(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Roseburg, Or., June 2.—In order to help boost and to beautify the city, the ladies have organized an auxiliary to the Roseburg Commercial club. They have formed a permanent organization with the following officers: Mrs. J. D. Zurcher, president; Mrs. Dexter Rice, vice-president; Miss Agnes Pitchford, secretary; Miss Nell Barker, treasurer.

The ladies gave a benefit entertainment at the armory recently and succeeded in raising $187.50. This was their initial step toward raising a fund for city park, and they were so well pleased that they began at once on the project, and have been busy drawing up the plans, designs, etc., for the city beautify. They will work in conjunction with the Commercial club, and their combined efforts will make Roseburg one of the southern Oregon's most attractive cities.

The latest project framed by these ladies is the sending of a carload of roses to the Portland Rose Festival. A part of this donation will be in the form of boutonnières, which will be distributed gratis in the Rose City Thursday.

ASK NORDICA TO SING FAVORITES

Writers of a Legion Letters Request Special Songs of the Great Diva.

The mere announcement that Madame Nordica would sing on the Thursday evening program of the New York Symphony orchestra under her old friend, Walter Damrosch, has been enough to flood the diva's mail with special requests for certain old and new favorites, which the writers have at some time heard the great prima donna sing.

The first plan was for her to give simply Wagnerian numbers on the Wagner program Thursday evening, but being about the most gracious and obliging personage that any one could imagine, Mme. Nordica, finds herself rather overwhelmed with a flood of letters and notes asking, even begging, for certain songs. No doubt she will accede to the popular demand and not only present some of her famous Wagnerian songs, but give a group of some certain period, or composer, or perhaps two or three special favorites; for certainly the demand for this is enough to cause the singer to stop and consider, even were she not always ready and glad to oblige her audiences everywhere.

Tomorrow evening at the armory the first of the three great orchestral concerts by Walter Damrosch and his New York Symphony orchestra will be given, and there will be a tremendous throng to greet the famous conductor, as the sale of seats for the Wednesday night concert has been unusually strong. The seats for this, as well as for the two performances to be given on Thursday afternoon and evening, are now selling at the Sherman-Clay box office, which is open from 10 o'clock until 9 in the evening. Following in the program which Mr. Damrosch will present, the soloist for the evening being Mme. Nordica, will be: "The Swan" (Smetana); "Overture, 'Oberon' (Weber); aria, "The Pastor" (Mozart); "The Merry Hissed de Moss"; Symphony No. 5, C Minor (Beethoven); "Allegro, 2-Ancient on March" (Scherzo); "The Hungarian Rhapsody No. 1 (Liszt); Evening Under the Trees, (Massenet); clarinet solo, Mr. Leroy; "Cello solo, Mrs. Bramson; Polonaise, from "The Queen" (Thomas); Mme. Mary Hissed de Moss; "Ultava, 'The River Moldau' (Smetana).

Elks in Two States.
(Dated Press Lined Wire.)
Indianapolis, Ind., June 2.—Indianapolis is ablaze with purple and gold for the seventh annual state reunion of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. Nearly 10,000 members of the order were on hand for the opening of the convention today. The parade tomorrow, with its multitude of bands and lodges in grotesque costume, promises to be a notable affair.

Waterworks Extension Goes.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Olympia, Wash., June 2.—The attempt of F. Griffin to restrain the city of Tacoma from completing what is known as the Maplewood extension of the city water works has failed in the supreme court. Contracts will now be awarded on nine miles of pipeline at a cost of $1,123,387 and the construction of a force main to cost $48,443.

LILLEY SAYS BOUTELL TRIED HARD TO 'CALL HIM OFF'

(United Press Lined Wire.)
Waterbury, Conn., June 2.—Congressman Lilley, who forced the sensational submarine boat lobby investigation by congress, issued a statement from his home here today that Congressman Boutell of Illinois tried to "call him off" by influence brought to bear through Lilley's physician and Mrs. Lilley.

JOURNAL'S RETURNS EAGERLY AWAITED

Crowd Surrounds Newspaper Corner, Cheering for Chamberlain.

Hundreds of people swarmed about The Journal office last night and remained there anxiously watching election returns till midnight. It was a well-ordered crowd which conducted itself quietly, but there was a great deal of interest which manifested itself in occasional cheers. From the first the returns on the senatorial contest, the competition between O'Day and Morrow for judge, the shrievalty and district attorney contests. The returns were with heavy odds in favor of Chamberlain because he believes they are true.

THACKER CHARGE COMES UP AGAIN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Olympia, Wash., June 2.—J. T. Thacker, Olympia politician, is again charged, by information filed by the prosecuting attorney, with an attempt to obtain money by false pretenses from H. C. Heermans, president of the Olympia Water company. In an information filed several weeks ago it was charged that Thacker attempted last summer to extort $500 from Heermans on a promise of the friendship of the city administration. Owing to the absence of Heermans the case was postponed. Heermans returned in time to appear before the grand jury but that body adjourned without indicting Thacker.

Hope for Congo Annexation.
Brussels, June 2.—The chamber of deputies began an extraordinary session today for the continuation of the debate on the Congo annexation treaty. In political circles it is believed that annexation is now assured.

Beeslumotus Bad as Dialect.
From the Galveston News.
Southern people have much to bear. The articles in the magazines, for example, in which northern contributors try to hear out negro dialect! It's enough to give one the beeslumotus!

GO ON OUTING; TWO LOSE LIVES

Mate of Schooner Irene and Young Man Drowned Near Knappton.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Astoria, Or., June 2.—Details have just been received of a double drowning that occurred near Knappton, Washington, yesterday. The mate of the schooner Irene loading lumber at the North Shore mills, in company with a young man named Verne Elbon, went out sailing in the schooner's small boat, which was later found capsized with the mast and sail standing. The only inference is that both men were drowned. Elbon is well known here, having got his education in the local schools. He was the son of I. B. Elbon, the well-known mill man, and the boy's death has cast a gloom among his friends, who are legion.

SALEM SENDS US CARLOAD OF ROSES

Salem, Or., June 2.—Salem and other valley towns are sending roses to the Rose City by the carload. A special effort has been made by the Salem board of trade, and the people of Salem are responding generally. The flowers are brought to the board of trade rooms during the day, and shipped each evening to Portland. Manager Hutchins of the Rose Festival has given assurance that all the valley roses that can be supplied will be most gratefully received by the carnival management. All the flowers that can be obtained can be used in Portland during the festival.
