JOURNAL OPENS WAY TO EDUCATIONAL COURSES

In Addition to Free Scholarships Offered, Contestants Will Be Paid Commissions and Cash Awards Besides for Best Work—Worth Time and Effort.

Today a great race for championship starts, the contestants being a lot of clever boys and girls whose highly commendable aspirations are higher education and self-support.

The Oregon Journal, by establishing free scholarship contests for the young people of the Pacific northwest, has stimulated the youth and made them hopeful of securing a first-class college education through their own efforts. Heretofore boys and girls found it an impossibility to earn enough money during vacation to pay for a higher education.

Clever boys and girls can now find very pleasant work securing subscriptions for The Oregon Journal. The Journal pays them a good cash commission and gives many valuable scholarships in leading schools, colleges and academies absolutely free to those securing the highest number of votes which are determined by the subscription orders they secure.

Cash Awards Given.

Besides the cash commissions and free scholarships, cash awards are also given. These cash awards range from $25 to $150. There is no other occupation offered that remunerates young men or women so handsomely, and no young person with ambition to achieve success in life should ignore this grand chance to earn such valuable prizes.

Education is the most valuable equipment any young person can have starting out in the business world. Next to health it is the essential requisite for positions of trust and executive ability. The boy or girl, or young man or young woman, who demonstrates that he or she can do things successfully while young, will outshine others who do not prove their worth or what they are made of. They have to show people what they are composed of.

No doubt some have heard the story about an old Sunday school teacher who told his class of the Bible lesson he was going to read the following Sunday. The boys finding the place, glued together the connecting pages. When Sunday came the teacher commenced to read at the bottom of the page, "When Noah was one hundred and twenty years old he took unto himself a wife who was"—then turning the page—"one hundred and forty cubits long, forty cubits wide, built of gopherwood and lined on the inside and out with pitch."

Accepted It As Truth.

He was naturally puzzled at this. He read it again, verified it, and said: "Young men, I have read the Bible many times and this chapter a thousand times, and I never saw that in there before, but it is there, and it must be true, and I accept it as proof of the assertion that man is wonderfully made." So it is with you. Employers have to get verification of what material you are made of before assigning any positions of trust or importance to you. Employers may know you, may see you and even read you often like the teacher the Bible lesson, but they must see the proof that you are made of the proper material. The ambitious young people who enter this great educational competition will demonstrate that they are industrious and willing to make an effort to be self supporting.

Read the conditions about the contest in today's Journal. The contest manager will gladly give any information desired and to post you thoroughly call on him at any time. Make a good determined start and you will not only surprise your friends but yourself on what you can accomplish with an extra effort.

"The Swindler," Howard Russell's play which the Baker Stock company presented for the first time on any stage all last week, packed the theatre to the doors at every performance, and so many people were unable to obtain seats Friday and Saturday that Manager Baker has decided to repeat the play two more times in order to give everyone an opportunity to see it. Many at first went just because it was a play by a well-known and popular Portland actor, but the news spread that it was really an interesting and excellent play and immediately the desire to see it was still more intensified to the end that the week proved one of the most successful of the entire Baker season. Good seats may now be had for either tonight or tomorrow night's performance. "The Henrietta" will resume Wednesday for the rest of the week.

A pleasing prize is offered by St. Francis academy to the boy or girl under 18 years, who shall hand to the faculty the best criticism of the play, "Miriam." Following is the cast of characters:

CLEARS THE COMPLEXION OVERNIGHT

Pimples, Rash, Eruptions, Etc., Quickly Eradicated by New Skin Remedy.

Since its discovery one year ago, poslam, the new skin remedy, has, in its extraordinary accomplishments, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the eminent specialist who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and eradicated facial and other disfigurements of years' standing. The terrible itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application, giving proof of its curative properties at the very outset.

In less serious skin affections, such as pimples, rash, herpes, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., results show after an overnight application, only a small quantity being required to effect a cure. A muddy or sallow complexion is noticeably improved by a single application. Those who use poslam for these minor skin troubles can now avail themselves of the special 50-cent package, recently adopted to meet such needs. Both the 50 cent package and the regular $2 jar may now be obtained in Portland, at the Skidmore Drug company, and other leading drug stores.

Samples for experimental purposes may be had free of charge by writing direct to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.

DOLLS COME TO LIFE TONIGHT AT HEILIG

Myriad of Animated Little Tots in First Performance of "Toy Shop."

Tonight at the Heilig theatre Toyland will come to life. Never was toyshop so stacked in Portland as it will be tonight. Wonderful walking, talking, singing and dancing dolls of all descriptions will be there.

Winnie Lewis, who made such a hit as "Little Bo-peep," in "The House that Jack Built," will be the Paris doll with the aristocratic manners, and Peggy Boyer will be the old doll which is chosen the queen of the revel. There is one cue which the little queen never misses and that is when she commands "bring in the candy." And there come in those cute little candy dolls that are sure to make a hit.

There will be drills and frolics and dresses and romances in the frolic of the toys. The humble tin soldier will dance with the Paris doll and the Jacks in the box, transformed into fops will flirt with the lady dolls. It is such a beautiful little story that it would be impossible not to be interested, and the settlement work of the Institute club for which is it given, is sure to receive a substantial benefit.

There will be four performances, beginning tonight at 8:15 o'clock, continuing tomorrow afternoon and night and Wednesday afternoon.

Owing to the large number in the cast friends to the little actors and actresses are requested not to send flowers to the theatre, as it results in confusion.

Building Permits.

M. L. Collim, erect flats, Schuyler corner East Third, $3,000; Mrs. Wolff, erect dwelling, Malden between East Ninth and East Eleventh, $1,600; D. E. Keasey & Co., erect dwelling, Hawthorne terrace between Seventeenth and Chapman, $2,500.

How's your steam-gauge?

You can't get up a full head of steam for the human engine by putting poor "fuel" under the boiler.

is the best energy-producing fuel because it contains all the strength-giving material in the whole wheat, made digestible by steam cooking, malting, flaking and baking. Every particle of it is converted into muscle, bone and brain.

"FORCE," is made of the best white wheat, steam-cooked, rolled into thin flakes, combined with the purest barley-malt and baked. Always "crisp" it before serving it by pouring into a pan and warming it in oven. Then serve in large dish with cream, piling the flakes in one side of the dish and pouring the cream in the other side, dipping the flakes as eaten.

DR. PERKINS' "SANITARY" REFRIGERATORS

Show an advanced principle along the lines of scientific refrigerator construction. The Dr. Perkins system is entirely different from others, and embodies features that are most important from both a sanitary and economical standpoint. Experts have for years endeavored to produce a refrigerator that would have pure air circulation—that is, while the refrigerator is closed and in operation, have a means of continually taking in fresh air and expelling the air after it has circulated through the ice and various provision chambers and become impure. This principle is scientifically set forth in the Dr. Perkins "Sanitary," as shown in the accompanying diagram. The circulation of air can here be traced from where it enters at the intake "A" until expelled at the outlet "E." "Sanitary" Refrigerators cost no more than ordinary refrigerators, and are more economical. Many sizes and styles to meet every demand. We sell them on easy payment terms.
