

THE GLEET

Famous Know Nothing Policy of Mr. "Can't Tell You" Puts Him in Running for Vice-Presidential Nomination.

By Henry K. Lambie.

Washington, June 15.—Quite a few years ago, when George B. Cortelyou, during McKinley's first administration, was promoted to the position of secretary to the president, the newspaper correspondents in Washington discovered a new quantity in public life. They had grown used to seeing most men in the White House, and they were not prepared to see a man of Cortelyou's type. He was not a politician, and he was not a statesman. He was a man of letters, and he was a man of letters in the best sense of the word. He was a man of letters in the best sense of the word. He was a man of letters in the best sense of the word.

MRS. M'GEE FEARS DEVL GERMES AND CHASES RIVAL WITH BIBLE

By Henry K. Lambie.

Mrs. A. McGee is an exponent of religion. She resides in the vicinity of Third and Morrison streets. John Olson is in the same business. In spite of the many reasons for a mutual bond of fellowship between Mrs. McGee and Mr. Olson an insurmountable barrier of enmity exists between them. Yesterday this culminated in a footrace down Third street, during which Mrs. McGee employed her Bible, while Mr. Olson sticks his face up to hers when she is preaching, trying to inculcate her with devil germs.

LEADERS OF THE GLEET MADE THEIR ESCAPE FROM POLICE LICENSES

By Henry K. Lambie.

Right Man Said Not to Be Captured at Mount Tabor Meeting. Because B. F. Sherwood, a policeman, allowed a number of persons to escape from him at the Mount Tabor camp meeting Saturday night the case against T. V. Warner, E. A. R. and C. H. Newton, charged with refusing to move from their quarters, was continued until June 15, by which time an effort will be made to apprehend the offenders who escaped through Sherwood's inefficiency.

GRAMPUS AND PIKE AGAIN IN COMMISSION, FOLLOWING REMODELING.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Vallejo, Cal., June 15.—The submarine Grampus and Pike have been placed in commission at the Mare Island yard after being remodeled by the government, alterations and repairs costing $20,000 apiece having been made on them at this station. Lieutenant Gus Castle, a submarine expert from the Atlantic coast, is in temporary command of the boats, but will leave soon for the Orient to assume command of the submarine boats recently shipped from the Atlantic coast.

WATER CARNIVAL AT ALBANY THE FOURTH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Albany, Or., June 15.—The program for the three days' Fourth of July celebration has practically been completed and includes features wide and varied. The celebration will begin on Thursday, July 4, and continue on Friday, July 5, and Saturday, July 6. The first two days will be devoted largely to speed events on the river. Practically all the horses on the Independence race track have been promised for the water carnival, and even some from Yaguma, will engage in this spectacle. Every kind of craft will be represented.

MAN-EATING DOG OF POLICE CLERK FOUND BY LOGGING CHAIN

Patrolman Keller demanded of Casey that the man-eating dog be turned over to the law. Casey was inclined to evade the command but a glance at his companion's determined expression dissipated his inclination. Reluctantly he picked up a rug lying in one corner of the sitting room, shook it gently, and the dog appeared.

EX-SENATOR SIMON, FOR THE SON, DECLARES INSANITY CHARGE IMMATERIAL.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Atlanta, Ga., June 15.—The sentiment is rapidly gaining headway here that the defeat of Governor Hoke Smith in the primary was practically a demonstration against the prohibition law. So many of the legislators who voted for the law have indicated that they would support a movement to repeal it. Representative Joseph M. Brown of Georgia today said:

COMMENCEMENT WEEK AT U. OF O. Program Complete, June 21 to 24—List of the Graduates.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

University of Oregon, Eugene, June 15.—The program for commencement week has been completed and the exercises will be elaborate. They will be opened Sunday, June 21, with the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, a son of President Johnson, who is the vice head of the University of Oregon.

REFUGEE NECESSARY TO OBTAIN LICENSES

By Henry K. Lambie.

The fact that Mrs. Stevens, the daughter of the late Mrs. Myers, is a refugee, is a fact which she is unable to prove that her father was acting under an insane delusion, said Simon. He said that if she could prove that she and her father were together at the time of the death of his wife, she would be able to obtain a license to practice for 10 years, he should not have taken the case. Added to this, Mrs. Stevens thought it inadvisable that she should become a refugee, as it would reflect on the real nature of the illness of her mother.

FINER ROSE SHOW AT FOREST GROVE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Forest Grove, Or., June 15.—The rose show held in this city Saturday was in point of beauty and variety of roses on exhibition, and number of people in attendance during the day, the best ever given here.

KIDDER FINED FOR SWEARING ON STREET

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Ten dollars fine was given R. H. Kidder, an Alder street saloonkeeper, by Judge Cameron this morning. Kidder was arrested Sunday by Captain Slover for using obscene language. According to the testimony of the captain, he was talking to a newspaper reporter, and he did not distribute disseminative propaganda with his newspapers, and interspersing his talk with oaths.

