BEAVERS ALLOW FOURTH VICTORY

Kinsella Blows Up in Eighth and Five Seals Romp Homeward.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, July 4.—After Portland had the game pretty well in hand in the first half of the fourth canto yesterday the Seals discovered McFarland's weak points and the ex-Oaklander was yanked out. Manager McCredie sending Kinsella in. Kinsley was hammered for seven runs during the succeeding four and a half innings, two of them being made in the inning that marked McFarland's retirement. However, errors by Casey and Danzig and Kinsella's wildness were responsible for at least four of the runs in the eighth inning.

It was the fourth straight victory over the Beavers and continued in the third inning and continued in the fourth. Casey, McCredie, Danzig and McFarland were the quartet to register for the northerners.

San Francisco tied the score in the fourth on three hits, a pass and an error. In the eighth Kinsella walked, Hildebrand and errors by Casey and Danzig populated the cushions. Then Kinsella got wild and cracked Curtie in the plate with a pitched ball, forcing Hildebrand across. Berry's timely double brought in three more runs. Willie's out placed Berry on third and the pitcher catcher scored on Kinsella's wild pitch. This was the fifth run of the chapter.

Jones started the game for the Seals, but was replaced by Salisbury in the fourth. Salisbury gave evidence of scoring skyward in the seventh and Vio Willis was sent to the post for the last lap. The score:

NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE

Spokane 3, Tacoma 2. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Spokane, Wash., July 4.—James' timely hit led to the eighth inning of yesterday's game decided one of the prettiest pitchers battles ever fought on the local grounds. Wright and Carson were in grand form and each received sensational support. Little Buster Bresino, the Tacoma shortstop, pulled Carson out of many a hole when by lightning steps and throws to the plate he cut off runs after run from the Indians. The score: R. H. E. Tacoma 2 0 0 0 0 0 2 5 1 Spokane 1 0 1 0 0 0 2 3 9 Batteries—Carson and Wright; McArthur, Empire, Ehret.

Tonopah's Fight Carnival. (United Press Leased Wire.) Tonopah, Nev., July 4.—The betting on tonight's 20-round fight between Jack Twain, Sullivan and Terry McManis is 10 to 7 in favor of the Twin. Sullivan's backers are betting even money that Mustain will be knocked out. Twain is a favorite over Dougherty for the preliminary. The town is full of people and seats are selling fast. It promises to be the best fight carnival ever put up in this camp.

WORLD'S GREATEST BASEBALL BATSMAN.

Since he began playing major league baseball in 1897, Hans Wagner, the marvelous Pittsburg player, has had a general batting average of .347. He recently made his two thousandth safe hit. This record is unique in baseball history. The picture shows Wagner at the bat. His great work with the stick and on the bases has done more than anything else to shove Pittsburg into first place in the percentage column of the national league. It is rumored something like $10,000 was paid Hans by Barney Dreyfuss to keep him in the game this season after he announced his retirement. It was money well spent.

KID SCALAR BLACKS SULLIVAN'S OPTIC

Now Gene Wants to Lick the Whole Gang—Squabble Over Gate Receipts. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Spokane, Wash., July 4.—Kid Scalar and Gene Sullivan, who fought a six-round draw here last week, are looking for each other with blood in their eyes. Scalar took a poke at Sullivan last night that left the Butte amateur with a shanty over his left peeper, and now Gene is wearing a bandage to hide the injured member and vowing he will get even.

It all happened over a division of the receipts of the match, which was Sullivan's first professional experience. Scalar declares that Kearns, the promoter, does not want to settle as was agreed upon and that the scraper is a loser by the fight. Scalar further asserts that Kearns is sore because Sullivan did not win the mill. On the other hand, Sullivan says that Scalar was looking for a laydown from him, and that he was wonderfully surprised when Sullivan waded in with numerous hard wallops to the Kid's head.

