

WOMEN TO GO TO DENVER Democratic State Central Committee Meets Tuesday for That Purpose.

Democratic party leaders of Oregon will hold away in Portland Monday night and Tuesday next when the Democratic state central committee will meet to be followed Tuesday by the Democratic state convention.

Monday night at 8 o'clock the state central committee will meet in the parlors of the Imperial hotel, when the general routine business of the party organization in the state will be transacted.

Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock the state convention will be called to order in the Woodmen of the World hall by Alex Sweek, chairman of the state central committee. The convention will have a little line of business to transact, consisting of the election of eight delegates to the national convention to be held in Denver, eight alternates for the delegates and the further nomination of four presidential electors for the purpose of casting the official ballot for the presidential election of November next.

Big Attendance Expected. From all indications there will be a large attendance at the convention, as a number of the prominent Democrats of the state are anxious to make the trip to the convention in Denver. It is also probable that the convention will have any such strenuous scenes as marked the proceedings of the late Republican state convention, as there is no internal warfare among the delegates.

William J. Bryan will get the indorsement of the convention to the cards, and the only care of the convention will be to see to it that the delegates who are elected to the national convention are all sound Bryan men, who will stand behind the Nabranian until the last ditch has been crossed.

Delegates' Election Only. It is believed that the convention will be able to organize and finish its business early Tuesday afternoon, as there is nothing other than the election of the delegates and the electors to come before the meeting.

Had the amendment providing for an increase in the number of supreme court justices passed at the polls June 1, the convention would have had the further task of nominating two men to make the race for the vacant seats on the bench created by the amendment. The failure of the amendment, however, leaves the convention with nothing to do other than the election of national delegates and presidential electors.

List of Delegates. There are 215 delegates in the state convention, practically all of whom have reported to Secretary John E. Bryan of the state central committee. Most of them will be in attendance at the convention. The list so far reported is as follows:

VOLCANO WILL HURL UP FIERY FAREWELL

Last Eruption of Vesuvius Tonight for Portland's Benefit.

Vesuvius will tonight erupt a fiery farewell and Pain's gorgeous spectacle will terminate its Portland season in a blaze of pyrotechnic glory. It is Woodmen's night and hundreds of members will be in attendance in uniform and enjoy the special devices that have been arranged in their honor. These will include a gigantic fire portrait of one of the most popular Woodmen in the state, one known and admired by every member of the order.

There will be the usual number of big bombs, novel rockets, comicalities, etc., and set pieces galore. Children are to be admitted to any part of the grandstand. A large attendance is expected tonight since it will be the last opportunity to see the big show that has delighted so many thousands during the week, and which is without doubt the largest and finest display of fireworks ever given west of Manhattan beach, New York.

On Monday the scenery and buildings will be torn down and all will be shipped to Vancouver, British Columbia, where the next engagement is scheduled.

SHINGLE MARKET IS STILL DEMORALIZED

(United Press Leased Wire.) Bellingham, Wash., June 6.—Despite the fact that an advance of 5 cents a thousand was made Friday on "stars" and "clears" shingles, the market is still demoralized. Today's quotation on stars is $1.45 per thousand and clears $1.35, an unsatisfactory price, however, but a better state than has existed for several weeks.

A general meeting of shingle manufacturers of the state will be held in Everett next Monday for the purpose of attempting to arrive at some agreement as to the proper course to pursue to force a reasonable price for the mill products.

FINED FOR SELLING LIQUOR ON SUNDAY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., June 6.—William Haffey was fined $30 by Judge McCredie yesterday for selling liquor on Sunday, May 31. Haffey keeps a saloon at Camas. He was notified that information had been secured of his violation of the law and he was once ordered his attorney, E. M. Scanlon, to enter a plea of guilty.

The greatest heat is never found on the equator, but some 10 degrees to the north, while more severe cold has been registered in northern Siberia than has been found near the pole.

LOCAL BRANCH OF ARISTOCRATIC GENEVA SOCIETY HAS BEEN FOUNDED IN PORTLAND

Officers of Portland Branch of the Geneva Society.

Portland is the home of the epicure in the northwest and this fact has been recognized by the Geneva association, the international society of hotel and restaurant employes. This society, which is composed of first class head waiters and grill service superintendents, has organized a local branch of the Geneva society, in Portland. It includes all the leaders of the profession in the Rose City, and is building a clubhouse in the near future. Only high salaried waiters are permitted to join the exclusive society, it being one of the requirements that each member must have an income of at least $125 a month. Of interest to people of this city is the fact that George Schlenk, proprietor of the Quella, was the original founder of the association in 1875 at Geneva. The association's manager, May of the Portland Commercial club, was also one of the early organizers of the society. The world is no wider than the locale of the Geneva society, in fact, it is the only labor union that pensions its members for old age. The officers of the local branch are: President, John Shields, head waiter of the Arlington club; vice-president, W. B. Martin, superintendent of service, Hotel Portland; sergeant at arms, Harry E. Redding, head waiter of the Portland grill; secretary, Joe Wisener. The executive board consists of these men and Ernest Koch, head waiter of the Oregon grill. Wisener, Redding and Pierce constitute the house committee. Some of the New York's famous hostesses of the society are: J. Lehman, steward at the Arlington club; J. E. De Gruchy, head waiter of the Commercial club; Damon I. Pierce, head waiter in the main dining room, Portland hotel, and member of the clubhouse committee; J. Young, who will be head waiter of the new Hobbrau haus; J. M. Foley, captain, Portland hotel grill; Eugene May, manager of the Commercial club and member of the executive board; Victor Tarbell of the new Hobbrau haus, which will soon open; Gus Lundberg, captain of the Louvre rink; Charles Yonker, head waiter of the Louvre and cashier of the Geneva society; Jake Conner, head waiter main dining room, Portland hotel.

AT THE THEATRES

Dockstader at Hellig Tonight. The attraction at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15 o'clock will be the famous American minstrel, Lew Dockstader, and his big company. Seats are now selling at theatre for both nights.

"The Halfbreed" Tonight. "The Halfbreed" with all its scenic grandeur and its typical characters and atmosphere of the great west, will live long in the memory of the Portland. The closing performance will be given by the Baker Stock company tonight.

"The Bushranger" at Lyric. Tonight's performance of "The Bushranger" at the Lyric will be the last but two of the run of this justly popular play. The Blankin-Atwood company has made a very deep impression on the local public in this piece and is already well established as popular favorites.

Battling Nelson Tonight. Tonight Battling Nelson will appear at each performance of "A Trip to Coney Island" at the Star theatre. The famous fighter gives a three-round sparring exhibition with his trainer, and this will be his last public appearance before he meets Gans, three weeks hence.

Pekin Zouaves. An expensive act is at the head of the Grand bill. There are 15 people in the Pekin Zouaves, and they have a military act which is unlike anything else of the kind that has been seen in this city. George Wilson, the King of minstrel, appears with his stories and songs.

Laughter at the Oaks. Music, laughter and then still more entertainment. That is what you find at the Oaks. The band of white and gold in the afternoon, the Allen-Curtis comedy company, the pretty girls in the evening and the Amusement Way all the time. People who want to lose the blues can do it at the Oaks.

DR. N. J. FULTON. It is a man or woman only KNOWS if they would study and learn something—then I would say "It's Your Own Fault If You're Sick" And not quickly cured. But like a sheep that in the hands of its shearer is dumb, so is the ordinary man or woman.

STUPIDLY SENSELESS. When it comes to treatment for their disease. They awake in the morning and "don't feel well." They're something wrong, and away they fly to the doctor—or phone him to hurry to them—and then the music starts. He scratches his "pharmacopoeia," examines the tongue, feels the pulse, shakes his head, looks wise, writes a Latin prescription, says he'll "well again tomorrow," returns to his office, enters a charge upon his book, figures on his next real estate investment—and there you are. The druggist, reading the Latin bottles up a few ounces of rank blood poison, sends it over to the patient and—once in a while—

NATURE'S GREAT "SEE POISON." The patient recovers and "that doctor is certainly a wonder! He cured me!" Truth is, Nature cured, despite the pollution by me, cured this poor sufferer at Milwaukee, Feb. 27, 1898—For 2 years I suffered from inflammation and those delicate troubles usual to men; and several times during the last 11 years was unable, for months, to get on my feet, and was in bed the greater part of the time for 13 months before I went to Doctor Fulton. At that time I had come to the conclusion that my kidneys were affected. When I began treatment with the doctor last May I was bloated, had throbbing pains in my head, and at times a severe pain in the region of my heart. I also was exceedingly nervous and my lower limbs seemed heavy and lifeless and very much swollen. After the first few Naturopathic treatments I was less nervous than I had been for years, and AT THE END OF FIVE WEEKS WAS A NEW WOMAN! Now I can do all kinds of work, and lately WALKED FIVE MILES IN ONE DAY!

IF MAKES ME SORRY. To contemplate the ignorance of eight people. Many are bright as a dollar, educated and smart, but when it comes to "doctoring," so stupid as a goose and blind as a bat. This comes of the Latin prescription. They never know what they have been "fed"—think it must be right because it's "mysterious."

DR. N. J. FULTON. 315 15th St., two blocks south of Jefferson car, and one block from either 11th or 13th St. car. Office hours—9 to 11, 1 to 4. Home phone—A-1115.

THIEVES REAP FIESTA HARVEST

Pickpockets and Porch-Workers Take Advantage of Crowds.

While spectators were feasting their eyes on the grand finale of Portland's Rose Festival street pageants last night, pickpockets and others of their ilk were feasting on the personal effects of the spectators. The city chap and the rascalite suffered together last night.

Iver Skele, a farmer from Chehalis, Washington, had his trousers' pockets ripped open while asleep in his room at the Eagle house on Burnside between Second and Third streets, and everything in his possession, including $21 and a watch which he had purchased yesterday morning, was stolen. The thiefes kindly left him his return ticket to Chehalis.

New Friend Faithless. Ray McDonald, another farmer lad, met a sociable fellow while "seeing the sights" last night, and the two struck up such a warm friendship that Ray invited him to spend the night in his room at the New Western hotel. This morning's sun revealed the bedfellow's absence, also McDonald's clothing, watch and money, about $25.

J. M. Wilson and family, residing at 1515 Knowles street, were only absent from their home about an hour. This sufficed, however, for burglars to secure a loot consisting of a gold watch, several pieces of jewelry and $30 in money.

At this rate, how long will it be before Multnomah county will go dry?

hotel, was touched for $50 while viewing the parade at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets last night. Likewise Charles Hamlin, a resident of the Arieta hotel, lost $45 while standing in the same vicinity. C. Christensen, living at 123 East Twenty-ninth street, also a Washington street parade spectator, is poorer by $20 this morning.

Mrs. H. A. Gavener, who lives in the Cambridge building, wore her turquoise bracelet when she went down on Washington street to view the parade last night. This was cut from her wrist during the evening. It is valued at about $50.

Paul Dilk is a Hungarian. He had $62 in gold currency stowed away in a rear pocket of his trousers. He also occupied one of the "mourner's benches" at police headquarters this morning. He believes the money was taken while he was standing at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets.

Attorney W. M. Foley had stolen a watch, chain and charm which he valued highly because of associations connected with them. Their intrinsic value was about $250. He was also on Washington street when she went down on Washington street to view the parade last night. This was cut from her wrist during the evening. It is valued at about $50.

The porch climber was not far behind his brother pickpocket in last night's race for loot honors. While Robert Dieck and family were enjoying the festivities their residence at 121 Main street was thoroughly ransacked by burglars. Eighty dollars in money and some valuable jewelry were stolen. Entrance was obtained by a window leading from a rear porch.

At this rate, how long will it be before Multnomah county will go dry?

Money-Making Ways of Using Want Ads

To Buy or Sell a Picture or Painting. It is in the easy reach of anybody to have copies of the work of masters—at a trifling price. But the frames cost so much! Here is a suggestion: Place a little Want Ad in this paper under the heading, "Pictures and Paintings," stating that you want to Buy or Sell certain pictures. There are many people who get tired of the same pictures in their home if they are of the inexpensive kind, and will be glad to Sell for little money if their attention is called to the fact. Perhaps you have Pictures in your home you would like to Sell, then take the money and get new ones. Many people Buy and Sell expensive Paintings this way—pick up Bargains. It certainly is economical. A Want Ad costs but a few cents—and the price is the same to everybody.

For the Man Behind the Gun

teries. I call it Electro-Vigor, because it gives or any other part of your body that may be weak. strength, vim, new vitality to your nerves, stomach Electro-Vigor is not an electric belt. It makes its own power and never needs charging. It will cure every case of rheumatism, nervous debility, weak stomach, kidney and liver troubles, lame back, sciatica, varicose, loss of power and every evidence of weakness in men and women.

My health has improved very much under the use of Electro-Vigor. The backache and diarrhoea are cured, and I am feeling better generally than I have for years past. I am an old resident of Portland, having lived here about 30 years, and will be glad to vouch for your treatment at any time. H. F. BRUNE, 375 Sandy Point, Portland, Or.

During the four weeks' time I have used Electro-Vigor it has built me up wonderfully. I am well and strong and the bowel troubles and lumbago are cured—something which years of doctoring could not do for me. Olander, Cal. M. B. BEXBY.

I Give It Free

Every man should read my free 100-page illustrated book, which tells how Electro-Vigor puts vim and energy into discouraged, slow-going men. This book explains many secrets you should know. It tells how to cure yourself without drugs. I'll send it, closely sealed, free, if you will mail me this coupon. Cut it out now.

Just as the gunner whose perve fails goes down in defeat, so does the man in the battle for success bring defeat to himself through a lack of grit and nerve. If you feel tired and stupid, with no ambition to get out and hustle; if you have spells of dependency and a desire to give up the fight, you need new energy. The race is to the strong. Show me a failure and I'll show you a weakling, lacking in courage, strength and ambition—three essentials to the make-up of a successful man. It's the ambition to "do or die," coupled with nerve power—vitality—that wins success. There's latent power in every man. All it needs is waking up. Electro-Vigor has put thousands of men on the road to success—men who had met with nothing but failure before they came to me.

Give me a man who is held down by physical weakness, lost vitality, lack of energy, backwardness or dependency, and I will make a new man out of him by filling his nerves with the fire of life—electricity. I have harnessed a powerful but soothing current of electricity into a body appliance made of dry-cell bat-