WIVES AND GIBT GEORGE TROED TO DISGRACE

Ex-Senator Simon, for the Son, Declares Insanity Charge Immaterial.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

The final chapter in the coifed waged against the will of the wealthy salmon packer, George T. Myers, so far as the county court is concerned, was opened this morning when arguments in behalf of the proponents of the will were begun. Joseph Simon, former United States senator, was the lawyer for the testator, and he concluded when Judge Webster adjourned court at noon.

OPINION ALLOWABLE

By Henry K. Lambie.

Mr. Simon said he would not attempt to state either side of the case, as he was a referee in the case. He said that if he could prove that she and her father were together at the time of the death of his wife, she would be able to obtain a license to practice for 10 years, he should not have taken the case.

BOURNE HAS NOT BEEN RECALLED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Chicago, June 15.—I haven't heard the story before," Senator Bourne said today when informed that prominent senators and delegates to the Republican national convention had agreed to boycott him on account of his declaration, after the Oregon election, that the legislature was in honor bound to elect Chamberlain in obedience to the popular mandate.

DAY OF SERMONS AT OLD McMINVILLE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

McMinnville, Or., June 15.—Yesterday saw the formal opening of the annual commencement of McMinnville college. At the First Baptist church at Vallejo, the education of the young was the subject of "Educated Hearts," taken from the twenty-third verse of the fourth chapter of the book of James.

WALLACE E. PATTEN ALLEGES DESERTION

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Oregon City, June 15.—Wallace E. Patten, by his attorney, Dimick & Dimick, commenced a divorce suit on Saturday against Mollie E. Patten. They were married at Spokane, Wash., January 1, 1888, and four children were born to them, two girls, 15 and 18 years of age, and two boys, 10 and 12 years of age. In August, 1904, at Kent, Or., the defendant deserted her husband and children. It is alleged in the complaint for no cause of divorce he asks for the custody of the children.

COE READY TO GO TO GOOD BYE

Business Revival Will Follow as Result of Unbounded Prosperity That Is Sure to Result After Harvest Is Gleaned.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Chicago, June 15.—"I am ready to break to Roosevelt any time I think there is any chance to nominate him," Dr. Coe said after the Oregon delegation had met and assigned him the lowest place in committee assignments, which he sarcastically declined, saying, "I have no right to expect any consideration from this delegation."

ALFRED ANDERSON AND F. W. CARROLL SECURED TO HEAR EVIDENCE.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Two jurors were added to the list for the trial of the Lem Woon murder case this morning, with a prospect that the remaining four needed to complete the jury will not be secured before tomorrow morning.

FOUR SURVIVE TERRIBLE FALL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

St. Helena, Or., June 15.—While William Ross, president of the Columbia County bank, and his family were driving yesterday they met with a serious accident on a bridge two and one half miles west of St. Helena. In the buggy were William Ross, his wife, a young son Cecil, and a niece. They had crossed the bridge, which is over a gulch, when the horse became frightened. Mr. Ross was holding the reins, and he could not control the horse, which backed half way across the bridge and off one side, where a cropping had previously been broken and not replaced, as the bridge is to be taken out and a fill made.

RUTH BRYAN LEAVITT ABSENT FROM SESSION

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Glenwood Springs, Colo., June 15.—Mrs. Ruth Leavitt, daughter of A. P. Simon of Troutdale, was absent from the session of the Oregon State Bar Association held here today. Her proxy is held by a Denver man. The names of several women to the national convention, among those named in this connection, being Mrs. Leavitt and Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Leavitt was also mentioned as a possible national delegate.

HORSE KILLED ON VANCOUVER CARLINE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Struck by a Vancouver car one of a team of horses belonging to A. P. Simon of Troutdale was instantly killed about noon today. The animal's neck was broken by the impact. Its companion was badly injured. Simon was driving east on East Desautels street and as he turned to go south on Grand avenue Vancouver car No. 601 came along at a high rate of speed and struck the horse, killing the driver could swerve the horses from the track.

COE READY TO GO TO GOOD BYE

Business Revival Will Follow as Result of Unbounded Prosperity That Is Sure to Result After Harvest Is Gleaned.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Chicago, June 15.—"I am ready to break to Roosevelt any time I think there is any chance to nominate him," Dr. Coe said after the Oregon delegation had met and assigned him the lowest place in committee assignments, which he sarcastically declined, saying, "I have no right to expect any consideration from this delegation."

ALFRED ANDERSON AND F. W. CARROLL SECURED TO HEAR EVIDENCE.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Two jurors were added to the list for the trial of the Lem Woon murder case this morning, with a prospect that the remaining four needed to complete the jury will not be secured before tomorrow morning.

FOUR SURVIVE TERRIBLE FALL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

St. Helena, Or., June 15.—While William Ross, president of the Columbia County bank, and his family were driving yesterday they met with a serious accident on a bridge two and one half miles west of St. Helena. In the buggy were William Ross, his wife, a young son Cecil, and a niece. They had crossed the bridge, which is over a gulch, when the horse became frightened. Mr. Ross was holding the reins, and he could not control the horse, which backed half way across the bridge and off one side, where a cropping had previously been broken and not replaced, as the bridge is to be taken out and a fill made.

