

LEADS DEBAR

Coroner's Jury Blames Dr. DeBar of Eugene in an Antitoxin Case.

Former President of Rock Island System and American Millionaire Is Victim of Stroke of Paralysis of Two Years Ago.

New York, June 22.—Paris cables today tell of the death in that city of W. B. Leeds, former president of the Rock Island railroad and American capitalist.

The cables declare that Leeds' estate has been left in trust and that there will be no liquidation of the interests held by Mr. Leeds. He severed all active connections with railroads and other corporations when he suffered a stroke of paralysis two years ago.

Willard B. Leeds' career is one of the most remarkable in the history of American financing. Born of poor parents, he worked as a florist, educated himself as a civil engineer, and early had an ambition to be railroad man. He began as a clerk to the engineer of the Little Miami railroad, gaining promotion to an engineer of the Richmond division of the Pennsylvania line, later being made superintendent.

Leeds became president of the railroad company and served up the history of the Rock Island shares and immediately after B. P. Younk took charge of the system. At the height of his prosperity Leeds built one of the finest mansions in New York. His fortune had been practically separated from his first wife for five years. A month after he met Mrs. W. B. Leeds, who eventually secured the big fortune which he had found his ideal. Leeds gave his bride a pearl necklace worth $50,000, a diamond ring costing $1,000, an emerald coat worth $10,000, a painting worth $25,000 and a mansion on upper Fifth avenue, New York. Paris, Mrs. Leeds died at the Hotel Ritz. Her husband, who lavished his wealth upon her at the height of his prosperity, was at his death a young son. His fortune, once ranging into millions, is now conservatively estimated at $40,000.

DECISION IN SUPREME COURT

Salem, Or., June 22.—The case of Rachel Debow vs. H. Wollenberg and others, appealed from Clackamas county, was affirmed in a decision by the supreme court today. The action was brought to secure a judgment on the ground that the defendant had wrongfully set aside a will with a number of heirs to the estate of the deceased partner, but as the settlement occurred during the lifetime of the testator, the property was not what it is at this time. The heirs of the testator are entitled to a new settlement which will now have to be made.

REALTY BOARD IS AFTER THOMSON

The Realty board will meet tonight in the convention hall in the new Commercial building when the question of appointing a committee to act in conjunction with the Civic Improvement commission on the matter of employing R. H. Thomson, city engineer of Seattle, to take charge of street improvement in Portland will be discussed. The board is unanimously in favor of securing the services of Engineer Thomson to take charge of street work and boulevard improvement in the city, and the board is anxious to take any steps necessary to secure his services. It is probable that the question of the salary that will have to be paid Mr. Thomson will be discussed at tonight's meeting. The salary provided for the city engineer under the present city charter is not believed to be a sufficient amount to give up his present lucrative position in Seattle.

The committee having in charge the organization of the real estate exchange will report to the Realty board tonight, but it is not believed that final action will be taken on the matter as many members of the board believe that it would be premature at this time to organize a real estate exchange.

NEGRO WRITER IS IDENTIFIED

Morrison Girl Declares Jim Jenkins Is Man Who Killed Her Mother.

Bellingham, Wash., June 23.—Positively identified as the murderer of Mrs. Mary Morrison, Jim Jenkins, a negro, now in the county jail waiting transfer to British Columbia to stand trial for the fiendish crime. He is declared without doubt or equivocation to be the murderer of the young girl, Mary Morrison, the girl who saw her mother stabbed to death at Haselmer by the brutal negro, and who fled from the scene of the crime.

TAKLIMA SMELTER STARTS FOR SEASON

Road Work Proposed That Will Lengthen the Working Term.

Grants Pass, Or., June 23.—The Taklima smelter, on the Waldo copper mines, owned by the Taklima Smelting & Mining company, has blown in for the regular work. Eighteen freight wagons drawn by four to eight-horse teams will carry matte and slag between the smelter and Taklima. The company expects to turn out a larger quantity of matte this year than ever before, as the smelter has blown in earlier, and it has a mammoth body of ore to operate upon. A crew has been employed in the mines all winter taking out high-grade smelting ore. The smelter is situated about 45 miles from Grants Pass, and the freight teams require five days for the round trip. The matte from the Taklima smelter is shipped by rail to the smelting works at Grants Pass, and Oregon loses the credit properly due for the product. The smelter also contains a mammoth body of ore.

TWELVE U. OF O. BOYS FORM THE ALPHA CLUB

Special Dispatch to The Journal. University of Oregon, Eugene, June 22.—A group of twelve boys, who have taken over the lease of the house at 11th and Commercial streets, have formed the Kappa Sigma fraternity and will reside there for a few years until they can build a suitable clubhouse of their own.

SACRAMENTO REPORTS A FINE CASE

A fine example of a recovery in a case of kidney disease was reported from Sacramento. Mr. T. Gibson of Ninth street, Sacramento, was in October last in a local hospital in the Capital city, where he was treated for kidney trouble. He was cured by the use of the S. P. R. Co. compound. He had himself been cured by a friend (Charles A. Newton, the yardmaster of the S. P. R. Co., at Sacramento, who had himself been cured by the S. P. R. Co. compound. Dropsy began to subside and the renal inflammation gradually abated and the S. P. R. Co. compound was the cause of his recovery.

