SALEM GETS BEST OF COAST HORSES

WOMAN SAILS HIGH UP IN BIG BALLOON

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Canton, Ohio, June 6.—Waving her handkerchief gaily, Mrs. Homer W. Thompson, wife of Dr. Homer W. Thompson, sailed from Canton today in the balloon Ohio. With Mrs. Thompson were her husband and Aeronaut Leo Stevens of New York, pilot, who came here to make the trip under the auspices of the Aero club of Ohio.

Because of the light wind the balloon traveled slowly. It was seen from Canton for 35 minutes, not having covered more than 13 miles. When it finally disappeared the balloon was traveling northwesterly. Dr. Thompson has ascended in balloons 87 times, but today's flight was the first attempted by his wife.

Teams Play Today.

The Olds, Wortman & King team will play today at 10 a. m. on the Montavilla grounds. The Montavilla team would like out-of-town games. Address William Frienwald, 538 Grove street, Montavilla.

"Billy" Gilbert, the former Giant now with the St. Louis Nationals, must have felt real bad when the Giants dropped three out of four games to the Cardinals.

CRACK QUARTET OF OREGON ATHLETES

These speedy youngsters, the state university entry in the P. N. A. meet yesterday, captured second place in highest number of points made by any team. Reading from left to right they are: Captain Kuykendall, first in broad jump, second in pole-vault and second in hurdles; Zacharias, second in hammer throw; Trainer Bill Hayward, Oliver Huston, first in 100-yard dash and second in low hurdles; Moon, third in 220-yard dash.

GOSSIP OF TRI-CITY LEAGUERS

Many Players Deserting Local Ranks for Inland Empire League.

Tri-City league games scheduled for today:

East Portland at Vancouver.
Albina vs. W. P. at St. Johns (double header).
St. Johns at Salem.
Oregon City at Woodburn (double header).

Umpires assigned for the day:
Jack Rankin at Vancouver.
Ed Rankin at St. Johns.
Charles Giles at Salem.
Prevost at Woodburn.

Secretary Smith received the resignations of Steve Sainpolis, Alex Cheyne and W. J. Burnside of the regular umpire staff, during the past week. The resignations were accepted and Charles Giles and Jack Rankin were appointed to fill the vacancies.

The new "umps," Rankin and Giles, received their initiation at the hands of the Tri-City leaguers last Saturday and made good. Each had a pretty strenuous time of it, several close decisions coming in rapid succession.

The East Side Triple T. outfit has in the person of Leonard Brock, one of the best catchers in the Tri-City ranks. Brock is a local man who has been schooled in the art of back-stopping while a member of the old Brainard Maroons, one of the best independent teams ever turned out in Portland. Last season he caught for the St. Johns "Apostles." His work this season is of the stellar order, quick accurate pegging to the bags, steady play behind the plate and clever handling of the pitcher's slants. Until this season he has been rather weak with the stick, but lately has developed into a fairly good pinch hitter and a sure bunter. He is in the game all the time and fights hard for his team.

One of the prettiest exhibitions of the national game was that played upon the Salem diamond between the Salem "Cherry Pickers" and the East Side "Triple T.," on Decoration Day. The fielding of both teams was fast and showed good class. The hitting was clean and the teamwork of the best. Both Hurlburt and Myers, the opposing twirlers, were effective at critical times and had perfect control. The fans were kept on the anxious seat in every inning and were sufficiently thrilled as play after play was pulled off with lightning-like rapidity.

Manager Nick Whitehead, of the West Side team, has acquired the services of Foss Griffith, the nifty second sacker, from Hal Pomeroy through purchase.

Nearly every team in the Tri-City league has suffered at the hands of the jumping players, but all are filling the places of the deserters as rapidly as possible. The high class of semi-professional ball furnished by the teams has not been affected. In fact the teams are putting up better ball than a month ago. The games are closer and harder fought.

