

(Continued From Page Two)

Mrs. John Watters Boothe, Who Was Miss Ethel Lytle.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

A delightful event of the week was at home given by Mrs. Edward S. Lamport and Mrs. H. M. Branson Thursday. The guest of honor was Mrs. J. J. Murphy, who for many years was a popular matron of Salem society, but is now living in Portland with her son, Chester G. Murphy. The hostesses were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Alice H. Dodd. The spacious home of Mrs. Lamport was a floral bower. Many flowers were sent in by Mrs. Murphy's friends. The reception hall and broad stair casings were hung with Indian baskets of white and pink France roses and foliage. The parlor was decorated with huge bunches of the same roses, and the library was massed with a profusion of crimson zambiers. The fine covered veranda made a cozy nook, in which Miss Grace Riseman served orange punch. Refreshments were served in the dining room. Miss Mildred Bagley and Miss Bertha Duncan gave piano solos. About 75 of Mrs. Murphy's old friends called during the afternoon, and each contributed to a page in the guest book presented to Mrs. Murphy.

for the efficient and dignified manner in which she had served the chapter during the year. At the close of the business session the hostess served delicious refreshments.

The Social Endeavor of Marquam Hill entertained Mr. and Mrs. James E. Rogers at Gaines Street Plaza last Monday evening in honor of their tenth wedding anniversary. A handsome crystal punch set was presented in a large tin receptacle, and the evening was delightfully passed in races and games. The Journal Carriers' band, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. David H. Smith, furnished music for the occasion and before their departure were given a hearty toast by all present. The grounds were beautifully decorated for the evening and delicious fruit punch was served to more than 60 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hare were hosts at a week end party last week at their farm near Hillsboro. About 25 Portland friends and a number from Hillsboro were present to enjoy their hospitality. After enjoying a drive through the beautiful farm the guests were entertained at the large dining-room, where a bountiful chicken dinner was served. Ice cream, cake and punch were served in the afternoon just before train time.

Miss Isabel Gauld entertained Wednesday evening at the Waverly Golf club with a pretty dance for the younger set. Miss Gauld has just returned for the summer from Smith college. About 60 of her young friends attended. Mrs. G. Gauld received with her daughter and Miss Beckie Biddle was with them. Serving tea and ices were Mrs. William S. Biddle, and Mrs. Patton of Fort Leavenworth, who is visiting her parents, General and Mrs. T. M. Anderson.

The Mizpah Social club met at the home of Mrs. Eva Lillian Haynes, Kern Park, Thursday. The meeting was held on the lawn and refreshments were served during the social hour. The club will meet with Mrs. Shultz, 1701 Base Line road, August 6. Those present were: Mrs. Greenwood, Mrs. Bramer, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Hayner, Mrs. Kapp, Mrs. Kinney, Mrs. Bondy, Mrs. Julian, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Shultz, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Kellogg, Mrs. Belding, Mrs. Shultz, Mrs. Lincoln and Mrs. Farrell.

Monday evening Dr. and Mrs. Holmes gave a reception at 481 Biggen street, to their daughter, Harriet, on the occasion of her fourteenth birthday. The house and lawn were beautifully decorated with red, white and blue Japanese lanterns and flowers. The guests were happily entertained with games, music and dancing. Fruit punch and ices were served at 11 o'clock. About 40 friends and schoolmates were present.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Voeth celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary entertaining a number of friends in their home, the Tamarack, Sixth and Madison streets. The lawn was decorated with Japanese lanterns and the home with pink roses and ivy. On the table were ivy and roses.

Mrs. Hans Hirschberger entertained informally Thursday afternoon at her residence on Portland Heights. The guests were Mrs. E. C. Protzman, Mrs. Charles T. Heasel of Arcata, Cal., Mrs. Inlay McNeill, Mrs. L. A. Strang, Mrs. O. A. Smith, Mrs. S. P. Lee and Mrs. C. A. Stuart.

Miss Georgia Tilden entertained Central W. C. T. U. Wednesday evening at her home with a lawn party. There was an entertaining program of music and Mrs. Ada Wallace Uhrig gave an address. Refreshments were served indoors. There was a large attendance.

There was a large crowd of people at the golf club last night dining and enjoying the fireworks in the evening. The Saturday night informals out there are among the most delightful events of the summer season.

Mrs. Everett Ames is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Edward Everett of Oakland, Cal. Mrs. Everett will spend the summer here and has been informally entertained.

G. A. Griswood, manager of the Falls City Lumber company, is entertaining a number of friends at Falls City with a week-end house party. Guests left here yesterday morning in three automobiles with the intention of returning tomorrow.

ing tomorrow. The company owns a pretty bungalow on the banks of the trout stream that has made Falls City famous. Mr. Griswood's guests are Mr. and Mrs. E. Harmon, the Misses Margaret and Meta Buehner, Miss Lillian Clark, Miss Celeste Moore, the Misses Lucille and Elizabeth Wooley, Miss Helen Harmon, and Wilson Clark, Maurice Dooley, John Banks, R. G. W. Ferguson, George Dekum and Henry Buehner.

MUSIC NOTES

Frank G. Eichenlaub received most flattering notices from the Astoria papers on his playing at the recent festival there. Mr. Eichenlaub is comparatively new yet to Portland and many who are interested in his success will be glad to read from the Astoria Herald the following:

"Frank G. Eichenlaub, the violin soloist of the evening, made a great hit. His quiet unassuming manner and his artistic handling of the instrument won the audience at once and he was repeatedly encored." And from the morning Astorian:

"Frank G. Eichenlaub, one of the musical leaders of Portland and a profound student of the violin, gave a number of superb themes in a manner that made him a host of warm admirers in Astoria. His mastery of the violin was acknowledged instantly and his treatment of the difficult and beautiful numbers left no sort of doubt in the popular mind as to his splendid abilities, recognition of which was instantaneous and generous."

