

HITCHCOCK SENDS DEFIANT

Alleged Threat to Combine With Negroes Arouses the Wrath of Taft Boomite—Throws Down Gauntlet to American Federation.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, June 12.—The possibility of a breach between the Republican party and organized labor was suggested this evening when Manager Frank H. Hitchcock of the Taft boom, virtually sent a deft to President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor. A hint was brought to Hitchcock that the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, now in session at the Kaiserhof house, was formulating some pretty stiff demands which it intended to put to the convention, and if these demands were not accepted to the striking men would set about forming a new party in combination with the negroes and thus bring about the inevitable defeat of the Republican candidate.

"If they do such a thing," said Hitchcock, in reply to this, "the working men will only invite the annihilation of their own organization."

This word from Hitchcock is taken by many as an indication that the labor plank to be urged by the American Federation of Labor will be "turned down" by the convention at the behest of the Taft management.

The members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor held two sessions covering the better part of the day at the Kaiserhof. The members talked over various suggestions regarding the best manner in which to put the demands of labor to the convention, but did not reach any definite conclusion.

President Gompers said this evening that he thought the matter would be finally disposed of by the council next Monday.

It is believed that Hitchcock is taking this attitude because he is a Taft boomite and he is determined to support Taft.

AIM TO IMPROVE THE CATERING ART IN OREGON

JOHN SHIELDS, PRESIDENT.

H. D. MARTLIN, VICE-PRES.

J. LEHMER, DIRECTOR.

EUGENE MAY, DIRECTOR.

President John Shields of the recently organized local branch of the Geneva association, a society composed of the leading caterers all over the world, says it will be the aim of the newly instituted branch of the organization in Portland to improve the service in all the first-class hotels and restaurants of the city and state.

"We intend to make the influence of our association such that whenever a man is recommended by us as a first-class waiter he will find his services in demand at any point in the northwest where there is a vacancy," said Mr. Shields.

"One of the strictest rules for eligibility to membership in the Geneva association is that the applicant be sober, honest and thoroughly efficient."

John Lehner, steward of the Arlington club and one of the directors of the local association, is one of the foremost members of the profession in the United States. He is the highest-salaried head waiter at the Arlington before coming to Portland he was manager of the Arlington in New York.

W. B. Martlin, superintendent of the service of the Portland hotel is vice-president of the association here. His face is well known throughout the west.

Eugene May, steward of the Commercial club, is also one of the directors of the Portland branch of the Geneva association. He was for years at the head of the New York Central railroad catering department.

President Shields has held the position of head waiter at the Arlington for the past four years. Before coming here he worked in all the leading cities of the country and has a long experience as a professional caterer.

Shields and Lehner were among the founders of the American branch of the Geneva society.

Places Marshal Terry from Portland stated Carsten under arrest yesterday morning. A preliminary hearing was held before United States Land Commissioner C. A. Moore and Carsten's bond was fixed at $1,000, which he put up in cash.

The defendant has been a resident of Baker City for about seven years, has conducted his business in a quiet way, has paid his bills and stands well with the business people here.

To a reporter Carsten said in his opinion he was wanted more for a witness than for anything else.

Other passengers on the steamer reported that at Hongkong the Japanese vessels are not getting an ounce of freight and that their steamers call at different places after trade only to go away empty.

According to some of the people arriving on the steamer, the boycott may be continued indefinitely, although Japan is already wincing under her treatment at the hands of the Chinese merchants.

The boycott is described as being a great deal more severe than the battle against American trade waged two years ago in the Central Empire and thousands of dollars worth of trade is being turned over to foreign steamship lines by the Chinese.

FINDS PURYEAR LOST TWO-FIFTY

Court Will Award Five Hundred in Milwaukie Gambling Case.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Oregon City, June 12.—The jury in the case of L. Puryear vs. the Milwaukie Country club and Ike and Vic Gratton brought in their verdict this afternoon, finding that the plaintiff lost the sum of $250 in gambling games with the members of the club. The judgment of the court will be for the plaintiff in the sum of $500, double the sum forfeited by the defendant.

The Milwaukie club case, entitled O. L. Puryear vs. the Milwaukie Country club, Ike Gratton, Vic Gratton, E. J. Jones and J. E. Cullison, came to trial yesterday. On October 21 last Puryear took a trip from Portland to Milwaukie and found his way to the clubhouse. He went in, started at roulette and left $20 behind him. Determined on having satisfaction, he returned to the club and tackled the fare box and dropped $180, the dealer "living him a car ticket back to Portland. Next day he went up against a few stiff poker games and left $20 behind him, making a total amount dropped by him in nine days of $500.

He then commenced a suit against the club and its members for $1,000, double the sum lost, and the amount recoverable by law.

Figgett, French and Biggar of Portland appeared for Puryear, and E. R. Moody and Hedges and Griffith for the club.

