Publishers of the fifth annual number of the Jewish Tribune of Portland have just issued a finely illustrated and strongly written number under date of June 19. The leading article, “Reminiscences of Beth Israel, from 1858 to 1908,” by Dr. Jacob Bloch, will be widely read with extreme interest by Jewish people. Dr. Bloch is associated with Dr. N. Mosessohn in the editorship of the Tribune. The table of contents of the annual number for 1908 includes well written stories of “The Congregation of Ahavai Sholom,” by Isaac Swett; “The Congregation Nevah Zedeck Talmud Chora,” by George Rubenstein; “Portland Section Council of Jewish Women,” by Mrs. S. M. Blumauer; “Remarks on Jewish Communal Life,” by Dr. M. N. A. Cohen, and a budget of editorial comment by Editor Mosessohn.

A husband 33 years of age and 14 surviving children, the youngest of whom is 33 years old, were left by Mrs. Sarah Bennett, who died in April. Her aged husband, Henry Bennett, has asked that letters on her estate be issued to one of his nine sons. The eldest son is 80 years old. Seventeen children in all were born to the Bennetts, three of whom have died. Two of the deceased children were married before their death and have perpetuated the family tree. Mrs. Bennett was 77 years old at the time of her death. The property is worth $4,000. The will gives $1 to each of the children and the remainder to her husband.

Judge Gantenbein yesterday sustained in part the demurrer to the complaint of Clenath L. Goodrich against the city of St. Johns, in which an effort is being made to collect $4,063, alleged to be due to the plaintiff as administrator of the estate of William W. Goodrich, who was for years the city engineer. The court held, however, that the fact that Goodrich had not given bond did not affect his standing as an officer during the time the alleged services were performed, and the court will allow the case to go to trial on one of the causes of action.

Auction! Auction!—Friday, 2:30 and 7:30 p. m., Saturday, 2:30 and 7:30 p. m., entire stock of Fashion Cloak and Suit house, consisting of new spring suits, coats, skirts, waists, ladies' bags, umbrellas, wash suits and lingerie dresses, will be offered at auction. Also fixtures, consisting of sewing machine, tables, chairs, desk, etc., at the Fashion Cloak and Suit house, 141 Sixth street, corner Alder, opposite Oregonian building. J. T. Wilson, auctioneer; J. E. Goldstone, trustee.

The council passed the ordinance appropriating $250 for a drinking fountain to be established on the first floor of the city hall yesterday afternoon. There is no drinking fountain which the public can use in the building save an old-fashioned affair which has to be filled with a bucket.

The Port of Portland filed a petition with the city council yesterday asking for more rooms than they are occupying at present. The petition stated that the room is needed because of the increased duties which have lately fallen to the commission, including a towage and pilotage service.

Dining car service on the Astoria & Columbia River railroad which was to have been inaugurated with the summer schedule taking effect Saturday, June 27, will not be installed until about July 3 or 4, owing to delay in equipping cars that have been ordered for this service.

The steamer Georgie Burton will take a basket excursion to Multnomah Falls and Oneonta Gorge Sunday, June 28, leaving Washington street dock at 8 a. m. Two hours at the falls. A light lunch will be served on the boat. Tickets $1.

Sixty new members will be initiated into the Knights of Columbus by the local council of that order next Sunday. When these have been received into the lodge Portland will have the largest council of the Knights of Columbus in the northwest. The initiation will be in Masonic temple, corner of Yamhill and Tenth streets. The work will be put on by the crack degree team from Oakland. This team has been engaged by the local knights to come up especially for the initiation Sunday.

Articles lost and found on the streetcars in the last few days: Twenty-six umbrellas, three satchels, four grips, two suit cases, one belt pin, one beauty pin, one comb, one broom, one box cigars, two pair shoes, one bank, five purses, one thimble, one map, one hatchet and hammer, one package drugs, one butcher knife, one pocket knife, one spectacle case, one baby shoe, one package underwear, one sweater, eight books, one hat, one plane, three lunch boxes, one lunch pail, one rule, one key, two telescopes, one coil wire, one hammer, one basket, two pairs gloves, one bracelet, one receipt book. Call at the lost article room of the O. W. P. railway station, corner First and Alder.

“The fanciest pack of apples in the world is put up at Lafayette, Yamhill county, Oregon,” declares a title page of the latest brochure issued by the Yamhill County Development league. One of the most artistic and convincing booklets ever issued from an Oregon printing house has been sent out by the Yamhillites, and they are giving special attention to the apples and cherries grown in that county. Prunes, grapes, blackberries, raspberries, Loganberries and other fruits are shown in beautiful colored plates that have been so delicately tinted by the printer that they look good enough to eat.

