BEAVER-GREEK GAME 15 CANTOS

Long Bob Groom Allows Oakland to Tie Score in Eighth.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, June 18.—After having the game safe in the seventh inning yesterday the Beavers allowed the Oaks to shove one over in the eighth, tying the score and prolonging the matinee for 15 innings, before Umpire O'Connell called it a drawn game. The score was 7 to 7.

The game was full of unusual things, not the least of which was the time consumed in playing, three hours and 20 minutes. This was the longest period ever taken up by a game in San Francisco.

Haley threw the game away for the Oaks. With two on bases and one out Haley laid down a grounder to Cooney, who threw Cook out at the plate. Haley made no pretense of beating it to first and Whalen heaved the ball to Danzig who stepped on the bag. Van Haltren was the sorest man in seven states and it was all he could do to refrain from striking his second baseman.

Groom replaced Garrett in the eighth inning and the run that tied the game was gleaned off the elongated one. Groom was unsteady at the start and his wildness was directly responsible for the score. Although 12 bingles were made off Hardy, he settled down after the seventh and allowed but four hits.

FANS WILL FEAST ON TRI-CITY LEAGUERS

Considerable interest is now manifested in the Tri-City league games which will be played at the Vaughn street grounds while the Beavers are south. The games to be played Saturday and Sunday between Oregon City, St. Johns and East Portland will be hard-fought battles, as the teams are all pretty close to each other in the pennant race and are evenly matched.

Each team has a bunch of loyal rooters and these will be out in force to cheer their favorites on. Manager Pomeroy is confident that the Triple T boys will take both games and betting is about even that they will. The eastsiders have a fast aggregation and a fine bunch of hitters. They have given the leaders the hardest fights of the season, several of the games running into extra innings.

Hurlburt and Gardner are two of the best twirlers in the league and are in fine condition.

Robinson of the "Papermakers" and Keeler of the "Apostles" are both clever shinsters and will make the Commuters feel that there has been a ball game when the final bell rings.

The Tri-City league teams are composed of clever semi-professional players, who in many cases are residents of Portland, and the fans should turn out to encourage the boys. Some of these players will one day be seen in major company.

LONDON SOCIETY AT HORSE SHOW

Famous Animals From Many Countries in Big Ring at Olympia.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

London, June 12.—No event of the kind ever brushed away the topmost bar of precedent and landed so abruptly in the arena of success as did the second international horse show, which came into view today at Olympia. It wanted neither for the word of its rider, sport, nor the beck of fashion. Horses representing half a dozen countries and having an aggregate value exceeding $2,000,000 were on hand to go through their paces. From the social standpoint also the opening was exceptionally brilliant.

American exhibitors are not numerous this year, but the list of prize givers includes the names of many well known Americans. Among them are Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Frederick Pabst of Milwaukee, Charles H. Mackay, Hon. Adam Beck of Toronto, E. D. Jordan of Boston, and the American Breeders' association.

One hundred and forty-six classes are to be judged at the present show, as against 124 last year. Heavy harness classes have been increased in number from 55 to 72, saddle classes from 9 to 13, and appointment classes from 16 to 33.

The decorations of the Olympia are the most beautiful and artistic ever seen there. The work was done by famous artists and no expense was spared. The arena will on successive days represent English, Dutch, Italian, French and Belgian flower gardens, all arranged on a lavish scale. It is estimated that the cost of the flowers alone will be $150,000. Though the illumination of the arena during last year's exhibition was almost dazzling, the number of lights this year has been quadrupled, and are in more subdued colors, thus providing a more artistic effect.

Fifty thousand dollars will be distributed in premiums among the successful exhibitors. The judges' list contains the names of the highest experts in England, America, France, Belgium, Austria, Holland, Italy, Canada and Spain. The system of an international jury of three judges (one English, one American and one continental) acting together in each competition, is again pursued.

GOVERNOR WILL FAN OUT MAYOR LANE

State's Executive to Pitch Opening Canto of Charity Baseball Game.