The following were the trial jurors: J. R. Myers, J. A. Tutin, George H. Young, E. L. Johnson, Pat Harris, W. Randolph, C. N. Greenman, Andy Hodge, E. F. Elliott, A. H. Schram, Charles Cassidy and E. D. Kelly. Court adjourned to 2 o'clock.

Puryear testified that he had gone to the club house on the date referred to, tried his luck, found it had each time, and quit "dead broke." When his last sou was gone he met Vic Gratton at Portland, to whom he told his tale of ill luck, and demanded the return of the money which he lost.

Gratton told him that if $20 were any good to him he could have that sum, but Puryear said it was all of nothing, and Gratton said it would be nothing.

A cross-examination he said it was not all his money that was lost, some being his wife's which she earned in the harvest fields of eastern Oregon, as a cook. He also said that he played to win, if he could.

Mrs. Puryear Earned It. The city recorder of Milwaukie was put on the stand to prove the business carried on at the clubhouse. His record book showed it to be a saloon, or cafe where intoxicating liquors were sold, but he did not know of his own knowledge what the business was. The club had paid liquor licenses regularly, and other sums also into the city treasury, which the council instructed him to enter in the books as "commissions received."

Puryear's wife testified to earning the money referred to by her husband, and also that she had demanded a return of the money from Gratton, but further but unimportant testimony was given.

BOYCOTT MAY CAUSE TROUBLE

Jap Merchants Worried by Refusal of Chinese to Buy Their Goods.

(Herald News by Longest Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, June 12.—The occidental and oriental liner, Asia, arriving at this port early this morning from the orient brought bad news to the effect that the boycott directed by the Chinese merchants against the Japanese at the Chinese ports had assumed alarming proportions and that serious trouble might ensue unless some means are taken to check it.

Among those arriving on the Asia was T. H. P. Sutton, an insurance man, on a tour of the world, who had stopped over at Hongkong where the feeling against the Japanese is strongest for nearly a month. In the opinion of Sutton, the Japanese are so incensed over the action of the merchants of China that they would resort to force but for the fact that the European powers might interfere.

Other passengers on the steamer reported that at Hongkong the Japanese vessels are not getting an ounce of freight and that their steamers call at different places after trade only to go away empty.

According to some of the people arriving on the steamer, the boycott may be continued indefinitely, although Japan is already wincing under her treatment at the hands of the Chinese merchants.

SAME OLD CABIN FOR SIXTY MEN

Veteran Shack That Will Be an Exhibit in Umatilla Land Fraud Cases.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., June 12.—It has been learned that one of the most interesting details of the Umatilla land frauds case to be brought out in the trial of those accused will be the manner in which the entrymen were located upon their lands. It is said that about 60 entrymen were located upon their claims by one locator, who used the same "home-stead" cabin for the entire 60 entrymen. This cabin is located on upper McKilly creek and is convenient to much of the unallotted Umatilla lands, and will figure in the trials as conspicuously as any other feature.

Several witnesses have testified as to this feature of the frauds before the federal grand jury, and it has developed that this will be one of the chief features of the trials.

In a large number of cases the same man who located the entrymen on their land was also employed to build the cabins on the different claims and make the improvements required by law. The entryman would be taken out to his claim and shown a cabin, his "residence," and believing that this cabin was on his land the entryman could innocently make oath that he had a residence on the land.

The facts are that the cabin shown many entrymen as their "residence," were from four to eight miles from their land and the same cabin served for everybody who simply took the land for speculation.

Many of the entrymen located their own lands, built their own cabins and made their own improvements and in these cases were familiar with their claims, but a large number of claims were taken by people who simply took the land for speculation and who were duped as to the location of the land and as to the improvements made upon their land by the locator.

BAKER MAN ACCUSED OF LAND FRAUD

HO! FOR GOOD OLD SEASIDE

Take a Dip in the Ocean? Yes, Here Are Some Who Do.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Seaside, Or., June 12.—The summer season has begun at Seaside. Every train brings countless numbers of people to this famous resort and the hotels and cottages are being rapidly filled. The weather during the past week has been very delightful and many of the new comers have taken advantage of it by making side trips to Cannon beach and over the ridge to the summit of Tillamook Head. The tourists who climbed Tillamook Head to witness the passing of the fleet cleared their eyes of the haze so that now it makes a very pleasant day's trip. Then there is the salt calm where Lewis and Clark made their camp, the beach during January and February, 1806.

Clatsop is well supplied with good hotels for the accommodation of its guests. With the Gearhart hotel, Lockley hall, Moore hotel, McGuire hotel and Sargent's Seaside house the large throng of summer visitors is given the best of service.

Next Friday, June 19, the annual conference of the Y. W. C. A. will be held at Seaside house. Two hundred delegates from the states of Washington, Idaho and Oregon will be entering there in a day. Delta, Watson of the Portland Y. W. C. A., has charge of the business end of the conference.
