SAFE CRACKERS CAUGHT IN ACT

Oakland, Cal., Constables Surprise Two Men, Wound One, Capture Other.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Oakland, Cal., June 22.—The police today are trying to discover the identity of one of two burglars who attempted to rob the safe of the Fruitvale Lumber company early yesterday morning.

Constable William C. Allen and Deputy C. Becker were passing the office of the company when they noticed that the light was not burning as usual. While they stood peering into the office, they heard a smothered explosion from within. Then the light was turned on and disclosed two men at their work before the safe.

Placing their shoulders to the door, the officers burst in upon the men. One of them who had an artificial leg, dropped to the floor and was overpowered by Becker; the other succeeded in making his escape, but was shot by Constable Allen, who tried to halt him. A man giving his name as Alfred Kennedy later came into the Emergency hospital suffering from a bullet wound, but the police as yet have not been able to fasten the robbery on him. Harry Lenter, who was captured redhanded, refuses to divulge the name of his accomplice.

PRESIDENT PLAYS AFTER HARD WORK

Mr. Roosevelt Enjoys Well-Earned Vacation at Sagamore Hill.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Oyster Bay, L. I., June 22.—President Roosevelt went into his summer schedule today and took up his play with almost as much vigor as he has given his work recently in Washington. The townspeople are all full of renewed life since the arrival of the Roosevelts at Sagamore Hill. The president was up early and appeared in a light summer suit. He went for a ride about the place and arranged for tennis games and trips on the sound. Secretary Taft is expected to arrive next week and he will be the most important visitor of the summer. It is not announced how long Taft will remain but it is expected that he and the president will make formal plans for the coming campaign.

KNOWS GREAT HEALER.

What a Tacoma Man Says of James Austin Larson, Teleconi Expert Now at Hotel Oregon.

G. E. Garrett of Tacoma was in Portland yesterday and speaking of James Austin Larson, the Teleconi expert, master of the science of vibration, who is now at the Hotel Oregon, Portland, said:

"While news editor of the Tacoma Daily News I met James Austin Larson, the Teleconi expert, who was receiving patients at the Tacoma hotel, in that city. I personally investigated several of the cases he treated by his remarkable vibration science, and can testify to several amazing achievements by this wonderful man. There was the case of Mrs. George F. Jandos, wife of a well-known Alaska sea captain. I saw this woman helped into the Tacoma hotel, suffering with paralysis, her right arm and side practically dead. I saw her again after she had been given a Teleconi treatment by James Austin Larson and she was able to use her formerly useless arm.

"Another case that redounds to the credit of Mr. Larson was that of Fred Anderson. For seven years Anderson had never passed a day without his purgative. Larson caused him to throw away his drugs. I also know personally of the remarkable cure of Mrs. Gardner, of Puyallup, Wash., who at one time was given up to die. Her case had been diagnosed as cancer. Mr. Larson said she had torpid liver, and cured her. After having been bedridden months Mrs. Gardner walked a mile after taking a few Teleconi treatments.

"Lillian Glover, a little girl of five years, from Tenino, Wash., who had worn a leg and ankle brace for years, was enabled to walk as other children do after taking 15 Teleconi treatments.

"I also know personally of the case of Joseph Boehm, of West Seattle. Mr. Boehm came to James Austin Larson on crutches and now walks with the aid of only a light cane. Mike Treynor, a marine fireman, who had been in the Marine hospital at Port Townsend some 15 months, came to the Savoy hotel, in Seattle, on crutches, assisted by a comrade of the sea. After one treatment of Teleconi Treynor threw away his crutches.

"I do not know how Mr. Larson accomplishes these remarkable cures, but I do know of the above particular cases, for they came under my personal observation."

