRUIT THIS YEAR THAN USUAL

All owners of stores and markets in the city now have running water in their places of business, according to City Market Inspector Mrs. Sarah A. Evans in a report to the city health board this morning. Mrs. Evans stated to the members that when she began the market work there were many places in the city that were without running water and as a result poor sanitary conditions prevailed. With the installation of the water these conditions have improved. Two violations of the pure food law were decided in the municipal court during the month, and the defendants fined $5 each. A proprietor of a candy store was fined $5 and sentence suspended for selling candy kept uncovered. To all Mrs. Evans reported having made 275 inspections in the month, and stated that she condemned 155 crates of berries. She stated, however,