West Portland has lost Brakke, Houston, Kotteman, Fay and Hinkle. East Portland has lost Emerick, Duvall, Streit and Burnett. Woodburn has lost Pitcher Harmon, who never reported. St. Johns has lost Philbrick, Wakefield, Anderson, Weed and Wroten. Oregon City has lost Adams. Vancouver has lost Shea, Concannon, Lodell and Oriet. Albina misses Ray, Burns, Giles, Heitzman, Melle, Newton, Gordon, Gardner, Killilay, Burke, Shaw, French and Patterson. Salem lost Hull. The majority of these players have gone to the Inland Empire league, being distributed between Pendleton, Walla Walla, La Grande and Baker City.

The "Apostles" have signed up another backstop in the person of J. J. Ferron and will use him in the games against Salem today. It is said that Ferron is a heady player and a good sticker.

One of the surprise parties of the season was the decisive defeat of the Oregon City "Papermakers" by the Albina "Tourists" in a double header played Decoration Day. The "Tourists" inaugurated a regular batting fiesta in the first game and kept it up through the day.

The Woodburn fans and team complain quite bitterly of the sloppy appearance and exhibition put up by the Albina team last Sunday. Manager Eulrich should make some sweeping changes in his lineup and improve the appearance of his men on the field.

Dave Robideaux, an exceedingly fast little infielder, lately from the middle west, has signed a West Side contract and will prove a good strengthener.

Paul Crosby, pitcher, and Fred Gaines, outfielder, have affixed their signatures to Albina contracts. Crosby is a young twirler who is anxious to make a reputation and gain experience in the minor league. Gaines is well known to Portland fans, having played two years in the center garden for the Brainard Maroons, and last season with St. Johns and Spokane.

Chet Thomas, the nifty third sacker on the East Side team left for Coos bay, Thursday of last week. He will play utility for the Coos bay team. Thomas is a good man for any team and the East Siders will be somewhat crippled on account of his absence.

A good, lively third baseman can secure a position on the East Side team. Apply to H. H. Pomeroy, manager, corner East Morrison street and Grand avenue.

FIELD DOGS TO BE CLASSY BRAND

Pointers and Setters Coming From California and British Columbia.

Interest in the field trials which will be held up the valley next September is increasing, and from inquiries being received at the office of Secretary Parsons there is every reason to believe that the finest dogs in California, Washington and British Columbia will be present. Several prominent southern fanciers have written asking about the condition and place of the race and signifying their intention of entering.

Entries for the Derby race close next month, and this fact is responsible for the unusual activity of the owners. The Oregon Field Trial club, which is fathering the new sport for the purpose of promoting interest in the better breeding of pointers and setters, is composed of some of the most prominent sportsmen in Portland.

Some of the important rules connected with the trials are as follows:

For all stakes the names, pedigree, age, color and distinguishing marks of each dog shall be detailed in writing to the secretary of the club, to be filed at the time of making entries.

Dogs to Be Barred.

Any dog whose age, markings or pedigree shall be proven not to correspond with the entry shall be disqualified, and all such dog's stake or winnings shall be forfeited. Dogs afflicted with any contagious disease, and bitches in season or unduly attracting the attention of the competing dogs, will not be permitted on the grounds.

In these rules the term "dog" is understood to mean both sexes.

A dog whelped before January 1 of the year preceding the trials will not be eligible for the Derby. Entries for the Derby close July 31 at 12 p. m., and All-Age August 31 at 12 p. m. Entries sent by mail and postmarked after these dates and hours will positively be rejected.

A dog cannot be withdrawn from a stake at any time after the fee to start has been paid, without the consent of the judge, and any owner or handler withdrawing a dog or dogs without the consent of the judge shall be debarred from any future trials held by the club, or be penalized at the discretion of the club, and forfeit all their interest to the stakes.

The judge shall take full charge of the running and run the dogs in such manner, and at such times, and for such length of time, as in his judgment will be best calculated to bring out the three best dogs in the stake. The judge may announce the winners at any time he is satisfied so to do.

Handling of Entry.

The handlers of the dogs shall walk quietly within reasonable distance of each other, as in ordinary shooting, so that the dogs may be on equality as to the ground opportunities for finding, etc. Handlers may ask the judge for information or explanation, having a direct bearing upon any point at issue. The person handling the dog may speak, whistle to, and work his dog as he may deem proper, but he may be called to order by the judge for unnecessary noise or for disorderly conduct.

