

ROOPS IN CAMP AT CHICKAMAUGA

Six Southern States There With Their Guards—Regulars Participate.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Chattanooga, Tenn., July 2.—From now until the end of the summer the mountains and valleys about Chickamauga will echo with the reports of firearms and the tread of marching troops, much as they did in the '60s, to which will be added the songs of the camp and the merry shouts of the soldiers as they take part in athletic sports and other outdoor amusements. Congress has appropriated $250,000 to defray the expenses of the great encampment which was opened in Chickamauga Park today, and it is expected that the affair will be one of the greatest of its kind ever undertaken in this country in time of peace.

"HE CURSED," SAYS THE SCHOOL BOARD

But the Teacher Denies the Allegation and Fight Goes On.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., July 2.—R. W. Smith, a teacher in a public school near Junction City, who was expelled on a charge of using profane language, will have a hearing before Superintendent Ackerman at 1 o'clock today.

KAPPA SIGMA MEN GATHER AT DENVER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Denver, Colo., July 2.—The eighteenth biennial grand convocation of the Kappa Sigma fraternity, the largest Greek letter society in America, is being held in Denver with an attendance representing the leading colleges of the entire country. The sessions will continue three days and will be liberally interspersed with features of entertainment. Convention headquarters were opened today at the Albany hotel, which is handsomely decorated with the fraternity colors—red, green and white.

BRIDGTON ACADEMY HUNDRED YEARS OLD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
North Bridgton, Me., July 2.—From nearly every nook and corner of the country the alumni of famous old Bridgton academy have returned here to help in the celebration of the centennial of the institution. Melville E. Ingalls of Cincinnati, an alumnus of the institution and one of its chief benefactors, delivered the principal address.

White Parasols

At a good-bye price, only a few. If you desire one you will have to hurry. Best 42 grades, to close at $10 each, tomorrow 8 a. m. to 9:30 p. m., at Bannan & Co.'s, 388-390 East Morrison street, near Grand avenue.

POPULAR ASTORIA YOUNG WOMAN WEDS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Astoria, Ore., July 2.—Miss Lola Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ford, was married to William Campbell Smith, a prominent young attorney of Astoria, at the residence of the bride's parents. Rev. William Seymour, pastor of Grace Episcopal church, officiated. The wedding was a very pretty one. Guests from all over Oregon and California were present.

COMMISSION ORDERS S. P. CAR REPAIRED

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., July 2.—As the result of a report made to the Interstate Commerce Commission by the Oregon commission that the Southern Pacific has been compelled to repair a dangerous car used from service between San Francisco and Portland. According to the correspondence in the matter the corresponding poor repair that the railway made in such cases is in continual danger of losing their lives. The car, 442, will be thoroughly renovated in the Oakland shops.

DAYTON ORGANIZES DEVELOPMENT BODY

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Dayton, Ore., July 2.—An organization to act in conjunction with the Yamhill County Development League has been perfected in Dayton. A mass meeting was held Tuesday evening at which the following officers were elected: President, Martin Miller; vice-president, S. W. Miller; secretary, C. Lockhead; treasurer, J. L. Castle.

GALLAGHER, HERO DIES OF WOUNDS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, July 2.—Wounds he received while trying to save the life of President McKinley from assassin Czolgosz have caused the death of Albert Gallagher, personal body guard of the late national executive. Gallagher sprang upon the assassin and prevented his escape. The crowd, thinking the officer was the man who had fired the shot, showered blows upon him, inflicting injuries from which the detective never recovered.

SUCCESSFUL CAREER.

Formal Opening of New Home of Fred W. Graves Music Company.
"Very successful businesses do not just grow, they are built," said Judge Lorimer in a recent interview. The affirmation is well illustrated by the business success of Fred W. Graves, the popular music dealer. The history of the evolution of the establishment from a meagerly-stocked store at 1234 on Alder street near Fourth, through successive expansions to the present magnificent store at 111 Fourth near Washington street. Three years ago Graves Music company was incorporated and a limited amount of stock was sold.

Fred W. Graves, President and Manager of Graves Music Co.

Seven years ago, while conducting the Sixth street store, Mr. Graves bought out the entire stock of the Wiley B. Allen company, consisting of sheet music, hand instruments, etc. In 1905, on account of the erection of a new building, he was forced to move to the then only available location at 328 Washington street. Three years ago Graves Music company was incorporated and a limited amount of stock was sold.

Slaveless Vests for Women.

