

Most of the time has been taken up lately with commencement exercises, and with the home-coming of sons and daughters attending school in the east.

While it is a little early yet for the return of those in college the girls from most of the finishing schools have returned. Last Sunday Miss Mary Livingston returned from Mount Holyoke, Boston, and the Misses Carolyn and Evelyn Wilson returned from St. Margaret's school in Waterbury, Connecticut.

Members of the faculty occupied places at the different tables. On these occasions the instructors reserve to themselves the privilege of serving the students. Fun and music and song filled the evening which was pronounced unsurpassed by St. Mary's class '08.

Today the students of St. Mary's academy and college will attend St. Mary's cathedral at a solemn high mass which will be celebrated and the bacchanals of the faculty occupied places at the different tables.

Various charity entertainments and the like are engrossing the attention, too, now. There is the collegiate dramatic play tomorrow night, and the Flower mission baseball game and the Institute club's opera.

The past week there were several events of interest which were reviewed in the daily society column. The dinner given at the Portland Monday evening Leo Hahn for Miss Grace Nicholson, since married to Laurence Holman, and Miss Helen Brigham, who will be married this week to Norris B. Gregg, was one of the most elaborate and complete affairs.

Miss Helen Brigham has been extensively entertained the past fortnight previous to her wedding Wednesday evening. One of the charming affairs given for her was a bridge in the galleries of the Golf club Tuesday afternoon.

The charity baseball game to be played next Saturday afternoon on the Multnomah field for the benefit of the Flower mission, will be patronized as usual by society. The doctors and lawyers will play against the bankers.

The marriage of Miss Louise Von Destinton and Robert S. Howard will be celebrated next Wednesday at Miss Von Destinton's home. The ceremony will be a quiet one.

George J. Major of Los Angeles spent a few days in Portland last week renewing old acquaintances. He had many charming things to say of Portland, where he formerly spent much of his time.

An interesting wedding which was celebrated very quietly was that of Mrs. W. O. Rudy, daughter of H. D. Ramsdell of Portland Heights, and Rev. H. N. Ramsdell, pastor of the First Congregational church here, and has many friends.

Notice has been received of the announced engagement of Miss Louise Edwards of Georgia and Albert Armstrong of Tacoma. Mr. Armstrong was entertained here last summer during the state tennis tournament and carried off several trophies, as he is one of the best amateur tennis players of the coast.

Frank Vincent DuMont left yesterday for New York after conducting a most interesting and profitable course of art study at the Art museum. Mrs. DuMont with her two children will remain through the summer with her mother, Mrs. Henry E. Jones.

Miss Helen Rosenfeld and Miss Miriam Jacobs returned Monday evening from the Benjamin Deane school in New York, where they spent the winter. Arthur and James Rosenfeld, who are attending Johns Hopkins, returned with them.