The game of baseball for the benefit of the Flower Mission Day Nursery, between teams from the Bankers' league and the Lawyers and Doctors next Saturday will be formally opened with Governor Chamberlain as pitcher, President A. L. Mills catcher, Mayor Harry Lane batter.

Thus far no one has consented to umpire, fearing bodily harm. Colonel McCraken may act if sufficient police protection is afforded. After Mayor Lane strikes out three times the game for blood will begin.

At present it is impossible to even guess who will win, so evenly are the teams matched. Each team has been practicing hard for the event, and will enter the contest trained to the hour.

Ed Morris, one of Multnomah's pitchers, will do the twirling for the Bankers, Moreland will catch. Fenton, this year's captain of the Stanford team, will shoot them over for the Lawyers and Doctors, and behind him will be his old college chum, Plowden Stott. There is little difference between the in and outfield of the teams, each being represented by many star players. Luck will form an important part in the final result. Much interest is being taken in the game, and already many wagers of hats and dinners have been made. The lawyers and doctors will be present in great numbers to urge their brothers on to greater efforts. All those connected with the banks will be on hand to offset any noise made by their opponents to rattle the bankers.

All have worked hard to make the game a success. That the cause is a noble one nobody can deny. The object of the Day Nursery—the caring for the children of working mothers, while they are earning an honest living, is a work that should appeal to all. Join the crowd next Saturday, and be at the field early, the game commences at 3 p. m. sharp. You will get your money's worth, and help a worthy institution.

SALEM SCHOOL FINDS WOODBURN TOO TOUGH

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)

Salem, Or., June 18.—Not being able to get a game with the Salem team of the Tri-City league, Salem High school yesterday took on the heavy hitters of the Woodburn club which enjoys the distinction of the top notch in the Tri-City league. The ambition of the High school lads was fully satiated when the Woodburn leaguers pounded their twirler, Keene, for long hits one after the other until at the end of nine innings the score was 10 to 3 in favor of the league team.

It can be said of the High school that they put up a marvelous game. Farmer erred every time the ball came near him and Jones was almost as bad. Larry Keene was hit harder than ever before, but otherwise the High school played up to their usual standard. Until the sixth inning the score stood 2 to 2, and the game was classy. After that there was not much to it. Several two-base hits and a home run did it. Bowan pitched for Woodburn.

Neither Bettor Wins.

Sporting Editor The Journal—Kindly answer the following question and thereby decide a wager. A bets B that Portland wins four out of six games from Oakland. Portland wins three games, Oakland two. The sixth game is a tie game. Does B win?

A SUBSCRIBER.

The New York Clipper, a sporting authority, has decided this question hundreds of times. The bet is a draw for the reason that for B to win, Oakland had to take three games, which it did not do. For A to win Portland had to win four games, which it did not do. If a man cannot win by the same token he cannot lose.

SIX RACES FOR LOCAL OARSMEN

Captain McMicken Prepares Classy Program for Regatta Tryouts.

Captain Craig McMicken of the Portland Rowing club has prepared an excellent program of races in connection with the tryouts to be held on the Willamette next Saturday afternoon. Owing to the nature of the event a great many people desire to see it and to make it more attractive two events have been added which should prove unusually exciting.

After the winner of the junior four has been decided that crew will be pitted against the senior four with a comfortable handicap allotted, probably eight or ten lengths for the mile. This race ought to be interesting and at the same time it will give a line on what the big four amounts to with relation to the races on Lake Washington in July.

Rex Conant and Art Allen have been paired with Ed Gloss, the crack single sculler, and Walt in the doubles. Both shells will start from scratch and as the oarsmen are pretty evenly matched a close race should result.

Two heats will be necessary before the winner of the singles will be decided. There are five entries in this event and some hot finishes in the two heats may be expected. The winners of the two heats will row off for the honor of representing Portland at the regatta.

The races will start one mile above the clubhouse promptly at 2:30 o'clock and the finish will be opposite the clubhouse, which is located at the foot of Ivon street. The men who are to enter the race will be on hand at 2 o'clock and the events will be pulled off as rapidly as possible after the starting hour.

The program, which includes altogether six races with the heats in the singles, is as follows:

Junior Single Sculls (two heats)—Allen, Quitsow, Harloy, Ball and Pfaender.

