LARGE AUDIENCES CROWD WHITE TEMPLE

The evangelistic services at the White Temple are drawing larger audiences every day. The singing, led by Mr. Martin and his chorus of 100 voices, arouses great deal of enthusiasm. Dr. Riley spoke this morning on "Jonah Under the Gourd." Tonight his subject will be, "What Shall Be Told at the Confessional?"

There will be no services on Saturday, but Sunday, Dr. Riley will speak three or four times. He will preach at 10:30 a. m. on "The Meaning of Church Membership." At 3:30 p. m. the sermon will be to men only on the theme, "Playing the Fool." At night his subject will be "Tell It."

In his sermon this morning on "Jonah and the Gourd" he gave an exposition of the fourth chapter of that book. He defended Jonah's discouragement by reminding his audience that no man liked to have his prophecies fail, and of all men the minister has the best right to be disappointed when his words will not stand the test of time. He called attention also to the fact that the preservation of Nineveh was the result of Jerusalem and Judea, and Jonah's desire to see it perish was exactly what we call patriotism. What American did not rejoice when the Spanish fleet was sunk. Few of us even had the Christianity of Captain Phillips, who, when the Spanish vessels were sinking, said: "Don't cheer, boys. Those poor fellows are dying." We wanted them to die and we called our desire patriotism.

FALLS FORTY FEET, RETURNS TO WORK

Centralia, Wash., June 25.—Jerome Hull, a fireman in the employ of the Pacific States Telegraph & Telephone Co., had a narrow escape from death today. Men were engaged in moving a telephone pole and Hull ascended it for the purpose of removing the wires. No sooner had he reached the top, a distance of 40 feet from the ground, than the pole fell, throwing him violently against a fence. He escaped without any serious injury or broken bones. Within an hour after the doctor had patched him up, he was on the streets.

WIFE ASKS SUITS FOR HUBBY WHO HAS BOUGHT NONE FOR 8 YERAS

"I have been married more than eight years and my husband has never bought a suit of clothes in all that time," writes a woman to Fred Bloch of the Oregon hotel, who was mentioned in The Journal several days ago as being one of the best dressed men in Portland.

Further, the woman, who intimates that she lives in the country, but who does not sign her name, says: "My idea in writing you is to see if we cannot make some arrangement whereby when you have finished wearing some of those suits I read about in The Journal you might give them to me for my husband. Other persons have done this with their castoffs, and you have so many different suits I thought you might be able to help us along so that we can continue without buying any clothes.

"My husband is rather a well-dressed man and he somewhat objects to wearing castoffs, but as long as I can get them for nothing he will wear them. So if you will kindly let me know I will be much obliged.

The writer is evidently well educated and an excellent writer. She enclosed a stamp for an answer. While she does not disclose her name, she gives her address, which is in the country not a great ways from Portland.

Mr. Bloch has already received several communications for his old clothes, but so far all the others have been from persons who were apparently in poor circumstances.

INDEPENDENT PARTY DELEGATES NAMED

Delegates to represent Oregon in the national convention of the Independent party, which meets in Chicago July 27, were selected at a meeting of the state committee in Alisky hall last night. The following compose the delegation: M. D. White, P. McDonald, M. E. Gibson, W. H. Fitzgerald, N. O'Hara, T. J. Byrne and George E. Shaver.

Between 40 and 50 members of the committee were present at the meeting, which was presided over by M. J. Malley, chairman of the committee. A number of speeches were made in support of the new movement, and it was freely predicted that the presidential ticket to be nominated at the Chicago convention would receive the second highest vote in Oregon at the November election.

It was unanimously voted at the meeting last night that immediately after the national convention assets and makes nominations for president and vice-president. A vigorous effort will be made to organize branches of the new political movement in every Oregon town.

Sour Stomach

"I used Cascarets and feel like a new man. I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia and sour stomach for the last two years. I have been taking medicines and other drugs, but could find no relief only for a short time. I will recommend Cascarets to my friends as the only thing for indigestion and sour stomach and to keep the bowels in good condition. They are very nice to eat."

Police Hold Demented Man.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Centralia, Wash., June 26.—A man about 60 years of age, five feet nine inches in height, slightly gray and rather poorly dressed, was found wandering on the streets of this city today by the police and taken in custody. He was unable to give his name, or tell where he was from, but was laboring under the hallucination that he was being pursued by bloodhounds. The police are holding him.

Values Leg at $25,000.

of a locomotive in the O. R. & N. round-house here while engaged in washing the boiler of the locomotive in January, 1907, sustaining a broken leg. The superintendent of the railroad company for $25,000 damages. Brasel alleges that there was at the time no handrail alongside the boiler, and that the negligence of the company in this respect was the cause of his fall.
