

SHRILIGHTS ON REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

OREGON WAS PROMINENT IN SESSION

Senator Fulton and Judge Williams Kept the State Before the Convention—How President Roosevelt Checked Senator Bourne.

By John E. Lathrop.

Chicago, June 19.—Much comment was caused throughout the convention by Oregon's prominence through Fulton's chairmanship on the credentials committee. Judge Williams was chosen on the original list to second Taft's nomination, and though he was cut out when the decision was reached to hasten proceedings, it was pretty well understood that party leaders had begun to take notice of Oregon, which, although a Republican state, has developed prominently in political importance. Hence the managers thought it would pay to head that state in future.

"Oregon has been safely Republican for years," one most prominent party leader said. "We haven't found it necessary to do much to insure its carrying over. You will observe hereafter we will give careful attention to the state."

Another prominent leader said: "We haven't found it necessary to do much to insure the carrying over of the state. You will observe hereafter more careful attention to the state's needs will be given. We will cultivate the people of this commonwealth."

Judge Williams had prepared to defend Taft for his Grant's tomb speech on Decoration day, when the candidate referred to Grant as being habitually intoxicated. Williams had prepared to defend his former chief, in which cabinet he served.

Final and strenuous effort was made to induce Bourne to break away from Taft and nominate Roosevelt just prior to the balloting. Intense pressure was brought to bear on him, but he refused. Bourne and the "allos" believed Bourne the ideal man to cause the split, but he believed he refused because he had been close to the president, and if he had named Roosevelt, the country would accept it as meaning the president secretly connived in the third term movement. As fast as Bourne got next to any one of sufficient prominence to create a stir, he stepped the president got into communication and put a stop to the move.

TAFT CONGRATULATES SHERMAN UPON HIS VICTORY AT CHICAGO

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, June 19.—Secretary Taft has sent the following telegram to Representative James S. Sherman at Chicago: "I sincerely congratulate you on your nomination for vice-president, and welcome you as a colleague in the contest. I look forward with confidence in the result of our joint struggle. Will you meet me in Cincinnati tomorrow to confer upon matters of importance? The time of the meeting to be considered in the choice of a campaign manager."

"WILLIAM H. TAFT."

PHONE OPERATOR Regained Memory on Right Food.

The girls who answer your call on the telephone, must be quick, accurate, and courteous. They must have good memories, also.

Those who work nights often get in the way of eating almost anything handy, which is apt to be the kind of food which does not rebuild waste brain and nerve cells.

"I have been night telephone operator for a number of years," writes a California girl, "and was formerly in perfect health, never knew an ailment."

"But irregular hours of sleep and meals, and the use of pastry or any food that happened to be available, soon caused my health and memory to fail. The loss of my robust health worried me very much. And medicine seemed to do no good. Four months ago, mother told me it was the condition of my stomach which caused my trouble, and she believed if I would change to Grape-Nuts Food, I would improve."

"I began to regain my health. I took her advice and instead of eating just anything, I ate Grape-Nuts regularly, and at the end of four months my Grape-Nuts I am the happy, robust girl I once was. I have gained eleven pounds in weight, have good color, am strong and hearty and nothing seems to escape my memory. And all this I owe to Grape-Nuts Food."

There's a Reason. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the Food in Wellville in pieces. Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

NEW YORK WILL HELP SHERMAN

Entire Delegation After Caucus Decides to Give Utica Man Support.

(Heart News by Longest Leased Wire.)
Chicago, June 19.—The New York delegation in caucus last night in marked demonstration decided to cast its entire 78 votes for Representative James S. Sherman of Utica for the vice-presidential nomination.

State Chairman Woodruff announced that he had assurances of support for Sherman of the delegations of Colorado, Michigan, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Maine and Idaho.

It was said also that Vermont would vote for Sherman. Rhode Island was also inclined to favor a New York man for second place, and the consensus of opinion among the Connecticut party was in a similar vein. New York also felt assured of the Oklahoma delegates for Sherman.

Some of the Massachusetts supporters of Governor Guild said tonight that if three or four ballots for the vice-presidency were taken without a nomination, they would change to Guild in order to obtain representation of the ticket from that section of the country.

The Illinois delegation held no meeting tonight on the vice-presidential situation, but from the experience of many delegates, including many prominent leaders, it seemed probable that the delegation would cast its solid vote for congressional Sherman. There was the possibility of any other sort to be found in the delegation.

LA FOLLETTE IN PUBLIC FAVOR

Mention of His Name Calls Forth Roars of Applause From Big Audience.

By John E. Lathrop.

Chicago, June 19.—"Bob" La Follette's name, pronounced by Cochran of Wisconsin, "royal time football spindlers," precipitated a genuinely spontaneous demonstration. It was unorganized but was not in spots. It permeated the vast assembly, rising as from the insistent roar of the common people manifesting their admiration for the Wisconsin senator.

Taft's demonstration was largely confined to the delegates, many of whom would gladly have broken from the harness which bound them to the "steam roller." Not even La Follette's warmest supporters hoped for such a magnificent ovation. Politicians were almost paralyzed with astonishment.

"This is conspiracy to prevent a vote on the presidential nomination," complained a gray-haired veteran on the main platform, as the minutes passed and there was undiminished ardor of the La Follette enthusiasts.

"No, old man," someone whispered, "it's the American people who are doing this."

Chicago talked it over all night, is talking it yet. Lodge, who had beamed the gavel to stop the La Follette cheering. Every whack caused increased La Follette cheering and the "steam roller" for those moments stood motionless.

"There hasn't been one golden sentence in this convention," said a correspondent. "When Cochran had told his party truths which hurt, but told them in the earnest manner of the man whose heart was in his utterances, the spectators said: 'There is eloquence of truth.'"

Strikers in the galleries in the middle of Cochran's address tried to hiss. It only caused the multitude to roar louder and their approval of La Follette's brave suggestion.

Party chiefs were nervous throughout the day over the situation. The convention voted down La Follette's proposal for a permanent chairman, a senator and valuation of railroad property.

GENERAL CLAYTON IS TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN OF PARTY COMMITTEE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Columbus, Chicago, June 19.—The new national Republican committee met immediately after the adjournment of the convention and General Powell Clayton of Arkansas was chosen chairman to serve until such time as the candidate decides on a man to hold the position permanently.

Elmer Dover of Ohio, was re-elected secretary and Sergeant-at-Arms Stone also was retained in his office. The following sub-committee was then appointed and instructed to interview candidates and ascertain their choice of a permanent chairman: General Clayton, former Governor Myron T. Herrick of Ohio; Frank B. Kellogg of Minnesota; Charles Nagel of Missouri; William L. Ward of New York; Senator Borah of Idaho; E. C. Lowden of Illinois.

General Powell Clayton, the temporary chairman was governor of Arkansas from 1875 to 1877. United States senator from 1877 to 1879; a delegate to every Republican national convention from 1875 to 1896; and was United States ambassador to Mexico from 1897 to 1905.

ENGLISH PRESS ON TAFT'S NOMINATION

(United Press Leased Wire.)
London, June 19.—The afternoon papers today commend the nomination of William H. Taft by the Republican convention at Chicago. The Standard declares that Taft learned his trade from his brilliant master and adds that he possesses a mind of his own and has ability.

While praising the Republican nomination, the Globe does not deem that his election is by any means certain. A few of the papers are inclined to sneer at Taft as subservient to Roosevelt. The Daily Mail Gazette says that the nomination of Taft by the Republican convention is an endorsement of the policy, "love me, love my dog."

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Chicago, June 18.—One Pacific northwestern senator here yesterday sent a telegram to the president urging him to ask his representatives here to see that the anti-injunction plank is strengthened so as to make it really effective.

LABOR NOT IN GOOD TEMPER

Injunction Plank Is "Thrown Down," Says Samuel Gompers in an Interview.

(Heart News by Longest Leased Wire.)
Chicago, June 19.—President Gompers, John Mitchell and other leaders of the American Federation of Labor are angry, gloomy and rebellious over the federal court injunction plank as adopted by the convention.

"We have been fighting for has not only been defeated, but the suggestion has been made to make the conditions which now prevail more binding. The situation will be taken up tomorrow by the federation and an official statement will be given out."

"That means that what the president wanted and what Mr. Taft desired and what we have been fighting for has not only been defeated, but the suggestion has been made to make the conditions which now prevail more binding. The situation will be taken up tomorrow by the federation and an official statement will be given out."

"Mr. Mitchell, 'That is a matter for the federation to act upon.'"

Wade Bill, attorney-general of Ohio, who drafted the Republican platform.

WOODRUFF MAKES THE NOMINATION

James S. Sherman. The band played "Hot Time in the Old Town." Sherman entered shortly afterward and was given the ovation. When the roll call for nominations was started Delaware yielded its place to New York.

State Chairman Timothy J. Woodruff of New York then was recognized. A position was passed limiting the nominating speeches to 15 minutes and the second speaker to five minutes. Woodruff presented the name of Sherman, who sat smiling in the middle of the New York delegation. Woodruff said in part:

"We feel that unless the state is given the second place on the ticket, after we have unsuccessfully presented the ticket will meet with success. He said that no national Republican ticket with a New Yorker on it was ever defeated except when the Democratic party has been recognized at the head of their ticket."

Tribute to Sherman.
He paid high tribute to Sherman for his service in congress and said: "He is the strongest in the nation. As president of a national bank in a strong financial region, he is well versed in the intricate problems of business and finance."

When he named Sherman, the New Yorker was given a great ovation that set the floor and placed in nomination Sherman. Speaker Cannon then seconded the nomination of Sherman in a speech that brought forth applause. Cannon said in part:

"Uncle Joe would rather be a door-keeper in the house of the Lord than be in the tent of wickedness. This statement was greeted with great cheering and he was forced to wait until quiet was restored. Then he added:

"Since the organization of the party, by its laws and in its wisdom, the Republican party has been faithful to the hopes, ideals and aspirations of the American people."

He congratulated the convention upon the nomination of Taft. As he concluded, the veteran speaker of the house of representatives was given by far the greatest ovation yet accorded a speaker. Governor A. E. Wilson of Kentucky also seconded the nomination of Sherman.

Negro Temporary Chairman.
F. A. Dennison, an Illinois negro, was called to the chair and presided over the convention. While Chairman Lodge footed the floor and placed in nomination Governor Curtis Guild of Massachusetts.

"Such is the record of the man I present to this convention, in the name of Massachusetts for nomination as vice-president. It is a record of distinguished service to his party and to the state, generally, ungrudgingly and progressively. His name is not only an honorable governor, devoting all his strength of body and mind to the advancement of Massachusetts. Liberal and progressive, his name is not only associated with sound administration, but with the earnest advocacy of measures which would promote the welfare of the state and which were in the interests of the broadest humanity. Of conspicuous ability, of remarkable eloquence in speech, of unblemished character, a life long and loyal Republican, he would bring to the service of the nation the same devotion to principle, the same zeal and energy, the same earnest faith in what he believes to be

PRESIDENT HAS PRAISE FOR TAFT

Feels That Country Is Indeed to Be Congratulated Upon Nomination.

Washington, June 19.—President Roosevelt tonight made the following statement:

"I feel that the country is indeed to be congratulated upon the nomination of Mr. Taft. I have known him intimately for many years, and I have a peculiar feeling for him because throughout that time we have worked for the same objects, with the same purposes and ideals."