WEATHER PERFECT AND HOSPITALITY SUPERB—ACTUAL BUSINESS TOMORROW.

Newport, Or., June 23.—Annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic opens here today. The town is full of veterans and members of Women's Relief corps and the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic. About fifty arrived Sunday, 120 last night and 100 at noon today, but most of the visitors will arrive on special trains this afternoon and evening. Department Commander Blythe arrived at noon.

The streets of Newport are full of decorated veterans, many in uniform or with an arm missing. All are old, but are bearing themselves like soldiers in the battles and campaigns of the civil war. Most of them have brought their families with them. Every citizen wears a badge and moderate one or more of the visitors at his home was asked to do so, and virtually all of them acceded to the request.

ALLEGED DETECTIVE SUFFERS ARREST

Armed with a .32-caliber revolver, brass "knucks" and a black-jack, Louis Gergell was arrested by Officer E. Furke last night at the same place where the robbery on the Fulton car took place Sunday night. Whether the man intended repeating Sunday night's piece of work the police cannot learn. Gergell wears his hair in a topknot. He was brought before Judge Cameron this morning and stubbornly adhered to his story of being a detective. The judge was inclined to give him time to think it over. The case was continued until tomorrow. The attorney for Gergell is asking to come down and see Gergell. His past will also be investigated.

EUGENE WOMAN BEHEAVED

Eugene, Or., June 23.—A telegram was received in Eugene yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Harry Renard stating that her husband, who was employed at Seaside, had been killed there by a loaded wagon running over him, crushing his skull. The body was taken to Portland from Seaside, but will probably be brought to Eugene for burial. Mrs. Renard went to Portland in the first train after receiving the message to make arrangements for the disposition of the body.

FACTS FOR SOX WOMEN

No other medicine has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women or received so many genuine testimonials as has Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound. In every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every one you meet has either been benefited by it, or has friends who have.

EAST SIDE WOMEN PURSUED BY NEGRO

As Mrs. Lillie Quimer and her daughter, Miss Pearl, left their home at 130 East Ninth street yesterday afternoon to take the car down town, they were halted by a negro with a revolver in his hand who demanded that they stop. They refused to do so and turning they ran to their house, the negro a few paces behind, following them. At their home they remained, shaking with fear and uncertain what the man, who appeared to be determined, might do. Police Officer Riley was notified and will keep a close watch on the neighborhood.

RELIGIOUS AND MORAL RIGHTS OF WAY

National Chief of Spiritualists Favors Ordinance Passed by Council.

"In my belief Portland's city officials and council have done the cause of spiritualism a great good by the enactment of the ordinance directed towards the control of the so-called spiritualists in the city. The National Spiritualist association and those who are honest in their belief in spiritualism as a religion have for them to take a stand against those who are trafficking in spiritualism. We have had the same firm in Chicago, first through the legislature and then through the city council, and the Portland ordinance is closely patterned after the Chicago ordinance. Those men and women who advertise in the papers, it is safe to say, should not be admitted to our meetings. We appreciate the move made by the city council, and will support such legislation. This is the opinion of the National Spiritualist association, who is now in the city with Mrs. Warno for a visit of several days.

Dr. Warno talked freely of the controversies raging about spiritualism and spiritualists this morning at the meeting of the Portland Spiritualist Society. He takes the ground that spiritualism is now undergoing the same trials and dangers that beset the Christian religion on every day. At that time the hall was filled with the banner of Christianity for selfish motives. He held the banner of spiritualism in large numbers for their own personal gain. He said that the cause of spiritualism is fast awakening to the necessity of protecting their belief from discredit by taking vigorous sides against these controversies.

All that we are contending for," continued Dr. Warno, "is equal rights for spiritualists. We do not want to be asked for more than we give, but we ask for that much. We realize, too, that in order to get it we will have to join in the effort being made to drive out those fakes and impostors who are using the name of spiritualism as a cloak for humbug and deceit. We are in accord with the legislation as that recently passed by the city council of Portland and consider that they have conferred a great benefit on the cause of spiritualism by their act." Dr. Warno will remain in Portland until the first of the week at the guest of the officers of the State Spiritualist society of Oregon. Today, under the guidance of members of the organization, Dr. Warno has been seen sight-seeing, this being their first trip to Portland. Tomorrow night they will be the guests of honor at a reception to be given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. A. McIntyre, 314 East Eleventh street. On Thursday and Friday night Dr. Warno will deliver lectures on the Women of Woodcraft hall, which will be open to the public.

LYDIA E. FINKHAM No other medicine has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women or received so many genuine testimonials as has Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound. In every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every one you meet has either been benefited by it, or has friends who have. In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., any woman may see the files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, and here are the letters in which they openly state over their own signatures that they were cured by Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound. Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations. Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound is made from roots and herbs, without drugs, and is wholesome and harmless. The reason why Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the feminine organism, restoring it to a healthy normal condition. Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.