RUTH BRYAN LEAVITT ABSENT FROM SESSION

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Glenwood Springs, Colo., June 15.—Mrs. Ruth Leavitt, daughter of A. P. Simon of Troutdale, was absent from the session of the Oregon State Bar Association held here today. Her proxy is held by a Denver man. The names of several women to the national convention, among those named in this connection, being Mrs. Leavitt and Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Leavitt was also mentioned as a possible national delegate.

HORSE KILLED ON VANCOUVER CARLINE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Struck by a Vancouver car one of a team of horses belonging to A. P. Simon of Troutdale was instantly killed about noon today. The animal's neck was broken by the impact. Its companion was badly injured. Simon was driving east on East Desautels street and as he turned to go south on Grand avenue Vancouver car No. 601 came along at a high rate of speed and struck the horse, killing the driver could swerve the horses from the track.

COE READY TO GO TO GOOD BYE

Business Revival Will Follow as Result of Unbounded Prosperity That Is Sure to Result After Harvest Is Gleaned.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Chicago, June 15.—"I am ready to break to Roosevelt any time I think there is any chance to nominate him," Dr. Coe said after the Oregon delegation had met and assigned him the lowest place in committee assignments, which he sarcastically declined, saying, "I have no right to expect any consideration from this delegation."

ALFRED ANDERSON AND F. W. CARROLL SECURED TO HEAR EVIDENCE.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Two jurors were added to the list for the trial of the Lem Woon murder case this morning, with a prospect that the remaining four needed to complete the jury will not be secured before tomorrow morning.

FOUR SURVIVE TERRIBLE FALL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

St. Helena, Or., June 15.—While William Ross, president of the Columbia County bank, and his family were driving yesterday they met with a serious accident on a bridge two and one half miles west of St. Helena. In the buggy were William Ross, his wife, a young son Cecil, and a niece. They had crossed the bridge, which is over a gulch, when the horse became frightened. Mr. Ross was holding the reins, and he could not control the horse, which backed half way across the bridge and off one side, where a cropping had previously been broken and not replaced, as the bridge is to be taken out and a fill made.

RUTH BRYAN LEAVITT ABSENT FROM SESSION

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Glenwood Springs, Colo., June 15.—Mrs. Ruth Leavitt, daughter of A. P. Simon of Troutdale, was absent from the session of the Oregon State Bar Association held here today. Her proxy is held by a Denver man. The names of several women to the national convention, among those named in this connection, being Mrs. Leavitt and Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Leavitt was also mentioned as a possible national delegate.

HORSE KILLED ON VANCOUVER CARLINE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Struck by a Vancouver car one of a team of horses belonging to A. P. Simon of Troutdale was instantly killed about noon today. The animal's neck was broken by the impact. Its companion was badly injured. Simon was driving east on East Desautels street and as he turned to go south on Grand avenue Vancouver car No. 601 came along at a high rate of speed and struck the horse, killing the driver could swerve the horses from the track.

COE READY TO GO TO GOOD BYE

Business Revival Will Follow as Result of Unbounded Prosperity That Is Sure to Result After Harvest Is Gleaned.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Chicago, June 15.—"I am ready to break to Roosevelt any time I think there is any chance to nominate him," Dr. Coe said after the Oregon delegation had met and assigned him the lowest place in committee assignments, which he sarcastically declined, saying, "I have no right to expect any consideration from this delegation."

ALFRED ANDERSON AND F. W. CARROLL SECURED TO HEAR EVIDENCE.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Two jurors were added to the list for the trial of the Lem Woon murder case this morning, with a prospect that the remaining four needed to complete the jury will not be secured before tomorrow morning.

FOUR SURVIVE TERRIBLE FALL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

St. Helena, Or., June 15.—While William Ross, president of the Columbia County bank, and his family were driving yesterday they met with a serious accident on a bridge two and one half miles west of St. Helena. In the buggy were William Ross, his wife, a young son Cecil, and a niece. They had crossed the bridge, which is over a gulch, when the horse became frightened. Mr. Ross was holding the reins, and he could not control the horse, which backed half way across the bridge and off one side, where a cropping had previously been broken and not replaced, as the bridge is to be taken out and a fill made.

RUTH BRYAN LEAVITT ABSENT FROM SESSION

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Glenwood Springs, Colo., June 15.—Mrs. Ruth Leavitt, daughter of A. P. Simon of Troutdale, was absent from the session of the Oregon State Bar Association held here today. Her proxy is held by a Denver man. The names of several women to the national convention, among those named in this connection, being Mrs. Leavitt and Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Leavitt was also mentioned as a possible national delegate.

HORSE KILLED ON VANCOUVER CARLINE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Struck by a Vancouver car one of a team of horses belonging to A. P. Simon of Troutdale was instantly killed about noon today. The animal's neck was broken by the impact. Its companion was badly injured. Simon was driving east on East Desautels street and as he turned to go south on Grand avenue Vancouver car No. 601 came along at a high rate of speed and struck the horse, killing the driver could swerve the horses from the track.