WEATHER REPORT

The high pressure area yesterday over the northern Rocky mountain states has increased in magnitude and now overlies the entire eastern slope of the Rocky mountains. A trough of low pressure extends from British Columbia south to southern California and thence east to southern Arizona. The upper Mississippi depression is now central north of Lake Huron. Fair weather continues on the Pacific slope except in extreme northwest Washington, where light rain has fallen. Rain has also occurred in northern Texas, Oklahoma, the middle Mississippi valley, the lake region, and the New England states, but it is decidedly cooler in the northern Mississippi valley and over the greater portion of the upper lake region.

The indications are for fair weather in this district tonight and Thursday except along the Washington coast, where showers are probable. It will be warmer in eastern Oregon and southern Idaho.

THE RIVER.

The stage of the river at Portland will be 19.7 feet Thursday morning, 19.3 feet Friday, 18.8 feet Saturday, and it will continue to fall thereafter at the rate of about a half a foot a day for several days.

BUSINESS CHANCES

Read This! Read It All!

Read it carefully, then read it over again.

Stock of general merchandise, located in eastern Oregon, invoice about $25,000. In a country where everyone has money. The country of big sales and fair profits. Owner started 5 years ago with $5,000 and has now a net profit out of the business of over $40,000, but has lost his health and must give up his business. 1907 sales, $85,000; net profit, 25 per cent. This year's business so far, better than last. Here is a rare chance for one or two men with a lot of good business ability and a little money. Owner will sell buildings or rent. $10,000 cash will handle this, with some good city property as part pay. This sounds good don't it? Well, come and let me tell you more about it if you are interested and want to buy. I will pay the expense of the trip if you will investigate and find it is not as good as represented in this ad.