The county commissioners today announced the appointment of E. J. Carr to succeed Fred Buchtel in charge of the county relief work. Mr. Buchtel having resigned several weeks ago to accept the appointment as city sealer. Mr. Carr is learning the ropes of the office today. The appointee has been a resident of Portland for about 18 years. He has been a manufacturing jeweler, but recently retired from that business. His work will consist in looking after the work connected with the county hospital and poor farm and all the county charitable work.

The regular meeting of the Sixtieth Precinct Improvement association will be held Friday evening at 8 p. m. at Warren's hall. It is desired that a full attendance be present, as several committees are to report. There should be some important information at this meeting about the proposed big sewer district and street improvements. Women who are interested in these matters are urged to come to all the meetings, as also men who have not identified themselves with the association.

To assist in arriving at conclusions as to fair and reasonable freight rates, the Oregon railway commission will within the next week begin the work of fixing the estimated value of the railroads of the state, and the cost of their reproduction. The commission has been studying the methods employed by the Washington railway commission in arriving at Washington railway values, and will engage the assistance of some of the reviewers who did like service for that commission.

T. R. Howitt, B. U. Emery and Ex Thomas, committee on races of the Gresham Fourth of July committee, have asked the county commissioners for permission to use Main street from the Cleveland farm to the Powell Valley road as a race course on the nation's birthday. The county has always refused to grant permits of this character, leaving those who manage the affairs to assume any damage that might by possibility arise.

Watch and wait for the big shoe sale at 291 Morrison street, between Fourth and Fifth. I have bought the stock and lease of the Marks Shoe company, and will give the people of Portland such shoe values as were never before known. John Dellar, formerly First and Yamhill.

Judge Bronaugh yesterday signed the certificate of probable cause on appeal that will save Joe Anderson from being hanged at the state penitentiary tomorrow. Anderson was convicted by a jury in Judge Bronaugh's court of the murder of Harry M. Logan and was sentenced to be hanged tomorrow, but from the first it was known that his case would be carried to the supreme court.

Judge Charles E. Wolverton and W. P. Olds have been appointed as trustees of the Reed estate to take the places of the late Judge C. B. Bellinger and W. R. Robinson, resigned. The board which has in charge the plans for the Reed institute, money for which was left by Amanda W. Reed, consist of Judge Wolverton, W. P. Olds, C. A. Dolph, Dr. T. L. Eliot and Martin Winch.

Dining car service on the Astoria & Columbia River railroad which was to have been inaugurated with the summer schedule taking effect Saturday, June 27, will not be installed until about July 3 or 4, owing to delay in equipping cars that have been ordered for this service.

Water through hose for sprinkling yards or sidewalks or washing porches or windows must be paid for in advance and used only between the hours of 5 and 8 a. m. and 5 and 9 p. m. It must not be used for sprinkling streets. If used contrary to these rules or wastefully it will be shut off.

The city council passed an ordinance yesterday allowing a full surveying crew for City Engineer Taylor's department. The crew is needed because of the great increase of business in the office.

Woman's Exchange, 133 Tenth street, lunch 11:30 to 2; business men's lunch.

Though a resident of Portland for five years, Frank Weir took the boxcars of the East Portland freight yards three nights ago as the only place to lay his head. Together with his hobo “roommates” he was rounded up early this morning by Officers Portwood and Addison and spent the rest of the night in jail.

—what 25% means

There isn't a tailor in Portland that is less able to give 25 per cent off his regular prices than the Columbia Shop. It means a loss to us. That's a fact. But, we told you why we did it; we have to move the goods and we must keep the boys busy. That's what 25 per cent means to us. It also means that you can get a $25 suit for $18.75, a $30 suit for $22.50 and a $35 suit for $26.25. If you can see any advantage in getting tailor-made clothes for less than ready made, better call and see what we have to offer for these prices.

HONEST DENTISTRY

Our success is due to uniform high-grade work at reasonable prices.

TEETH WITHOUT PLATES

Teeth extracted free when other work is ordered. Nervous people and those afflicted with heart weakness need have no fear whatever. Our method, too, of filling teeth robs dentistry of all its terrors and makes the filling of a tooth absolutely painless.

Any of the patients whom we have served in past years will vouch for our fair and reliable dealings. Our office is the most complete. Missing teeth restored without plates and equal to those that nature gave you. Work absolutely painless.

MAKING ARTIFICIAL TEETH Is a leading feature of our business, and we believe it cannot be surpassed in the point of completeness. We operate or own laboratory, and as making Artificial Teeth is a specialty in dentistry, we are in a position to make this offer and guarantee satisfaction.

Do You Wear Artificial Teeth? If you do, have us make them over and reset the teeth on a new plate, that will give your mouth and face natural expression.
