

KILLING RACE WAR

Six White Men and Twelve Negroes Die in Most Desperate Factional Fight Oklahoma Has Ever Experienced.

(Special News by Longest Leased Wire.)
Hitchcock, Okla., June 6.—Six white men and 12 negroes were killed today in a battle between posse from Blaine and a band of negroes with Al Hunter, a negro, who has killed several persons in this and other states.

Yesterday Sheriff Garrison and Deputy Sheriff Smith of Oklahoma were killed while attempting to arrest Hunter and six companions. A posse of 30 armed men immediately left Blaine in pursuit of six negroes, one having been wounded by Smith before the deputy was killed.

A posse of 300 armed men also left Oklahoma City in pursuit of the negroes, but were unable to reach the scene of the battle today, because of floods and washouts on the railroad. Tonight there are 10,000 armed men in the hunt for the fleeing negroes and the biggest race war in Oklahoma's recent history is in progress. Trouble in many towns where there are negro settlements is expected.

Hunter, the negro who started the trouble by killing Sheriff Garrison yesterday, and who was himself killed today, was being sought for the murder of Eustis Rogers on May 19. He also was known as Kingsbury, and was wanted in Arkansas for killing two white men. He and his brother, Mansa Hunter, are negroes, but the negroes and had been sought by the authorities for a long time.

COAL COMPANY ELECTS NEW YEAR'S OFFICERS

At the stockholders' meeting of the Consumer's Coal company, held last evening in the Commercial building, directors and officers were elected for the ensuing year and a report of the workings of the company was returned by the retiring officers. The new officers are: Finley Morrison, president; Charles Cleveland, vice-president; H. B. Dickinson, secretary and A. K. Bentley, treasurer. The new directors are: Finley Morrison, Charles Cleveland, A. K. Bentley, J. H. Johnson and H. B. Dickinson.

The company has leased its mines on the Cowley river to the Cardiff coal coke company for a period of 25 years on a royalty basis of 25 cents a ton. The officers reported that the mine had been expanded, improvements made and that 5,000 feet of tunnel had been completed. Three veins of coal averaging from five to seven feet in thickness are said to have been uncovered, with 200,000 tons of coal in sight.

TRUCKS OF CAR SHOVE BODY ASIDE

John Rasmussen, a bricklayer residing at 878 Montana avenue, had a narrow escape from being crushed under the wheels of a streetcar last night about 10 o'clock. As it was, his head and body were severely bruised. Rasmussen had been up town purchasing supplies for Sunday's dinner, and carried a large basket.

When he attempted to alight from the car at the east end of the bridge he lost his footing and rolled under the car. In some manner the trucks shoved his body to one side and the car passed without harming him.

The fall dazed him, and the patrol wagon brought him to police headquarters.

DIED AS CONDUCTOR ASKED HIM FOR FARE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Seattle, Wash., June 6.—Just as the conductor of an interurban train bound for Tacoma touched him on the shoulder to ask for his fare James S. Upper, pioneer resident of Seattle, died of a heart attack. Upper was the head of a large family well known on Puget sound. The body was removed from the train and taken to the morgue. Upper was 71 years old, was born in Ontario, Canada, 71 years ago, came to Seattle in 1858, a year before the fire. He was survived by a widow and seven children. J. Warren Upper, R. R. Upper, exchange teller Seattle National bank, O. C. Upper, cashier Citizens' bank of Georgetown; D. A. and Herbert S. Upper, real estate agents; Mrs. Bellhime and Mrs. W. W. French.

THREW FIRECRACKERS INTO MERRY CROWD

Officers Stuart and Harms last night arrested and brought to police headquarters O. B. Baird, James Hancock and C. C. Hammond. The trio, with a chauffeur were driving about the city in a touring car. Baird, who is a firecracker along the crowded streets. When brought to police headquarters they seemed to regard the matter as a joke. They claimed to have been given authority to shoot off the explosives, but Captain Slover dispensed this chimerical fancy by informing them that nobody in the city of Portland could give an order in direct contravention of an ordinance. They were warned and allowed to depart.

