Final Decree in Traction Rate Case—Nickels Back If People Win.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., June 22.—Final decree in the Milwaukee rate case was entered yesterday afternoon before Judge Galloway in the circuit court of Marion county. Attorney Giltner for the Portland Railway, Light & Power company served notice of appeal and put up a $10,000 bond to insure the carrying out of the terms of the injunction until the case can be decided in the supreme court.
By the injunction the railroad must give a receipt for every fare collected between Oak Grove and Portland. If the people of Milwaukee and Oak Grove through the state railroad commission win the concession of a 5-cent fare to Milwaukee and a 10-cent fare to Oak Grove, then the railroad must refund 5 cents for every receipt presented at the office of the railroad company. A bond of $5,000 for the state of Milwaukee case and the Oak Grove case—was required of the company by Judge Galloway to insure the carrying out of these terms.

SPRING SENSATIONS ONE AFTER ANOTHER

Saloonkeepers Oppose Ordinance Barring Women From Saloons.

Yesterday was a day of sensations at the city hall, and one of them was Councilman Driscoll's statement before the judiciary committee to the effect that the liquor men of the city were opposed to his ordinance prohibiting saloonkeepers from allowing women in saloons. After the debate the ordinance was recommended for passage.
Driscoll said that his life has been made miserable for the past two weeks by saloonkeepers who have endeavored to keep him from pushing the ordinance through. He said that these same men told him that they favored the ordinance when it first came up and now Driscoll is trying to find out what caused the change of heart.
It appeared to the members of the liquor license committee when they held their hearings on complaints against saloonkeepers last winter that the cause of most of the trouble was due to the fact that women were allowed in saloons. In order to stop the trouble Driscoll's ordinance was drawn and it is expected that it will pass the council tomorrow morning.
City Attorney Kavanaugh said the measure was constitutional and that in his estimation it would keep women out of saloons. The change of the saloon men from favoring the measure to opposing it came as a great surprise to the committee members, but they did not hesitate in voting to recommend the measure for passage.

DR. RILEY SPEAKS ON "JONAH-MYTH OR MAN"

The White Temple is noted for doing unusual things but even to the members of that church an early morning service at 8:00 o'clock seems unusual. In spite of that fact, however, there was a large number present this morning to hear Dr. Riley speak on the subject, "Jonah in the Storm." This is the first of a series of four sermons on the general subject of "Jonah, Myth or Man." Tomorrow morning at the same hour he will speak on "Jonah in the Fish." This afternoon he gives an address at University Park Baptist church.
Last night a large audience was present to hear his opening sermon, "Portland Sinners." Tonight the special topic will be, "What Are Their Betsetting Sins?"
The great chorus of 100 voices with Malcolm C. Martin as leader is proving a great attraction and inspiration. Probably no larger choir was ever assembled by one individual church in Portland than this one. In speaking last night on the subject, "Are There Any Sinners in Portland?" Dr. Riley took for his text Romans 3:23. "For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God; heinily justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus." By way of introduction, the speaker called attention to the subject for the week, declaring that his purpose in discussing some phases of sin for five consecutive nights was in the fact that this theme was now too seldom preached from the pulpit. The strangest, the most absurd statement that has found its way to the lips of men within 100 years is the denial of the fact of sin. The man who Denies the fact of sin must despise the opinion of his neighbors, hush the voice of his own conscience and repudiate the plain statements of Scripture. If you think you are without sin seek your wife, or the children or even the next door neighbors. If you think you are without sin search your own heart.
