In "Whirley Girley," Weber and Felds' taking musical extravaganza opening at the Oaks for a week last night, the Allen-Curtis comedy company gave to the people who saw the presentation a show well worth seeing. The piece is written in the Weber and Fields way, is full of very amusing situations and spiced with many very pretty songs. The chorus has been fitted into new and taking costumes and work well together, while the singing is done with a vim and a swing that puts the company on sure footing as a success for its engagement at the resort.

If some people have an idea that because the Allen Curtis company is playing in the Airdome at the Oaks it is not worth seeing those people would be agreeably surprised at the visit to this week's bill. There are different playhouses down town who during the season have not given their patrons any better show than that put up by the Allen Curtis company. Last night the comedy of Arthur Clamage, Albert Leonard, Allen Curtis and Charles A. Figg was good for one continuous laugh. The singing of Herbert Lindley, Marguerite La Ponte and Winifred Green was a pleasant feature of the evening. The work of the cowboy chorus was especially well received.

AT THE THEATRES

Seats Selling for Collier.

Seats are now selling for the favorite American comedian, William Collier, who will present his latest comedy success, "Caught in the Rain," at the Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, next Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, with a special price matinee Saturday.

Heilig—"Toy Shop."

Don't miss seeing the "Toy Shop" at the Heilig. Two performances today and a matinee tomorrow. It has made a hit and everyone, big and little, should see it.

May Robson Next Sunday.

The charming actress, May Robson, and her excellent supporting company, will present the delightful comedy, "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," at the Heilig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, next Sunday night, June 28. Seat sale opens next Friday at theatre.

Chinks as Tricksters.

Chinese have the most prominent part on the program at the Grand this week. The Okito family of magicians and illusionists are introducing some new tricks to Portland. This act is wonderful in many ways. Meier and Mora come from Europe with new ideas and they are making a hit.

Where People Laugh.

There is one place in town where laughter reigns. This is at the Star theatre, where the Armstrong Musical Comedy company are closing their engagement with "Charley's Uncle." This is a farce with musical outbursts. The chorus girls are young, pretty and good singers, and the comedians are royal entertainers.

Funny Fun at the Oaks.

A really good show is being given by the Allen Curtis Comedy company at the Oaks this week in its presentation of Weber & Field's musical extravaganza, "Whirley Girley." Brimming over with funny situations and real comedy, full of tuneful songs well sung, replete with beautiful electrical effects and new costumes it is well worth the time.

Last Time Tonight.

Howard Russell's play, "The Swindler," which, on account of the great demand for seats was run two extra performances this week, will positively be given for the last time tonight. Good seats may still be obtained at Baker box office.