Double Sculls—Conant and Allen vs. Gloss and Walt.

Junior Fours—Gloss, Sterling, Tulley and Dent vs. Harley, Tuck, Ball and Cowell.

A handicap race willl be rowed between the winner of the junior fours and the senior crew, composed of Loomis, Conant, McMicken and Allen.

MOTOR BOAT TROPHY.

Handsome cup donated by Jaeger Brothers to be known as the Jaeger trophy, which will be presented the winner of the handicap boat race for high speed motor boats on the Willamette river Sunday afternoon. The cup will become the permanent property of the owner winning in three successive years. The speed program of the Willamette Motor Boat club, which is fostering the races Sunday, will provide some excellent sport for aquatic enthusiasts.

SMOKERS WILL PICNIC IN WASHINGTON PARK

Habitues of Portland smokestands will have an opportunity of whiling away Sunday in an excursion since there is no big league game on tap. George Cadwell has chartered the steamer Capitol City for a run to Washington park, a few miles this side of Kalama, where the day will be spent in the shade.

Music will be had both going and coming but participants are expected to bring their own lunches. The steamer leaves the Alder street dock at 8:30, returning at 7 p. m. The round trip fare is $1. Quite a number of local sport followers are going along. A baseball game will be played between a smoke nine and one from St. Johns or some other near by town.

This Date in Sport Annals.

1861—At London, Jem Mace defeated Sam Hurst in eight rounds, for $2,000 and championship.

1863—At Fashion Track, L. I., General Butler, to wagon, trotted two miles in 4:56¾.

1885—Captain Richard Brown, sailing master of the Yacht America when she won the R. Y. S. cup in 1851, died in Brooklyn, age 72.

1889—At Rochester, Cushman of the Toledo team shut out the Rochesters without a safe hit in a nine-inning game.

1903—At Portland, Joe Walcott and "Young Peter Jackson" fought a 20-round draw.

1904—At Chicago, American Derby won by Highball in 2:03, equaling the American Derby record.

WOLF LAUNCHES FASTEST MOTOR

Crack Boat Covers 30 Miles —Entries Coming for Sunday's Races.

Some thirty entries are in the hands of the racing committee of the Willamette Motor Boat club for the races on the Willamette Sunday afternoon and the finishes are bound to be hot ones. The three handicap classes are being rapidly filled but nothing is doing as yet in the scratch race. Several owners are waiting to see what their boats will do in the handicap before entering the final speed test.

Interest in the race is at fever heat and there will be a large turnout of motoring enthusiasts Sunday afternoon. Although the boats will come down between the Madison and Morrison street bridges probably the best location to see the races will be at the bluff at the foot of Ellsworth street. Opposite this point the boats will start and finish. The Brooklyn car passes nearby and special cars will probably be placed on the line in order to accommodate those who desire to witness the races.

Interest in the race has increased since the news has spread of the launching of Johnny Wolf's new flyer. Wolf has been industriously at work for several months on a craft designed to throw spray in the eyes of anybody who thinks he can beat the iron works man.

The Wolf, as the new boat is named, was placed in the water last Saturday afternoon and was tried out before several of Johnny's intimates. It is a long, narrow speeder built on unusually graceful lines. The boat is 40 feet long and is equipped with a six-cylinder 100-horse power Smalley engine.

The boat cut through the water at a tremendous clip, appearing to travel at the rate of 30 miles an hour. It is probably six or seven miles an hour better than the Vixen, which is now considered the fastest motor boat on the stream.

The L. S. Frakes Millinery company has also donated a handsome silver cup for the scratch motor boat race, a prize which will undoubtedly bring the fastest boats on the river into competition Sunday.

Beavers Again Second.

By drawing with Oakland yesterday Portland loses the coveted position at the top of the Coast league percentage column to Los Angeles, which won its game from San Francisco. There is a chance that the Beavers may be on top again tonight. A win today and a defeat for the Angels will give us another lease on the top rung. Even a defeat for the Angels and a no game or draw with the Oaks will put us on top.