UNITED RAILWAYS WILL BE HEARD

A jury in Judge O'Day's department of the circuit court will tomorrow resume the hearing of testimony in the suit of L. Y. Keady against the United Railways company, in which Keady is seeking to recover from the company the reimbursement of himself and other stockholders of the Oregon Traction company, which sold its property to the United Railways in 1906. The defendant denies that it agreed to pay the stockholders. Testimony for the plaintiff has been finished and the side of the United Railways will be heard tomorrow.

ASTORIA SEAWALL FOUND FEASIBLE

Astoria, Or., June 6.—City Attorney Charles H. Abercrombie and Special Attorney A. M. Smith have submitted plans as a special committee on revision of the charter, for the proposed construction of a seawall, or bulkhead, along the city waterfront. They report they find the plan entirely feasible.

DOG GUARDS DRUNKEN MISTRESS WHEN SHE IS TAKEN TO JAIL

When the patrol wagon brought up at police headquarters yesterday afternoon, after being called to a saloon at Second and Market streets for Mary Martini, who was drunk, there rode on the seat beside Driver Martin Gruber a little black mongrel dog. When the unconscious form of the mistress was carried out of the wagon the dog tagged behind wagging its tail in melancholy rhythm. When Mary was hoisted into the elevator for ascension to Matron Simmon's department there followed the lone mongrel, nor

CHINESE WOMAN HAS VERY NARROW ESCAPE

Spectators who were witnessing the parade, at the corner of Third and Washington streets, Saturday afternoon were badly frightened when a Chinese woman with two little babies in her arms fell directly in front of streetcar No. 566. The woman was walking across the street and the car was coming at slow speed. In some manner she stumbled and fell, with her body directly across the tracks. The motorman stopped the car just as the wheels were touching the woman's body. She was not hurt, and walked away before Officer Sorensen, who was summoned, arrived.

INSTANTLY KILLED IN BLAST EXPLOSION

(Special News by Longest Leased Wire.)
San Bernardino, Cal., June 6.—One man was instantly killed and four seriously injured by the unexpected explosion of a blast at the Arrow Head reservoir works, high in the San Bernardino mountains this afternoon. Francis Herve, the killed, was hurled fifty 20 feet, and his body literally flattened against the side of the steam shovel.

Frater Denied New Trial.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Seattle, Wash., June 6.—Judge Frater, of the superior court, today overruled the motion for a new trial made by Guy C. Stratton convicted of manslaughter through the death of Henrietta Johnson an eight-year-old child under the wheels of his automobile. Stratton's counsel gave notice of an appeal to the supreme court.

LARGE CROWD OFF FOR ALASKA GOLD

More Fortune Hunters Go North Than at Any Time Since Klondike Rush.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Seattle, Wash., June 6.—The largest crowd bound for the gold fields of the north that has left Seattle at any time since the famous Klondike rush of 1898 left tonight, when the steamship City of Seattle took 350 passengers for Alaska. The majority of these men go to seek their fortunes.

Reports from the gold fields of the Tanana and Nome regions show that the season's cleanup will be above expectations. The entire interior country seems to be gold-bearing and many of our population are preparing to leave as soon as the boats run for Innoko, Valdez creek, Chandlar, Kootenai, Tanderlof and other districts. I trust you will exert your services to get people into the country. It is the greatest gold-bearing region the world has ever known and only needs enough men to work it.

INVENTOR MORRELL IN BAD WAY FINANCIALLY

San Francisco, June 6.—When the suit against J. A. Morrell, the airplane inventor, who was injured in accident, to his flying machine in Berkeley two weeks ago, was called in the superior court today, it developed that the local inventor is in a bad way financially. Miss C. R. Kern, his former secretary, has attached all his property for her salary. The case was continued until Morrell gets out of the hospital. It is likely that he will lose a leg.