Sullivan wandered into the store where Scalar is employed last night and the two got into a heated discussion. It ended when Scalar landed on Sullivan's crotch right hard. Sullivan went off in a huff and declares he will fight Scalar, Kearns or anyone held off any of the rest of the gang at any time or place for money, marbles or chalk. Scalar comes right back and says he has $300 to put against every $250 Sullivan can show that he can put the Butte land out in 20 rounds.

Backers of each man are talking very much and unpleasantly about the other. Backing the scabber over the Kid is taken in at the door is liable to result in a whole bunch of fun for the fan who likes to pass up the talk but who loves to see the belligerents fight it out in the ring.

ANTI-RACING CROWD AFTER VERBAL WAGER

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, July 4.—The anti-racing contingent will not accept the ruling of Justice Bischoff that a verbal bet is legal, and they will carry the fight into a higher court. Acting District Attorney Elder, of Kings county, yesterday announced the decision to appeal from the supreme court to the appellate division. Governor Hughes has given it as his opinion that a verbal bet is just as much an infringement of the law as a regularly recorded wager, and it is understood that it is through his suggestion that the fight is being made.

FIGHT HOUSE IS WORTH $25,000

Both Men Give Statements Showing Their Extreme Confidence.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, July 4.—With every prospect of a $25,000 house all its ready for the second battle between Battling Nelson and Joe Gans this afternoon for the lightweight championship of the world. There is little prospect that the fight will last the 46 rounds and a majority of the fight fans look for Gans to put the Dane out within 20 rounds.

Nelson has never been knocked out and that is one reason why a fight with odds at 10 to 4 is attracting such widespread attention. The public wants to see if the little Dane can be knocked out. Then, too, this fight will settle the long string of arguments which followed the Gans-Nelson battle at Goldfield.

There will be no excuse this time. Both men will be in. They look in the best of condition. Gans slept late today at his camp at San Raphael and at 11 o'clock ate a light meal, which he will have until after the fight. He expects to arrive at the ring side shortly after 1 o'clock and will remain at his camp at Willetta place until just before the fight. The Dane weighed a little under 133 yesterday. Gans today said:

"Battling Nelson is in for a beating he will remember. I cannot map out my plan of action. It all depends on the Dane." Nelson said: "I have been waiting two years for another chance at Gans. It will be a different story this time. I am the best bet this city has seen in a long time."

LOCAL SPORTS BETTING HEAVILY ON BIG FIGHT

Betting on the fight locally has been brisk. Ed Schiller has handled already some $500 on the match and this will probably reach into the four figures before or immediately after the starting hour.

A popular bet is that the Dane will not last 20 rounds with the dusky champion and some $400 has been handled on this proposition. Bob Roberts, a well-known colored sport, is one of the heavy backers of Gans. Roberts has $300 up that he will not stay 20 rounds. This morning there was one $50 to $30, one $50 to $20 and one $50 to $25 on the general result.

AN M. D. ON KIDNEY DISEASE

Writing on kidney disease, the medical term for which is Nephritis, Dr. J. W. Chismond says in the "MEDICAL BRIEF": "In its incipency it is as curable as any malady that the system is heir to. True, it commonly gets well at first, but if it does not, it enters the second stage that was incurable up to the discovery of FULTON'S KIDNEY COMPOUND, which is the first thing known to reduce inflammation in kidney tissues. When does the second stage commence? Dr. Chismond says: 'DEVELOPS SO UNCONSCIOUSLY IT IS AS A RULE FAR ADVANCED BEFORE IT IS DISCOVERED.'"

In view of these acknowledged facts, people with kidney trouble should do some very serious thinking before taking futile kidney medicines under which the kidney deaths have risen to over 70 per cent. Even if it takes a long time to get relief, the inflammation is in the first stage, a course of futile medicine is delay that develops the very condition that Dr. Chismond says is irreparable, and that was irreparable up to the date of Fulton's beneficial discovery. If you have kidney trouble, either starting or seated, how can there be any question about your taking the only kidney specific for inflammation of the kidneys, which, incipient or chronic, is the real difficulty with kidney trouble?
