DISEASED MEAT SOLD CUSTOMERS

Shocking Conditions of Unhealthy Livestock Revealed in Investigation.

Last methods with regard to the inspection of animals killed for meat have become so flagrant that in one Oregon slaughter-house during two days last week, when a watch was kept upon the animals being killed for sale from that establishment animals were slaughtered and sold to customers in that town that were in a condition long past their prime to describe.

"TOY SHOP" CHARMING BIT OF REALISTIC DOLL LIFE

By J. F. S.
Perhaps it was only a midsummer night's dream, some June vision conceived to fret the minds of the child in low commission, some mischief-making elfin scheme of Puck's, but whatever it was, it was very lovely and you'll all want to go and see it. Now, all French governesses have a story that is very nice to hear on rainy evenings before you are tucked into bed. It is that on one night in the year all the dolls in Paris and, of course, other cities, too, where it is more than one doll shop, come to life, their joints become limber, voices mellow, and they have dances and sing and play games and flirt and fall down and bump their heads, and it hurts just like real people. This lasts until 4 o'clock, and then, as the clock begins striking, every doll scurries back to his place or her place, climbs upon the shelves, packs herself neatly into her pasteboard case and nobody knows the difference but the fairies, and they won't tell.

DEATH CLAIMS PIONEER PASTOR

The sudden death of Rev. John Gian of the First Free Methodist church of this city yesterday evening as the result of a stroke of heart disease, deprives that church of one of its pioneer workers on this coast. Rev. Gian was 63 years old. He came to the Pacific slope from his home state, New York, 20 years ago, and had been identified with the growth of the Free Methodist church more prominently perhaps than any other minister of the gospel.

GOO-GOO EYES CAUSE OF O. W. P. COLLISION

At an inquiry held by the Oregon railway commission to determine the cause and fix responsibility for a collision on the O. W. P. line last Sunday, Superintendent Field testified that Motorman B. F. McDougal of the east-bound train, was blameable for the reason that he was flirting with a girl and disregarding his duty. The motorman denied the charge and swore that his attention was engaged in trying to get his car past a frightened horse.

A Grand Family Medicine.

"It gives me pleasure to speak a good word for Electric Bitters," writes Frank Goslin of No. 486 Houston street, New York. "It's a grand family medicine for dyspepsia and liver complications; while for lame back and weak kidneys it cannot be too highly recommended." Electric Bitters regulate the digestive functions, purify the blood, and impart renewed vigor and vitality to the weak and debilitated or sickly sexes. Sold under guarantee at Skidmore Drug company's drug store, 50c.