LONGFELLOWS' NIECE BREAKS ENGAGEMENT

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Sausalito, Cal., June 22.—Society on both sides of the bay is discussing today the choicest bit of gossip that it has had to roll under its tongue for many months, in the news that Miss Mary Greenleaf, daughter of the late James E. Greenleaf of Boston, artist and niece of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, the poet, has broken off her engagement with the Rev. George Maxwell, rector of a fashionable Episcopal church here.

The wedding was to have taken place in April this year, but it was not until today that the friends of the young pastor were informed that the young woman had broken off her engagement with the pastor. No reason is given for the act, and the subject is exciting interest among the blue stockings of the bay region.

The young people became engaged when Rev. Maxwell was attending Harvard university some years ago.

BURGLAR CAUGHT INSIDE THE GOODS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Garfield, Wash., June 22.—Burt Fisher, a farmer living a mile from Garfield, who lost his best Sunday suit of clothes about two months ago to a burglar at the Elberton picnic, Friday spied the clothes on the form of a young Colfax swell named Kitterman. Fisher laid hands on Kitterman and turned him over to Deputy Sheriff Dailey, who took him to jail at Colfax to await a hearing. When arrested Kitterman denied all knowledge of the affair but Fisher opened an inside pocket of the coat and showed his name where it had been stamped by the maker of the clothes. The thief had not discovered this and readily gave up as soon as he found he was trapped.

USES DEVINING ROD TO DISCOVER CITIES

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Berkeley, Cal., June 22.—Professor Joseph Voyle and his fellow enthusiasts of the Physical Research society, who claim to have discovered another buried city by means of divining rods, are today making preparations to excavate the spot.

Attended by nearly 100 recruits to his Physical Research society, many of whom were women, Professor Voyle started out over the hills back of the University of California yesterday on his second expedition in search of buried cities. With the aid of psychic compasses, divining rods and other occult instruments the enthusiastic explorers decided that a large pile of rocks on the side of a hill was the site of the second forgotten city and returned to Berkeley jubilant in their find. The other city discovered by Professor Voyle and his followers was located under the university campus, but the authorities are not as enthusiastic and refused to allow the test.

MYSTERY IN DEATH OF UNKNOWN MAN

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Port Townsend, Wash., June 22.—Information that has reached the officials here leads to the belief that the body of a man found here two weeks ago, partially identified as J. G. Brain, was that of a suicide growing out of exposures in the state capital graft cases in Pennsylvania recently. Identity was wholly obscured beyond a tailor's clothing mark and a part of a letterhead carrying the name of a Philadelphia architectural decorating firm. In a letter signed "John," a Chicago man has sent to Chief of Police Barclay a photograph that may be a picture of the dead man, and should identification be established news of the suicide will be provided.

It has been determined that the dead man was an architect and that he had been a resident of Philadelphia within the last year. The body was found in a cluster of shrubbery near the city park. From the clothing $16 was taken, and near by a scrap of paper was found with the penciled words, "May God forgive me."

He was supposed to have been en route from San Francisco to Treadwell, Alaska, as a strikebreaker.

KLAMATH SALOONMEN PASS OVER THE LINE

Klamath Falls, Or., June 22.—Klamath Falls liquor dealers, who will go out of business here July 1, are planning a new start in the new railroad town of Dorris, Cal., and four buildings are now in course of erection for their occupancy. There are six saloons now doing business at Dorris.

ON A PILGRIMAGE TO CRATER LAKE

John Sharp Williams and Party Coming—Harriman Boosting for It.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Klamath Falls, Or., June 22.—John Sharp Williams, Democratic leader in the house of representatives, has announced his intention of visiting Crater Lake National park this summer, together with a party of other distinguished men, whose interest was aroused by the fight for an increased appropriation for the park.

Crater lake is entirely in Klamath county and part of the road from Pelican bay, Harriman's resort, to the lake, is very rough. To improve it and make it passible for automobiles Mr. Harriman has offered to give $200 to aid the county in its work on the road. No action has yet been taken by the county.

