SOCIETY

An elaborate wedding was celebrated last night at Hotel Portland when Miss Cora Marx was married to Solomon Garde in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives. The marriage ceremony was read in the large drawing-room, which was as beautiful a bower as woodland greens and choice flowers could make it. The walls were fairly lined with vine maple and huckleberry vines. The bridal party stood beneath a bower of vines interlaced with pink roses and carnations. Behind them was a solid bank of vines, fern and bachelor buttons. An orchestra was hidden behind a screen of potted plants and bowls of roses. Streamers of pink were festooned from the ceiling to the bridal arbor, and the whole scene was effectively lighted with many incandescents.

Dr. Jonah Wise read the service. The maid of honor was the bride's cousin, Miss Clarice Marx of San Francisco, and the bridesmaids were Miss Sybil Lippitt, Miss Clementine Hirsch, Miss Mae Oppenheimer and Miss Mabel Beck. Samuel Seiling was the best man, and the ushers were Leopold Hirsch, Dr. Seiling, Louis Marx and Adolph Solomon.

The bride was handsomely gowned in rich white satin, cut empire with a long train and worn with a veil. Hand embroidery and applied lace formed the trimmings. She carried a bouquet of lilacs of the valley and orchids. At dinner she wore the bridegroom's gift, a coronet of diamonds and pearls. Miss Clarice Marx wore pale pink satin cut empire and trimmed with princess lace. Miss Lippitt and Miss Hirsch entered together, both frocked in white satin.

All the bride's attendants carried Goldengate roses. Little Judith Lippitt, in pink chiffon, was the flower girl, and Paul Goldman, in a white pauntery suit, was the ring-bearer.

Following the ceremony an elaborate dinner was served in the main dining-room. A round table for the bridal party and the family was laid in the center of the room, surrounded by smaller tables for the other guests. Covers were laid for 100. The entire room was decked with pink roses and woodland greens. On the tables were pink roses and tulle and the favors were pink and white slippers. Mrs. Marx, the bride's mother, hostess of the evening, was gowned in black satin, trimmed with black Cluny lace over white tulle.

Mr. and Mrs. Garde have gone to New York on their wedding trip and will return to Portland in about six weeks to make their home here.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. Marx, Mrs. Goldman, Paul Goldman, Mrs. Jacoby and Miss Samuel Marx of San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. Rosenblatt, Louis Marx, Joe Neuberger and Philip Bernstein.

This evening the event of prominence will be the wedding of Miss Helen Katherine Brigham and Norris B. Gregg at the First Presbyterian church. Miss Brigham is popularly the youngest set and has been extensively entertained since the announcement of her engagement. She is a pretty blonde with long, wavy hair and is a member of the Walter Reed's Treble Clef. She was a joint honor guest with Miss Ethel Lydia last Saturday at a luncheon given at the Nortonia by the Treble Clef.

Miss Brigham will be attended at her wedding this evening by Miss Irene Higgins as maid of honor, and Miss Maud Howell and Miss Lou King as bridesmaids. The best man will be Gilbert Durham and the ushers, Fred Chapman, Lester Hodson, Howard Roberts of New York and Walter Smith.

Another wedding of interest today is that of Miss Louise Von Destinson and Robert S. Howard. Both are of well-known families here and Miss Von Destinson is a niece of Pierre Du Fon. Mr. Roberts is a brother of Mrs. Warren F. Brigham of this city and of Mrs. James Flower of New York and is an uncle of Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd.

This afternoon Miss A. Julia Kirker was married to James V. Sayre with a very quiet ceremony at the bride's home, 721 Hawthorne avenue. Rev. J. V. Milligan, D. D., was the officiating clergyman. Mr. Sayre is a member of an old Portland family.

The academic commencements are keeping the young people and their parents busy. Last night the Allen Preparatory school's class joined the list of graduates with appropriate exercises, and this evening St. Mary's academy and St. Helen's hall graduate their senior girls. The graduating class of St. Helen's hall will give its annual commencement dance tomorrow evening. Last night the alumnae of St. Mary's academy had their social reunion, and St. Helen's hall gave its commencement concert.

There are upward of 70 species of edible seaweeds growing on the coasts of Hawaii, and about 40 of these are in common use by the natives.

Points You Must Consider When Buying DIAMONDS

The Reputation of the House Their Ability to Undersell

Following out this kind of reasoning is bound to result to your advantage, the widespread confidence enjoyed by the firm of Marx & Bloch, and the incomparable quality and quantity of its Diamonds must satisfy you on the first point.

Having an agent in New York always on the lookout for "snaps" buying at sales and from estates, paying spot cash for all, and the very low store rent, presents a strong argument for economic buying.

A Musical Investment

Would you make an investment at this time if you were convinced that you were buying a piano as cheaply as the dealers buy them? Do you realize that our buying in large quantities enables us to buy at what is known as jobbers' prices, and to sell at wholesale to dealers as cheaply as they could buy of the manufacturers? Such is the case, and we are offering to individuals at this time the same prices that we ask these same dealers. JUST ONE HUNDRED PIANOS TO BE SOLD; NO MORE, no less, at these figures. Simply reintroduce ourselves to you after an absence of seven years.

We only ask you to call; we have not the time to call upon you. We are open every evening till 9 o'clock, and it will not take much of your time. We will not try to force you to buy—in fact, we do not want you to buy unless you are convinced that we are doing just what we claim. Let us show YOU A NICE PIANO, VENEERED CASE and IVORY KEYS, FOR $137. You have never seen a piano of any kind offered at that price. We have lots of them in mahogany or oak cases. STILL A BETTER ONE FOR $153, and so on. Think it over. You cannot, in justice to yourself, overlook this opportunity.
