"SMARTY" SLANDERS HIS BENEFACTRESS

In Court Chauffeur Burns Is Proved Both Debtor and Trauducer.

(United Press Lined Wire.) San Francisco, June 25.—Allegations that Mrs. Hattie E. Burns, daughter of the late John R. Whitney, banker and capitalist, had given Leland S. Gould, a young chauffeur, $6,000 with which to purchase an automobile, are the talk of society today, although the court has legally decided that Mrs. Burns loaned the money to young Gould and did not give it to him.

MINOR BRINGS SUIT FOR $25,403 DAMAGES

Walter Crosby Ltd Match Near 100-Gallon Tank of Gasoline—Explosion.

(Salem Bureau of the Journal.) Salem, Or., June 24.—Walter Crosby, a minor, aged 12 years, through his father and guardian, A. B. Crosby, has brought suit against the Williamette Construction company for the recovery of $25,403 damages. While constructing the railroad for the Oregon Electric company, according to the labors, the laborers negligently left beside the track near Crosby's home in this county, a 100-gallon tank partially filled with gasoline. This boy's childish curiosity led him to ignite a match near the tank with the result that a terrific explosion occurred.