BREAKS QUARANTINE FOR DAUGHTER DYING

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Walla Walla, Wash., June 22.—Breaking a diphtheria quarantine to hasten to the bedside of her daughter, only to see her child die a few minutes later, was the sad experience of Mrs. C. C. Hassenpflug of this city. Her daughter Catherine, a beautiful girl of 21, was employed in the city as a stenographer and during the quarantine of her home had been at the residence of her employer, A. Arthur Riggs, a plumber. Miss Hassenpflug was taken suddenly ill night before last and yesterday morning was removed to the hospital. When the case became serious and the doctors decided upon an operation, the girl's mother was called. She broke the quarantine and reached her daughter's bedside just as she was dying.

Sane Fourth in Klamath.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Klamath Falls, Or., June 22.—Klamath Falls will not celebrate the Fourth of July this year in any special or elaborate manner. Large celebrations were held in 1906 and 1907. The day will be spent this year in a sane and quiet way. The Klamath Falls Military band will give an excursion on the lake, stopping at Odessa, and many people expect to attend the annual celebration given by the Klamath Indians on the reservation. The exercises are always unique and interesting, and last several days.

Idaho Veterans' Encampment.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Boise, Idaho, June 22.—The Spanish-American war veterans of this city have decided to encamp with civil war veterans in the state encampment here next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Half a block of ground has been secured and the encampment will be in tents, a novelty in this state. From present indications there will be a large attendance of veterans of both wars.

CONTEST NOW ON

Students Should Take Advantage of Opportunity of Winning Absolutely Free Tuition in Leading Seats of Learning

THE JOURNAL'S THIRD ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIP CONTEST BEGINS TODAY

Wise Competitors Lose No Time in Securing Votes

The valuable scholarships and cash awards herewith offered by The Oregon Journal should prompt every boy and girl who wishes to achieve success in life to make a most determined effort to win one of the big prizes. The winner of the first choice secures for his or her work during the holidays the equivalent of $325, there being a scholarship valued at $175 and a cash award of $150. This is pretty good remuneration for about three months' work. Failing to secure first choice, there are many more valuable scholarships and cash awards, so that no young person should allow this grand chance to slip away without striving to capture a free education and a substantial cash award to defray expenses while attending school, college or academy. The wise students will work early and late and with renewed vigor each succeeding day in securing subscriptions for The Oregon Journal. The votes determine the distribution of the scholarships, the subscriptions determine the votes, and contestants' own application to the work will determine the subscriptions. It's up to you boys and girls to earn your own way through college besides good cash commissions on all new orders you secure for The Journal. It's worth your while to try and to try hard to win honor and valuable considerations.

THE WAY IT IS DONE

Each and every subscriber to any issue of The Journal will be entitled to vote for a contestant according to the length of time they pay in advance for their subscription. A schedule of votes allowed on every issue, for different periods, is published today.

Every contestant should commence at once to hustle for subscribers to The Journal, bearing in mind that new subscribers count many more votes than old subscribers, for it is only through an increase in circulation that The Journal will receive returns for such a large outlay of cash and scholarships.

The public will be kept advised by publication from time to time as to the standing of the different contestants and the votes to their credit.

Instruction in canvassing or conducting your campaign for subscribers and votes will be given to any contestant who applies to the contest manager.

EQUAL CHANCE FOR ALL.

For the purpose of awarding the scholarships and cash prizes, the field of The Journal has been divided into four districts, as follows:

Multnomah county, Oregon.

Willamette Valley (as far south as Eugene).

Southern Oregon (all south of Eugene).

Eastern Oregon.

A liberal measure of votes is allowed for subscriptions to the semi-weekly edition of The Journal to favor contestants working in districts where the population is scattered. The voting schedule is so keyed and the field is so divided, that a contestant living in the country or on a rural route has an equal advantage with the contestant living in the city of Portland. The young people living in the country have this advantage over their city rivals: they enjoy a larger personal acquaintance.

HOW THEY ARE DISTRIBUTED.