Low neck, lower price, lace yokes, best 20c quality, all sizes, tomorrow 10 each from 8 a. m. to 9:30 p. m., at Bannan & Co.'s, 388-390 East Morrison street, near Grand avenue.

TEACHERS ELECT BOOK TRUST MAN

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Cleveland, Ohio, July 2.—President W. C. Thompson of Ohio State university, the anti-trust candidate for the nomination for president of the National Educational association, was defeated there by a nominating committee by a vote of 23 to 21. L. D. Harvey of Menominee, Mich., was named by the committee for president.

MOTHER CANNOT GIVE HER CHILD AWAY

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Oakland, Cal., July 2.—A mother cannot give away the custody of her child, is the pith of a decision rendered by Superior Judge Harris, who set aside a death wish. Mrs. Paul King shortly before her death gave her child to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kent, but Judge Harris awarded the custody of the baby to Paul King, the father.

Habitual Constipation

May be permanently overcome by proper personal efforts with the assistance of the one truly beneficial laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, which enables one to form regular habits daily so that assistance to nature may be gradually dispensed with when no longer needed as the best of remedies, when required, are to assist nature and not to supplant the natural functions, which must depend ultimately upon proper nourishment, proper efforts, and right living generally. To get its beneficial effects, always by the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. ONLY SOLD BY ALL LEADING DRUGGISTS one size only, regular price 50¢ per bottle

PUBLICITY LEAGUE FOR COLUMBIA TOWNS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Rainier, Or., July 2.—At an enthusiastic meeting, attended by representatives from the Commercial clubs of Rainier, St. Helens and Clatskanie, a development league was formed in this city Tuesday evening. The organization will be known as the Columbia County Development League. Officers were elected as follows: President, Colonel J. B. Bourne, of Rainier; secretary, C. H. Stockwell, of Clatskanie; treasurer, Edward Ross, of St. Helens.

Conference of Rabbis.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Frankfort, Mich., July 2.—From Chicago, New York, Portland, New Orleans,

San Francisco and other cities throughout the country there has gathered here a distinguished body to take part in the 19th annual meeting of the central conference of American rabbis. Rabbi David Philipson of Cincinnati, is to preside over the session, which will continue for one week. Marriage, capital and labor, the Bible in public schools and a number of other questions of the day are to be discussed by the conference.

Tell Your Neighbor It Happens Tomorrow.
On Friday only, 8 a. m. to 9:30 p. m., we will throw on the counter 5,000 yards "Hope" Lonsdale, bleached, yard wide muslin at 7c yard. Only 30 yards to a customer and none to dealers. Bannan & Co., 388-390 East Morrison street, near Grand avenue.

$100 ONLY EACH WEEK Will Tog You Out

FOR The Fourth

We want you, whether man or woman, to know that

Your Credit Is Good

Come in tonight or tomorrow, select your suit and make a small cash deposit and take the goods.

OPEN TONIGHT TILL 9:30

$1 Great Gevurtz Stores $1

Yamhill, First and Second Streets East Burnside and Union Ave.

FOUR TRAINS TO THE EAST

NORTH COAST LIMITED
TWIN CITY EXPRESS EASTERN EXPRESS
NORTHERN PACIFIC-BURLINGTON EXPRESS

Northern Pacific Railway

VISIT
YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

Stopovers allowed on all tickets to enable trip being taken through Park.

ROUND TRIP TOURIST FARES
To all points in the middle and eastern states.

Apply to any ticket agent Northern Pacific Railway and have fares quoted, routes explained, and berth reservations made, or call on or write
A. D. CHARLTON,
Asst. Gen. Pass. Agent,
255 MORRISON STREET PORTLAND, OREGON

RICHARDSON'S

One-Fourth Off On All Clothing

Finest Fabrics in Every Wanted Shade or Pattern. Finest Tailoring, Too.

$15.00	Suit for	$11.25
$20.00	Suit for	$15.00
$22.50	Suit for	$16.25
$25.00	Suit for	$18.75
$30.00	Suit for	$22.50
$35.00	Suit for	$26.25

A.J. RICHARDSON CO.
Opposite Woodard, Clarke & Co.
283-285 Washington Street

Bank, Store and Office Railings

Fire Escapes and Fire Casings

Fencing and Trellis Work

Portland Wire & Iron Works

Cor. Second and Everett Sts. Phone Main 2000

JOURNAL LINERS COST LITTLE. ACCOMPLISH MUCH.