No person shall make any remarks concerning location of birds or give any information whatever calculated to affect the action of handlers or the result of the heat. Any person so offending shall be expelled from the grounds.

No firearms will be permitted in the field trial party except the handlers, who shall provide themselves with revolvers and blank cartridges, and only shoot when so ordered by the judge. Dogs not entered in the trials will not be permitted to accompany the field trial party.

The following stakes will be run in the order named:

1. "Derby," open to the world. Open to dogs whelped on and after January 1 of the year preceding the trials.

Entree fee, July 31	$ 5.00
Fee to start	10.00
$200 guaranteed.

Second place	60.00
Third place	40.00

2. "All-Age," open to the world.

Entry fee, August 31	$ 10.00
Fee to start	10.00
$800 guaranteed.
First place	$150.00

Third place	60.00

ANCIENT ATHLETE WINS

Pete Gerhardt of the Olympic club, who finished first yesterday in the 220-yard dash in the fast time of 22 2-5 seconds on a slow track. Gerhardt is a wonder. Although he is 31 years of age, Pete is one of the fastest sprinters on the coast, and like Maderia, grows better with age. Peter caught the third point in the 100-yard event, making six in all.

BOB UMPIRES; PORTLAND WINS

But Nobody Makes Any Allegation of Fitzsimmons Favoring Beavers.

BASSEY TAKES IT OUT ON THE SPHERE

O'Connell Had Displeased Him, So He Leans Against It and Two Reach the Happy Hearthstone—Mr. Cooney as Flypaper.

Bob Fitzsimmons umpired and Portland won. Score, 4 to 2.

It was a fearful handicap, but Bob did the best he could and Los Angeles was satisfied. Portland was happy and the real fans stood around 20 deep after the game to get a close view of the man who walloped Corbett into dreamland with the famous solar plexus.

But about the game. Oakes was the first man up and bingled to first. The decision was close and Fitzsimmons, who was umpiring bases, called him safe. Maybe that didn't make the crowd sore on the ex-champion. But they forgot all about it when Cooney picked up Wheeler's hot one and shot it over to Johnson. Bob called him out and the fans cheered up. In the second McCredie got to second about a mile before the ball, but that didn't make any difference to Fitz, who called the big manager out, just as he would have done to any sand-lotter. That settled it with the crowd. The fans sat down and watched for developments.

They came in a hurry, for Portland commenced the slaughter in the second. Two hits and a run and the rooters went up with the balloon. They took Koestner with them. When the balloon came down Portland had a run tucked inside the score box and the bell rang for the first time.

But the cheers died away and a deep gloom settled over the crowd when Oakes scored on a throw-in that was interrupted by Kinsella who wanted to catch Wheeler at second. Then Wheeler scored on Dillon's drive and things were looking glum. "Here we go," moaned one pessimist with a deep feeling in his heart. And for the next two innings it did look as though it might be a three-run game.

The only thing of interest in the fourth was the umpire combination which worked against Portland. Bassey was at bat and had two strikes and three balls. The next one went over the little fielder's head and O'Connell called it a strike. Oh, the shame of it! With a chance to score, too! But even that would have been forgiven had not Fitz entered the game at this stage and called McCredie out at third. Mac ate a pound and one half of saw dust out of the sack and wobbled in to the bench.

In the fifth Cooney picked up about the hottest thing in the drive line that has been seen on the local field this year. Ellis did the driving but Cooney grabbed it and threw underhand to Johnson in time to kill what looked to be one of the prettiest hits of the day.

But the sixth! That was the inning. Koestner grew tired and the Beavers took a sudden liking to swatting the ball over the lot. One Mr. Bassey, in particular, had blood in his eye. He remembered O'Connell's one error of judgment in the game and waited until a nice one came over. Bassey walloped it. He walloped it hard. Two runs resulted.

In the seventh with two out Raftery smashed one of those real hot ones, one that fairly sizzled, into Smith at third. Like the epitaph on the gentleman's tombstone in Arizona, Smith did his best. But his best wasn't good enough and Cooney scored.

That ended the run-getting. Both teams got a hit in the eighth, but the Angels were tired in the ninth and Portland ran home with the game. Fitz said it was a nice game and thought he had umpired beautifully. He did—beautifully. The score:
