

SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Two.)

A much enjoyed event of last week was a country dancing party given by Miss Myrtle E. Long and Miss Ruth E. Diller, Saturday evening, charpered by Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Williams. The party left town about 8 o'clock on a hayrack and after a pleasant ride, arrived at a country hall which had been decorated for the occasion. The evening consisted of quadrilles and Paul Jones two-steps, and music was furnished by an orchestra of violins and banjos. Another feature of the evening was a spelling contest, which created a great deal of merriment. About 11 o'clock supper was served. Those present were: Misses Mabel Burgoyns, Gertrude Kurth, Anna O'Connor, Nell Dorney, Margarette Bachner, Hazel Henry, Jo Keilner, Ruth E. Diller and Myrtle E. Long, Harry Chapin, George Leburg, Frank Callahan, L. Van Fleet, Louis Reynolds, Chester Gault, W. Carpenter, Henry Hogue, Mr. Russell and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Williams.

The New York State society of Oregon held its regular monthly meetings at the residence of Mrs. Albert Vall, on the Section Line road, east of the reservoir, last Tuesday evening. The members had expected to have a garden party but owing to the inclemency of the weather the meeting was held in the parlors. During the evening several new members joined the society, the members had the pleasure of hearing Master Alden Alden, who is a very interesting lecturer. He shows excellent technique and musical feeling and should be heard in the study of the violin by every young man. After the music light refreshments were served and some time spent in social pastimes and talking over the old state.

A reception was given to the graduates of the Ockley Green school by Chester Shields at the home of his parents, Vancouver and Killingsworth avenues, Friday evening. There was music, after which light refreshments were served. Among those present were: Mr. Easter (principal), Mr. W. F. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Shields, Mr. and Mrs. Holland, Mrs. Fredmore, Miss Margaret Ewing, Miss Esther Smith, Miss Sadie Smith, Miss Lillian M. Hugh and W. T. Lambert, Mrs. E. D. Diller, Mrs. Myrtle E. Long, Harry Chapin, George Leburg, Frank Callahan, L. Van Fleet, Louis Reynolds, Chester Gault, W. Carpenter, Henry Hogue, Mr. Russell and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Williams.

The Kensington club was entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. C. E. Fetty at her home, 274 Grant street. The rooms were profusely decorated with pink roses. The hostess was assisted in entertaining and serving light refreshments by two daughters, Mrs. Fetty and Miss Tommie Fetty, who also played several piano and violin duets. There was a full attendance of the club and after spending a delightful afternoon they separated to meet with Mrs. J. B. Lober the last Thursday in September.

Mrs. D. C. Burns entertained Wednesday afternoon at cards in compliment to Mrs. W. F. Conover, who soon leaves for California to make her home after her four years' stay in Portland. Miss Howard was served at the table. Mrs. Vincent, in behalf of the women present, gave Mrs. Conover a handsome silver salad set. The guests were admitted at the door by little Mary Burns, who wore a pretty white frock and a wreath of roses in her hair.

The Qui Vive club met at the home of Mrs. Bern Jackson, 1150 Hawthorne avenue, Tuesday. An interesting meeting was held. Those attending were: Mrs. H. D. Curtis, Mrs. Monroe, Mrs. H. Innocent, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. W. H. Lyons, Mrs. Day, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. D. J. Kirs, Mrs. Fraley, Mrs. Bert Fraley, Mrs. George Leach, Mrs. Bert Jackson and Mrs. J. B. Olmsted. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by her sister.

Bureksa council, No. 204, Knights and Ladies of Security, gave a five hundred party Monday evening at the residence of Miss Lillian M. Hugh and W. T. Lambert was the first and Mrs. E. L. Mathis and Q. L. Matthews the second party. The next open meeting will be July 20.

WEDDINGS

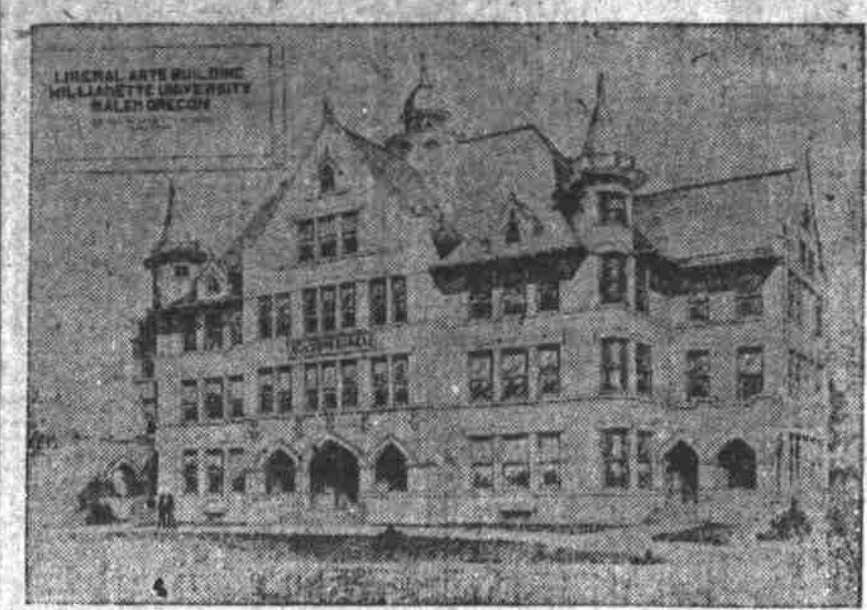

Miss Verona Belle Steinegger and Thomas Fay Bradshaw were married Wednesday evening by Rev. W. J. Douglas of Woodlawn, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Steinegger. The parlors were decorated with white carnations, roses and Oregon grape. Miss Mabel Dudrow played the bridal hymn from "Lohengrin." The bride wore cream satin and orange blossoms and carried an arm bouquet of white sweetpeas. She was attended by Miss Mary Lillian M. Hugh, who wore a gown of pink silk chiffon and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Robert A. Steinegger Jr., brother of the bride, was best man. The bride was given away by her father. After the ceremony supper was served in the dining-room. The reception was held from 8 to 10 o'clock when the guests were entertained by Van Houten's orchestra, while refreshments were being served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lutka, Mr. and Mrs. John Burdard, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Fred English, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Canfield, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Cable, Mr. and Mrs. G. Willey, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. and Mrs. M. D. Donald, Mr. and Mrs. M. Mason, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. Latham, Mr. and Mrs. M. Howarth, Mrs. E. Brown, Mrs. D. Dempsie, Mrs. S. Holden, Mrs. M. Smith, Mrs. C. Burdard, Mrs. L. Wolf, Miss Maggie Collins, Miss Lily Holden, Miss Mary Lathrop, Misses Mabel and Grace Dudrow, W. I. Vall, C. C. Hall, Phil Evans, Harry Lyons, W. A. Temple, R. A. Steinegger Jr., Clarke and William Beard.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw left on the late train for a trip to the south. They will be at home to their friends after July 1. Charles Edward Bolds of Alaska, and Miss May Elizabeth Dellenbaugh of this city were married by Dr. Benjamin Young Wednesday evening at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage. The house was decorated with roses and greens. The bride wore a gown of cream tulle trimmed in Valenciennes, and carried a shower bouquet of Bride's roses and white carnations. Edward Bolds acted as bridesmaid, and wore a gown of pink messaline and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. John E. Wallace was best man. Only the mother of the bride and father of the groom witnessed the marriage. A delightful spread was served at the home of the bride's friends after July 1. Mr. and Mrs. Bolds left for a trip to the south and Canada.

At St. Mary's cathedral, Monday at high noon, Miss Gertrude Mary Cahalin and Daniel Joseph Coman were married. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion, with the dominant features marguerites, Oregon grape and palms. The sanctuary was transformed into a bower of greens. The bride wore a gown of cream tulle trimmed in Valenciennes, and carried a shower bouquet of Bride's roses and white carnations. Daniel Joseph Coman acted as bridesmaid, and wore a gown of pink messaline and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. John E. Wallace was best man. Only the mother of the bride and father of the groom witnessed the marriage. A delightful spread was served at the home of the bride's friends after July 1. Mr. and Mrs. Coman left for a trip to the south and Canada.

LIBERAL ARTS BUILDING TO BE HANDSOMEST OF GROUP

The Liberal Arts Building, which is being erected on the south front of the new capitol building and will be an important addition to the number of handsome buildings at the state capital. It will be of stone and brick and will be three stories and basement, with a few recitation rooms on the fourth floor.

Architect's Drawing of Liberal Arts Building, Willamette University. The handsomest of the new buildings for Willamette university at Salem is the liberal arts building, the construction of which was begun Thursday. This structure will cost $50,000 and is the gift of E. A. Eaton of Union, Oregon, to the school. The building will face the south front of the new capitol building and will be an important addition to the number of handsome buildings at the state capital. It will be of stone and brick and will be three stories and basement, with a few recitation rooms on the fourth floor.

After the wedding a luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents, followed by a reception, which was attended by a large number of friends. Bride and France roses, combined with tulle, were effectively used in the decoration of the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Coman have gone to southern California, where they will spend their honeymoon.

An out-of-town wedding of interest was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard H. Latourette of McMinnville, Saturday, June 13, at noon, when their daughter, Miss Beulah, was united in marriage with Horace E. Walter of this city. The bride party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by the Misses Dorothy Frazer and Mary McDonald. The bride wore a gown of white tulle, and carried a shower bouquet of Bride's roses. She was attended by Miss Ethel McCover, who wore a gown of net over white silk, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Beulah, the bridesmaid, wore a gown of pink silk and carried a pink Bride'smaid's bouquet. The ceremony was performed under a canopy of ivy and rose buds. The bride and groom were artistically decorated with white carnations and ferns. Preceding the ceremony Miss Frieda Latourette sang "The Rose Tree." Mr. and Mrs. Walter will make their home in Portland.

At 621 Third street, Wednesday evening, Miss Sophie Harriet Rismann, daughter of the late Daniel Rismann, was given in marriage by her mother to William H. Dutton of this city. Rev. W. A. M. Breck of St. Matthew's church read the Episcopal service, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. Miss Estelle McCarthy played the wedding march. The bride wore a beautiful semi-empire gown of white egyptian cotton lace, trimmed with duchesse lace, and carried a shower bouquet of Bride's roses. She met the bridegroom and his best man, Edward G. Roe, under a bell of roses and sweet peas suspended from a bower of smilax and white tulle.

Miss Rose Grefcos, maid of honor, was dressed in pink mull and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The parlors were elaborately decorated with pink and white roses and palms. The dining-room was in yellow and the table was presided over by Mrs. James B. Welch and Mrs. Edna Thrasher. The bride and groom were given away by Mrs. James B. Welch and Mrs. Edna Thrasher. The wedding party stood in a floral alcove of Oregon grape vines, fern and Bride's roses. The bride was gowned in white silk mull, and carried a bouquet of Bride's roses. Mr. and Mrs. Bell reside in Albany.

Tuesday evening Miss Mary Eva Moore and George H. Prideaux were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Moore, Vancouver, Washington. Dr. H. Tumble of Eugene, performed the ring service of the Methodist church in the presence of the immediate relatives. The bride carried a bouquet of Bride's roses and was beautifully gowned in cream messaline, richly trimmed with princess lace, and her veil was secured with white rose buds. Miss Estelle McCarthy played the wedding march. The bride wore a gown of pink silk and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The ceremony was performed under a canopy of ivy and rose buds. The bride and groom were artistically decorated with white carnations and ferns. Preceding the ceremony Miss Frieda Latourette sang "The Rose Tree." Mr. and Mrs. Prideaux will spend their honeymoon in the sound and Victoria. They will be at home after August 1, at 404 Benton street.

Wednesday evening, June 3, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cammack, 120 East Fourteenth street, Miss Sadie Ray Cammack was married to Murray Worth Wisner of Spokane, Bishop Henry L. Barkley officiating. The house was decorated with masses of ferns and roses. Miss Beulah Fowler played the wedding march. The bride was gowned in cream net over silk, and carried an arm bouquet of Bride's roses. Her sister acted as bridesmaid and wore a pale pink organza cut empire. She carried a bouquet of pink rose buds. The ceremony was performed under a canopy of ivy and rose buds. The bride and groom were artistically decorated with white carnations and ferns. Preceding the ceremony Miss Frieda Latourette sang "The Rose Tree." Mr. and Mrs. Wisner will make their home in Spokane, where they will be at home to their friends, at 2127 Bowes avenue after July 1.

At the residence of the bride's parents at Rainier, Clara S. Williams was married to Michael Peters, Thursday, Rev. Walter C. Fry of the Methodist Episcopal church officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Peters will make their home at Rainier. At noon Wednesday Arthur E. Lukens and Miss Sallie B. Estes were married in the reception room of the White Temple, Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher officiating. Very pretty decorations consisted of Oregon grape and roses with individual color effect for each room. The bride party stood beneath a canopy of Oregon grape and upon a mat of roses. Mr. and Mrs. Prideaux will spend their honeymoon in the sound and Victoria. They will be at home after August 1, at 404 Benton street. Joseph R. Norris and Miss Elizabeth Bucklen's Arnica Salve Wins. Tom Moore, of Rural Route 1, Cochran, Georgia, writes: "I had a bad sore come on the instep of my foot and could find nothing that would heal it until I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Less than half of a 25 cent box won the cure for me by affecting a perfect cure. Sold under guarantee at Skidmore Drug company's drug store."

Foster & Kleiser Signs.

Stetsmeyer were married at the Taylor street Methodist Episcopal parsonage by the Rev. Benjamin Young, June 8.

Miss Katherine E. Cason and Charles A. Mitchell were married Thursday evening at 448 Manzanita street. The decorations at the home were pretty with white roses and a wedding bell of white roses in the parlors and pink roses and greens in the dining-room. Miss Hattie Spurrier was the bridesmaid and Charles Cason, the bride's brother, was best man. Little Mildred Cason, the bride's niece, was flower girl and ring bearer. Rev. Charles W. Comstock was the officiating clergyman. A reception followed and Mrs. Ella Wean served punch.

A wedding at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thrasher in Corvallis Wednesday afternoon united their daughter, Miss Edna Thrasher to Roy Bell, only son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Bell of Corvallis. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. N. Bell, in the presence of only the immediate relatives. The bride party stood in a floral alcove of Oregon grape vines, fern and Bride's roses. The bride was gowned in white silk mull, and carried a bouquet of Bride's roses. Mr. and Mrs. Bell reside in Albany.

At the residence of the bride's parents at Rainier, Clara S. Williams was married to Michael Peters, Thursday, Rev. Walter C. Fry of the Methodist Episcopal church officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Peters will make their home at Rainier. At noon Wednesday Arthur E. Lukens and Miss Sallie B. Estes were married in the reception room of the White Temple, Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher officiating. Very pretty decorations consisted of Oregon grape and roses with individual color effect for each room. The bride party stood beneath a canopy of Oregon grape and upon a mat of roses. Mr. and Mrs. Prideaux will spend their honeymoon in the sound and Victoria. They will be at home after August 1, at 404 Benton street. Joseph R. Norris and Miss Elizabeth Bucklen's Arnica Salve Wins. Tom Moore, of Rural Route 1, Cochran, Georgia, writes: "I had a bad sore come on the instep of my foot and could find nothing that would heal it until I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Less than half of a 25 cent box won the cure for me by affecting a perfect cure. Sold under guarantee at Skidmore Drug company's drug store."

W. F. McGinnis and Miss Anna M. Wolfer were married at the Taylor street Methodist parsonage, June 11, by the Rev. Benjamin Young.

Miss Gertrude Dinneen has returned from a week's stay with her grandmother, Mrs. M. A. Sullivan of Cedar Mill. Mrs. W. H. C. Mears and her little daughter Marcella also have been visiting Mrs. Sullivan.

Miss Agnes Dinneen and Miss Mary Conannon will leave Sunday for the east to visit in Baltimore and New York. They expect to return about September 15.

Mrs. Arthur H. Moore and her young daughters, Helen and Ruth of Salem are visiting Mrs. Moore's sister, Mrs. R. Diller, at 168 East Thirty-fifth street.

Leo Shapiro has gone on a vacation trip to Butte, Montana, where he will visit his aunt, and will make a tour of Yellowstone park.

Members of the Kelly family are gathering for their annual reunion which will take place the last Saturday of June. This year it will be held at the new residence of Dr. and Mrs. O. P.

S. Plummer in the valley just beyond Council Crest. Mrs. Plummer is a daughter of Albert Kelly, the second of the four Kelly brothers who came to Portland in early days. Mrs. Plummer's brother will assist her in pointing out old landmarks for both live on parts of the old donation claim which has been in possession of the family for 55 years. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Fitzhugh and their little son are guests of Mrs. Fitzhugh's aunt, Mrs. O. P. S. Plummer. They have come from Napa, Cal., to attend the Kelly reunion.

Miss Hilda Gumbert, who has been attending the University of Washington, has returned to her home, 727 Northrup street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hennessy and their little son Duane left last week on a visit to eastern states.

Mrs. and Mrs. Clyde Bills, Mrs. Carlos S. Unna and Adolph and Sanford Unna are among Portland's visitors at Hot Lake.

Miss Mary McKinnon left Saturday morning for a trip to Seattle and points in British Columbia.

Miss Florence George of the Good Samaritan hospital is visiting her parents at St. Helens.

Chinese Build Railway. From the Chicago Journal. An Americanized Chinaman, Chin Gee Hee, is the projector, president and engineer-in-chief of a railroad which has recently been opened in the Mongolian hinterland. Of the six locomotives used four were purchased in the United States, the others coming from Germany. The president says his chief difficulty in building the road was in overcoming the obstinacy of the natives, who opposed the work on the ground that the smoke from the locomotives would ruin their crops.

Mr. Chin, who is one of the best known Chinese merchants on the Pacific coast, receives the minimum salary of $80 a month from the railroad company. He relinquished an income of $3,000 a year to undertake the work which he is carrying out in China.

Occasionally. From the Philadelphia Ledger. It occasionally happens that a man carries in haste and spends his wife's money at leisure.

Belgium is importing yearly about $1,500,000 worth of automobiles, motorcycles and bicycles. These imports have quadrupled in four years.

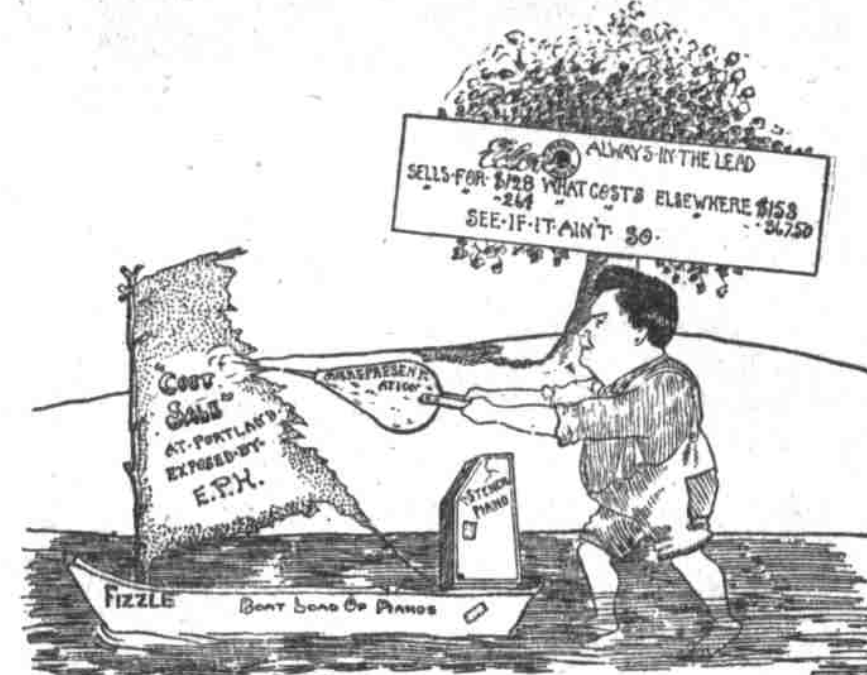

THAT EILERS OFFICE BOY AGAIN

Wants to "draw a picture-not pay" and take a hand at advertising.

Portland#; JuNe 13, 1908.

Dear CHUB:

TheRe ain't much Time NOWedays for writin. Busziness is keepin up immense. We aRe hed of them big Reccords of laSt Year. I heerd MR. MILLer tells the Old man YesterDay. Us mail gang has to hussel NOWedays sumthing feircel# Have you sum one down there who'se good at Drawin, I mean Pitchurres, not Pay, I want to get up an advsz myself on them speshul sail artists from Frisco, which is purtending to Be SELLing at COst, and Chargin BIGGER PricEs then ennyboddy.

I'll Giv you the idee. TheRe should Be a Creek, and a Bum Boat and a sail on the boat all shreds kuz us fellows exposed them, and maybe a Bellus worked by the Guys blowin the sale to push the bote along. And a STenCiL Piano in the boat to show the 2 Pianos they gits in and caLLS her a Boat-Lode.

Git it up for me wright away and ILL have Dad Jellerson put her IN the PaPer. Meenwhile we Remain, Eilers Piano House Jim mail Dept.

P. S. Make a sign on a Tree in the back, Eilers-Piano-House leds them all. Sells pianos which they say Cost $153, for $128. Pianos which they say cost $367.50 we sells for $264, and we kin prove it good and plenty. JIM.

AUCTION! AUCTION! AUCTION!

$8,000,000 Worth of Carpets and Rugs

Sold at auction by Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Company, largest manufacturers of carpets and rugs in the world.

$82,000 of this stock bought May 4th to 10th by our Mr. Chas. Jenning while in New York, at

33% Less Than Regular Price

Largest purchase ever placed by any Portland house. Until this shipment of Carpets and Rugs arrive our entire stock of Carpets and Rugs on hand will be sold in the same proportion.

SALE BEGINS TOMORROW MORNING AT 8 O'CLOCK

ALEXANDER SMITH & SONS Home of Good Furniture—Prices Always Lowest MORRISON AND SECOND STREETS.