The candidate who at the close of the contest has the largest number of votes, irrespective of locality or district, will have first choice of all scholarships.

The second choice will fall to the contestant of highest vote in the district which does not get the first choice. The third choice will fall to the contestant of highest vote in a district which does not get either the first or second choice. The fourth choice will fall to the contestant of highest vote in the district which does not get the first, second or third choice. The remaining scholarships will be given out to contestants according to their standing, alternating between the districts.

The cash prizes will be given out similarly. He or she, however, will keep the cash commissions earned during the contest for new subscribers.

RATES AND CREDITS.

Prepaid subscriptions, only, count for votes in the Oregon Journal contest, many more points allowed for new subscriptions than for payments on old subscriptions. The same number of votes are allowed whether the paper goes to the subscriber by mail or by carrier. In order to procure votes on an old subscription, the advance payment shall be made for not less than three months. Votes are allowed on new subscriptions, for advance payments for one month or more, an outline of the voting values being as follows:

We have secured a two years' lease on the Night Hawk claim, which completes a great system of mines—Butte Boys, Florence Central and Night Hawk. As a result of the financial panic of last winter, we have been able to secure a lease on the east side claim of the Night Hawk Mining Company's property. This lease is for a period of two years, and carries with it the development work already done, together with engine hoist and tools. There is a double compartment shaft on this property sunk to a depth of 230 feet. We consider ourselves very fortunate in the acquirement of this lease, the development work alone being worth many times the price we paid for it ($1,000). The Night Hawk is just 750 feet from the famous Laguna ground, 800 feet from the Kewanas ground, 1,350 feet north of the north line of the Consolidated ground, and adjoins the Booth. On the southeast, south and southwest are such mines as the Laguna, Kewanas, Red Top and Mushett lease (now a big producer), while to the north a short distance are the Kendall, Great Bend, Great Bend Annex, Great Bend Extension, Diamond Field Black Butte, Diamond Field Daisy, Black Butte Consolidated, Sand Storm and many others of note.

We believe in this property and are confident that we will have a great mine. We will sink 50 to 75 feet, and then crosscut to the ledge, which will require about 40 to 50 days' work. When we encounter the ledge in the crosscut we expect to get shipping ore. In a letter from a noted mining man of Goldfield, under date of June 5, 1908, he writes:

Dear Sir: Allow me to congratulate you on the acquirement of the lease of the East Side claim of the Night Hawk Mining Company during your recent visit here. This is undoubtedly one of the most promising leases in the Goldfield district. It is most favorably located, being surrounded by such properties as the Booth, Columbia Mountain, Oro, and Laguna, all of which are controlled by the Nixon and Wingfield interests. Besides, the Kewanas, the Norcross, and other valuable properties are contiguous to this lease. The Laguna, as you know, recently opened the shipping ore on one of its leases. The ledge or vein is large and strong and runs directly toward the Night Hawk ground, as shown by the compass, and leaves but little room for doubt that this ore chute will be opened up on the Night Hawk ground. Trusting you will attain great success with the lease, believe me, sincerely yours, T. E. ENLOW.

James H. Parks of Goldfield, Department United States Mineral Surveyor and Mining Engineer, in making an engineer's report for us, on June 4, in part said:

The surface of the ground of this lease is at least 100 feet higher than the other shafts where pay ore has been encountered, and it seems reasonable that about 100 feet should be counted on as extra depth more than they have to strike the ore-bearing rock. I see no reason why a good body of pay ore should not be found on this lease. It seems reasonable that with proper effort it will be found here. JAMES H. PARKS, M. E.

Doesn't it appear to you that the Butte Boys Consolidated has one of the best propositions ever offered to the public? It is our candid belief that within a short time stock in our mines will be worth many times the present price. It will be offered but a little while longer at 10 cents per share, and may be taken off the market at any time. Our office will be open until 7 o'clock evenings, and 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Sunday. Call or send for maps and views of our workings. They are free to all.
