WEATHER REPORT

A ridge of high pressure extends from Vancouver island southeastward to the east gulf states. The barometer is relatively low over southern New Mexico and also north of the lake region. During the last 24 hours fair weather has prevailed everywhere on the Pacific slope. Rain, heavy in places, has occurred in the Texas panhandle, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, and the lake region, and light rain has fallen in the Canadian northwest. Moderately high temperatures prevailed yesterday afternoon in the Pacific states and it is warmer than usual in the Ohio valley, middle Atlantic and New England states. The temperatures elsewhere in the United States are generally slightly below normal.

The indications are for fair and warmer weather in this district Tuesday.
