THREE-LEGGED CALF SEEMS TO ENJOY LIFE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Dover, Or., June 26.—Harry Sawtell of this place has a wonderful Jersey cow which recently gave birth to a fine, frisky calf which is perfect all except that it has only three legs instead of four. The little animal takes its milk from a bucket as do four-legged calves and is a remarkably intelligent youngster. Sawtell does not like to sell the calf for veal and he hopes some one will take it and present it to a museum. It is certainly a curiosity.

WEATHER REPORT

A moderate disturbance is central over Montana. It has caused unsettled weather and light showers in Washington and northwestern Oregon. The western high pressure area is now central over the lake region and fair weather prevails generally east of the Rocky mountains except along the south Atlantic and gulf states. Showers have occurred at scattered places in northern Arizona, northern New Mexico and western Colorado. It is cooler in Oregon, Washington and California, and warmer in Montana and the Dakotas. Temperatures have also fallen slightly in the eastern states.

The indications are for fair weather in this district Saturday except in northwestern Oregon, Washington and northern Idaho, where showers will occur at scattered places.