"I do not believe there could be found in all the country a man so well fitted to be president. He is not only absolutely fearless, absolutely disinterested and upright, but he has the widest acquaintance with the nation's needs, without and within, and the broadest sympathies with our citizens. He would be as emphatically a president of the plain people as Lincoln himself, yet no Lincoln himself, but a president from the least taint of demagoguery, the least tendency to arouse or appeal to class hatred of any kind. He has a peculiar and intimate knowledge of and sympathy with the needs of all our people—the farmer, the wageworker, the business man of the property owner. No matter what a man's occupation or social position, no matter what his race or color, he is a citizen of the country from which he comes, if he is an honest, hard working man who tries to do his duty toward his neighbors and towards his country, he can rest assured that he will have in Mr. Taft the most upright of representatives and the most fearless of champions for our national well being."

BEGIN FIGHT ON HUGHES' NEW LAW

Race Track Gamblers Determined to Test Constitutionality of the Bill.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, June 19.—The racing interests today began a fight to test the Hughes anti-race track gambling laws by obtaining from Justice Bischof of the supreme court of New York county an injunction restraining the police from interfering with the betting at Coney Island today afternoon.

The order is returnable in court tomorrow morning and it understood that the racing interests have obtained preliminary counsel to appear in their behalf. The law will be attacked on the ground that it is unconstitutional, it is said.

ROOSEVELT SENDS CONGRATULATIONS

Washington, June 19.—President Roosevelt today wired Representative Sherman as follows: "Accept my hearty congratulations and earnest good wishes for the success of the ticket, Taft and Sherman. THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

FINE BILLIARD PARLORS

Public Reception at Opening From 7:30 to 10:30 This Evening.
The finest and most elaborate billiard and pool parlors in the west will open this evening for public inspection. It is the Acme Billiard Parlors, in the building opposite The Oregonian, corner of Sixth and Alder streets. The proprietors are Charles H. Brown, the well-known contractor, and W. H. McCredie and Hugh McCredie, Jr., both being identified with Portland baseball.

It costs $25,000 to give the parlors this magnificent institution, which covers a floor area of 10,000 square feet and contains 23 tables. At the reception this evening, which will be from 7:30 to 10:30 p. m., all are invited, whether lovers of the games or not and especially the ladies, the clergy and the parents of the younger men, who are enthusiasts. This is an opportunity for all to call and see what a fine place this is, and see the fine games.

Billiards and pool have always been the gentlemen's games and are becoming more popular each year, which is attested by the large patronage accorded these institutions.

The fixtures are in mahogany and the carpets are green Wilton velvet. The electrical fixtures are massive and unique and present a beautiful appearance. There is a handsome room for the ladies devoted to the game, especially arranged for their leisure and seclusion, the entrance being on Alder street.

The Acme parlors will be the headquarters for the baseball fans and the Portland and all visiting teams, and the scores will always be bulletined as fast as received.

The parlors will open for business on Saturday at 10 a. m., and the public reception this evening from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock.

OREGON G. A. R. IN STATE ENCAMPMENT

Will Assemble Tuesday at Newport With Auxiliary Bodies.
Newport, Or., June 19.—The annual encampment of the Grand Army is to be held here next week commencing Tuesday and lasting four days. Extensive preparations are being made for the visitors, of whom it is expected about 1,000 will come from other parts of the state. The address of welcome will be delivered by County Judge E. F. Swops, and Department Commander Blythe will respond on behalf of the G. A. R. Department President Cora M. Davis on behalf of the Woman's Relief corps, and Mrs. Jennie Brown, department president of the Ladies of the G. A. R., on behalf of that organization.

Made In A Model Factory.

P. & G. Naphtha Soap is made in the same factory as Ivory Soap.
In point of completeness, cleanliness and beauty, the Ivorydale factories of The Procter & Gamble Co. have few equals and no superiors.

It is there that Ivory Soap is made. There, also, P. & G. Naphtha Soap is manufactured. It is not necessary to tell you anything about Ivory Soap.

You use it; and you know that for bath, toilet and fine laundry purposes, it is unequalled. The same thing is true of P. & G. Naphtha Soap. For quick, easy washing, it is unequalled.

The price of "P. & G." is higher than that of ordinary laundry soap; but as one cake will last longer and do more work than two cakes of ordinary soap, it pays to use it.
