MEDFORD MAN BREAKS NELSON'S AUTO RECORD. Roseburg, Or., June 5.—William Hodson and Van Gilbert of Medford, in a two-cylinder Buick runabout, yesterday broke the time established between Medford and Roseburg recently by Fernando Nelson on his run from San Francisco to Portland in a White steamer. Nelson accomplished the distance between the two towns in 5 1/2 hours, Hodson's record yesterday was 6 hours and 49 minutes.

Young Donahue vs. George Memie. (United Press Leased Wire.) Boston, Mass., June 9.—The members of the Army Athletic club are looking forward to a lively contest tonight when Young Donahue and George Memie come together in a 12-round bout. Donahue, practically defeated Memie in Indianapolis a couple of years ago, and he expresses confidence in his ability to repeat the trick tonight. Since their last meeting, however, the pugilistic stock of Memie has been on the rise and he is far from being the fighter he once was. During the past year he has been fighting on the Pacific coast and during that time has shown himself a very hard man as Joe Case, Rudolph Uebels and Cyclone Anthony Thompson.

GREATEST RACE HORSE IN AMERICA TODAY.

There have been few greater race horses in the world than James R. Keene's Colli. After a record of 12 straight victories worth nearly $140,000 last season as a two-year-old, the turf wonder came back this season and captured the rich Withers stake at Belmont. After working out a mile in less than 1:38 in preparation for the Belmont handicap, word was sent out that he had gone wrong. But the next day he easily won the $25,000 purse in the mud. He is entered in all the richest stakes of the season and bids fair to repeat his last year's record.

STATE CAPITOL OFFICIALS WILL PLAY BASEBALL WITH SALEMITES

(Salem Bureau of the Journal.) Salem, Or., June 9.—A statehouse baseball team has been organized and is practicing to take part in the Twilight league games to be played between the bankers, woolen mill hands and business men of Salem during the summer on a grass diamond on Willamette university campus. The Twilight league managers will meet Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. to arrange a schedule of games and the series will commence at once to decide the championship. William M. Gatens, secretary to Governor Chamberlain, is captain and manager of the statehouse club. Among some of the more enthusiastic players are Willis Dunlavy, state printer, who will fill an infield position, Samuel Koser, chief deputy in the secretary of state's office, and Superintendent Ackerman who will hold down second base. One of the chief organizers is William T. Perkins, Journal, while in the state treasurer's office, who is particularly qualified for first base. Gatens himself will pitch. C. L. Starr, clerk of the board of normal school regents, will play behind the bat, and "Jimmy" Maher, the elderly elevator boy, will lead the rooters for the statehouse. Others who are trying out for positions on the capitol team are E. G. Miller, clerk in the office of the railroad commission, Clyde Atchison and Oswald West, railroad commissioner, Charles V. Galloway, clerk in the state land department, John Lewis, state engineer, Ray Utter, S. A. Nye, J. B. Allison, Clifford Benson and H. H. Corley, all clerks and employes in the secretary of state's office and printing department.

FITZ TELLS HOW TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT

Out of the depths of his knowledge on the training of the human body Bob Fitzsimmons has dropped a few hints on that troublesome question: "How can I get rid of some of this weight?" Man and woman alike seek the solution. Perhaps the advice of the champion is exactly what you need; it is particularly for the business man approaching middle age. Abstain from the use of all fatty and starchy food. Eat all kinds of meat except pork. Eat all varieties of green vegetables, fruits and dry toasts, and drink your tea without sugar. Do not eat potatoes, butter, fresh bread or sugar. There is the diet; now for the exercises. They are not difficult, and I will give you only two movements. In the first, you must lie flat on your back and then raise your legs up together so they will be at right angles with your body; then slowly let them down to the floor. Do this 30 times each morning and evening. In the second movement you must lie down on your stomach. When in this position place your hands on the floor near your chest, and without bending the body, push yourself slowly

UNKNOWN UMPIRE HANDS CRACK JOURNAL PLAYERS A RAW BUNCH

There is an umpire—name unknown—who was given a start of ten minutes over the first-footed runners of the Journal baseball team yesterday afternoon after the game with the Telegram. The last seen of the umpire was running toward the river almost hidden from view by the large cloud of dust he was raising. Now, this particular umpire had all the earmarks of being an honest man until he commenced umpiring. After that he made Ananias look like a piker. But for a mistake in selecting the umpire the Journal team would have beaten the Telegram by a score of 80 to 0. As it was, the ball players from

THIS IS M'CREIDIE.

When it comes to knowing baseball from A to Z nobody on the coast can give you better evidence of his knowledge than Walter H. McCreddie, manager of the Portland team. "Mac," as he is popularly known, has been playing the game ever since Heck was a pup. Mac was born near Dubuque, Iowa, in 1879, and his kid days were punctuated with stirring moments on the back lots of Sioux City. He was a star pitcher in the high school at that place and in 1894, when he was 15 years of age, he was taken up by Des Moines, in the Western league. This was quite a jump for a schoolboy and he early proved to be the best batsman on the circuit. Pete Lohman, who discovered Walter, switched him to shortstop so that his consistently terrific hitting could be utilized in every game. When Pete Lohman went to the man-

SEATTLE HORSEMEN TO AUCTION CLASSY NAGS

T. S. McGrath, president of the Portland Hunt club, who has just returned from Seattle, brings news that the Seattle Horse Show association will auction off some 30 bloodstock show horses at that place next Tuesday. H. W. Treat of the Seattle association recently purchased the animals in the east and some of them are blue-ribbon winners at New York, Philadelphia, Boston and London. They will be auctioned without reserve and very likely some of them will come to Portland. Tomorrow (Wednesday) will be positively the last day for discount on west side gas bills. Portland Gas Co.

up to the full length of your arms. Do this 10 times each morning and evening. Above all things, you must be regular, and do not look for too speedy results. You cannot hope to stick to this diet and these exercises for two or three mornings and then jump on the scales and find that you have dropped five or 10 pounds. It will be at least two or three weeks before you commence to lose weight. Then you will drop from two to five pounds a week. You must impress it upon your mind, however, that there must be no weakening on the tasks that you have laid down for yourself. Some cold mornings you will get up, possibly after a hard night, feeling languid and unrefreshed. Instead of taking your cold bath, rub-down and exercises, you may be tempted to say, "Oh! I'll just skip it this once, and jump into my clothes." Such weakness is fatal. Persevere! Tomorrow (Wednesday) will be positively the last day for discount on west side gas bills. Portland Gas Co.

OAKLAND SERIES TO START TODAY

Van Haltren's Men Arrive From South Flushed With Victory. Oakland is here for its second series with the Beavers, the first game of which starts at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Vaughn street park. Pop Van Haltren's crew trounced the Seals pretty hard in a double-header in San Francisco and Oakland, Sunday, and the Athletics are full of confidence.

They figure on winning the opening game, inasmuch as Portland has hardly captured that feature on the home grounds since the opening of the season. Manager McCreddie will either send Finnance or Groom to the slab today, and it will most likely be the Indian, since Bobby has been worked overtime for several weeks. Dellar will probably pitch for the bunch from across the bay, as it is his turn and he is in good shape. Lewis will do the backstopping. Slattery, the other catcher, has been out of the game for a week with a sore finger, but hopes to help the team before the local season is over. Otherwise the visitors are in splendid shape.