PLATFORM MUST BE BUILT AT BOYD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Salem, Or., June 6.—As a result of the hearing held last month the railroad commission has ordered the O. R. & N. to build a platform, either of wood or granite, at Boyd, Ore. After an investigation the commission found the complaint to be well founded and that no sufficient reason was maintained at Boyd for the amount of business done there by the railroad company.

For Breaking Labor Law.

Hogium, Wash., June 6.—For violating the state law in respect to working more than eight hours a day, a contract for graveling the Copalis road, have been fined $25 and costs each by Justice Ogden. State Labor Commissioner Hubbard swore out the complaint and prosecuted the case. L. Eberwine was also arrested today on a similar charge.

Child Labor Law Enforced.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Astoria, Or., June 6.—Mrs. Trumbull, state child labor commissioner, was in the city today and officially visited the industrial institutions in company with Professor Clark, city superintendent of schools. In only a few instances did they find young workers who did not have permits to remain away from school.

POLICE BUSINESS.

They were in the police station just for the moment and one of them wanted to get to a telephone to call a friend, or something of that sort. So he asked the lieutenant behind the desk whether he might use the station telephone. The man on duty frowned gloomily and maledictorially and said: "No, sir."

"The police wire is for police business only." "He fell back and hoped that he hadn't offended. Suddenly the telephone bell rang and one of the policemen moved to answer it. The man who had made the request looked at that fortunate person as if he thought: "He may go to the telephone in that not sufficient service of that majestic thing, police business."

A HOME REMEDY THAT REDUCES FAT

Would you like to have a nice, firm figure, but escape the tiresome, bone-bruising exercise or the soul-sickening diet of the old-time plan of reducing excess flesh? Then go to the druggist and ask for this inexpensive mixture: 1/2 ounce Marmola, 1/2 ounce Fluid Extract, Carra Aromatic, and 1/2 ounce Syrup Simplex. Take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime, and in a few weeks you can be as fit physically as a fawn. Mix these ingredients at home if you wish, but see that you get the Marmola in a sealed package. When fresh it acts quicker.

BOY STEALS TO AID HIS MOTHER

Seventeen-Year-Old Youth Turns Thief Because He Cannot Earn Living.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Seattle, Wash., June 6.—Unable to make a living for himself and mother W. E. Smith, 17 years of age, started out tonight to be a robber. After he had snatched a purse from Mrs. Louis Donogou, of 1505 Sixteenth avenue, he was chased 15 blocks and finally run down by two young men. He stood off C. R. Lee and Roy Sage with a knife and tried to knock them down with clubs. He was finally captured and brought face to face with the woman he had robbed. He had thrown the purse, containing $400, into the front yard of John Schram's home.

At police headquarters the boy broke down. "I never stole anything before in my life," he said. "I worked whenever I could and helped my mother when she had to take in washing. My father left 10 years ago for Alaska and we have not seen him since."

His only plea was for his mother.

Burglars at Uniontown.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Astoria, Or., June 6.—Thieves entered the store of J. Pentilla at Uniontown last evening and stole merchandise valued at between $50 and $75. They entered from beneath the foundation of the store, boring through the floor. There is no clue to the robbers.

properly as the architect is to draw the plans for a house. One other strong feature about Columbia Tailoring is the fact that nothing stylish can appear upon the streets of New York many days before the same cut, pattern and style has arrived at Columbia shop. It is a policy of this big tailor shop to be behind nobody. It is not unusual for Portland tailors to keep a year in the rear in styles. It is the Columbia spirit and aggressiveness that makes Columbia Tailoring the leader in the Northwest. A range of very popular prices is also a stimulus to business. You can buy a suit of clothes at the Columbia Shop at any price from $20 to $50 and get it right.

of the proper kind? In society, in business or at home, it is proper to dress correctly. No man feels on a par with his companions, if those companions all have tailored clothes and he wears ready-made. Tailored clothes set a man off right. If he is careful about his tailor, his clothes will be of the proper pattern, will fit perfectly and will last longer and look better than if he wears any old thing. The best fitting, most stylish and attractive clothing worn on the streets of Portland comes from the tables and hands of Columbia Tailors. They are as well equipped to tailor a man
