ASKS COURT TO MAKE DISPOSITION OF DIRT

Real Estate Company Has Eye on Earth Taken From Street.

The John P. Sharkey company asserts ownership of the dirt that is being removed in grading Franklin street in Waverleigh Heights, between Thirty-first and Thirty-third streets, and to maintain its claim has begun a suit in the circuit court to enjoin the city, M. J. Connelley and Scott & McDougall from removing the soil within the limits named unless they dump it on block 24, which adjoins the street. Connelley has a contract with the city for grading the street, while Scott & McDougall are actually doing the work under a subcontract.

In the contract between Connelley and the city nothing is said as to the disposition of the dirt excavated in grading. The Sharkey company, which owns the land on both sides, says the subcontractors are converting the dirt to their own use. The Sharkey company declares that it holds an equitable interest in the street and that the dirt should be dumped on block 24 to fill up an injurious hole in the street. The city and the court is also asked to order the contractors to render an accounting for the soil already removed.

DR. RILEY TO DELIVER HIS LAST SERMONS

An attentive audience nearly filled the White Temple this morning to hear Dr. W. B. Riley's sermon on "The Second Coming of Jesus Christ."

Dr. Riley addressed another large audience at the noonday meeting at the Tucker theatre on the subject, "The Scientific Accuracy of the Scriptures." A solo song by Miss Ethel Shea delighted the crowd.

Tonight at the White Temple Dr. Riley will speak on the subject, "The Solution of Your Every Difficulty." The singing of the great chorus choir of nearly 100 voices under the direction of Malcolm G. Martin is one of the most inspiring features of the evening service.

Tomorrow is the last of the week-day services, when Dr. Riley will speak four times. The hours and topics will be as follows: 8:30 a. m., "The Sort of Bodies for His Saints"; 11:15 noon at the Baker theatre, "The Religion of the Times to Come"; 3:30 p. m., at the White Temple, a meeting for women only, "An Ideal States as a Pledge"; and at 7:45 p. m., "The Safe Escape of Eight souls."

In his address this morning on "The Second Coming of Jesus Christ," the speaker gave an exposition of I Thess. 4:13-18. Dr. Riley looks for a literal and personal return of the Lord Jesus. He accepts without question his promise to come again, take the throne of the world and rule from the sea and from the river to the ends of the world. He believes that at the time of the second coming of Christ, all Christians who have gone to their graves will be raised and given glorious bodies like unto the body of our Lord, but that the rest of the dead will be raised, the unbelieving dead, will not be raised until the thousand years are finished, as is told in Revelation 4:6.

AT THE THEATRES

Seat Sale for Yiddish Players. Tomorrow (Friday) morning at 10 o'clock at box office, the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, the advance seat sale will open for the Yiddish dramatic players, who will present four different plays at the above theatre next Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday nights. The opening play will be "Kol-Nidre."

Mantell in "Othello" Tonight. The distinguished actor and tragedian, Robert Mantell, and his excellent supporting company will present Shakespeare's tragedy "Othello" at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets tonight at 8 o'clock. Tomorrow (Friday) night, "King Lear" will be given; Saturday afternoon, the special price matinee, "Macbeth"; Saturday night, "King Richard III." Seats are now selling at theatre for the entire engagement.

The Oaks Has Good Comedy. An audience that crowded the big air dome and fringed the outside listened to the presentation of the side-splitting farce "A Lost Baby," by the Allen Curtis comedy company at the Oaks last night. Songs and dances and comedy all were received with repeated bursts of applause and cheers.

Close at the Baker. The Baker stock company is bidding farewell to the old home this week.

Rohses Park
4th OF JULY
Fulton Cars, 2nd & Morrison

Saturday night will close the season, and next season the company is to appear at the Empire, so this week is in the nature of an all around farewell. The play is Hoyt's "A Bunch of Keys," a rib-ticking farce mingled with music and merriment. Maribel Seymour and Howard Russell are in their glory as comedians. Matinee Saturday, last time Saturday night.

Famous Circus Act. There is a famous circus act at the Grand this week, where it heads the program. This is the casting act of the Elton-Polo troupe. Hill, Cherry and Hill have a bicycle act which is unlike any other seen here. The Frederick Raymond trio give operatic singing. The balance of the bill is bright.

Brisk Fun at Marquam. In the Four Comrades and Charles Harris, Pantages is putting on two big New York comedy successes at the Marquam this week. The comrades do a comedy turn that keeps an uproar of laughter going, while Harris is the funniest man in years. There are six other good acts.

"A Ragged Hero" Tonight. There will be another chance to see the Blukall-Atwood stock company tonight in its great success, "A Ragged Hero." This is the finest offering in which the company has appeared since the opening of its engagement. The fact that the Lyric is always cool and comfortable makes it especially popular.