William Wallace Graham presented several pupils in violin recital Tuesday evening at Eilers hall and they were greeted by a large audience. A number of the pupils distinguished themselves particularly. Miss Lenore Gregory played a Beethoven romanza in G major, which was full of technical difficulties. Pearl and Viola Verler attracted particular applause because of the quality of their work, and Theodore Payne deserves much commendation for the seriousness of his work. Ward Alden, the exceptionally clever boy, whom Maud Powell, praised so highly, played a Max Bruch romanza which showed again his fine temperament and muscular feeling, though his technique was somewhat clouded because of a swollen finger. The other players were Gertrude Eastabrook, Regina Shea, Mary Scholly, Ruth Plummer, Lois Ladd, Roxanna Womelschler and Mary Schultz. Miss Eva Benson was the accompanist.

Mrs. Olga Bartsch-Lang entertained the members of her B Sharp Sight Singing club at her home Monday evening. A musical program was given consisting of solos, duos and quartets. Refreshments were served, after which musical games were presented in a roomy and comfortable parlour. The members of the Misses B. L. Brown, Beale Douglas, Edith Gordon, Elva Dolan, A. J. Strong, May C. Wright, Gene Wilson, Elzear Lefier, Sadie Weston, Margaret Robertson, Irene Stokes, Martha Kleigol, Alice Banfield and Susie Hale, Mrs. L. G. Wilson, Mrs. Simmerville, L. G. Lenon.

E. McMullan, E. E. Wedemeyer, V. W. Bodley, O. Morgan, J. Robinson, M. Jacob, C. T. Weiss, F. E. KleinSmith, T. W. Robison. The club will resume study in September.

Miss Kathleen Lawler gave a recital last Saturday afternoon at Eilers hall. She presented 10 students in a very good program. Especially pleasing was the cantata, "The Garden of Flowers" (Dense), given by the Lyra club with Miss Ruby O'Brien and Miss Pearl Jennings as soloists. The club has 22 members and they are well trained and sing together harmoniously. Miss Hazel Hardie was one of the best soloists on the program and sang better than at any previous recital. The other singers were Miss Florence Evans, Miss Helen Abbott, Miss Leilaha Robie, Miss Hauke Belcher, Miss Lotta Hampton, Miss Nona Lawler and Miss Esther Olson. Miss Grace Kemp was the accompanist.

Irene Brandes is a clever child pianist, who is president of the Portland Junior Musical club and who gave successful recitals recently at Miss Grace Wilton's studio and at the Y. W. C. A. rooms in June. She is the daughter of C. A. Brandes, the county auditor, and is a student at the Portland school. Both children consider her music work most promising of a future.

Miss Daisy Small has returned home from Los Angeles to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. A. C. Small. Miss Small was formerly a pupil of Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer and her pretty voice attracted a good deal of attention. She has been appearing in Los Angeles in further voice study and has progressed markedly.

A piano recital was given by the pupils of Miss Bruce Wednesday afternoon at 148 East Sixteenth street. Miss Gene Miller assisted with a song. Ten pupils were presented in a well chosen program.

The students winning gold medals in Miss Grace Gilton's piano school for the greatest progress during the year were Marie Bandercock and Marie Driscoll. Both children studied with Miss Isabelle Beckwith during the past winter while Miss Wilton was in Europe.

PERSONAL

Miss Nellie Stubbs, supervisor of music in the city schools of Everett, Wash., is spending the summer at the home of her brother, Charles W. Stubbs, at 875 East Flanders street.

Mrs. Joseph Moore and family are occupying their cottage at Centerville, Long Beach, for the season. Miss Marguerite has as her guest Miss Vandermost.

Miss Grace Wilton left last week for Los Angeles and the southern coast for a much needed rest, after her year's study in Berlin, Germany. Miss Mabel Stout accompanied her.

Miss Mae Beatrice Dillman has returned from an enjoyable visit at Milton, Or., and Walla Walla, Wash.

Mrs. A. R. Schou and son of Seattle are visiting Mrs. Schou's aunt, Mrs. R. Abramson, 346 Thirteenth street.

A Scotch Eagle. From the Westminster Gazette. The other afternoon a full grown golden eagle was captured in Ross-shire under peculiar circumstances. Three surfmen were employed at a section of a new portion of the Highland line when they were attracted by the appearance of an eagle in a field three miles from Ardgay. On being approached the bird offered a fierce resistance with beak and talons. The men threw their jackets over it, one holding its head enveloped in the jacket while the others tied its legs. The bird was secured alive without much injury. It is 7 feet 1 inch from tip to tip of wings. Eagles, it is said, cannot rise from the ground owing to their immense spread of wings and comparatively short legs. They require "inaclets, boliders or steep precipices ere they can soar."

The police officers' wives will be entertained by Mrs. Harry Grice at her residence, 1428 Union avenue north, Wednesday next at 2 o'clock. Take Vancouver car.

invitation card only. Stiles' orchestra will play. The patronesses are Mrs. A. H. Whittet, Mrs. D. L. Houston, Mrs. W. A. Smith, Mrs. R. Schmeier, Mrs. F. S. Fields and Mrs. A. L. Runney. The O. E. S. girls are Miss Emma M. Howatson, Miss Josephine Stapleton, Miss Mable Beckett, Miss Charlotte Ballin, Miss Louise Philpott, Miss Edith Schmeier, Miss Beas Houston, Miss Ruth Ballin, Miss Eva Fanning, Miss Gertrude Ballin and Miss Margaret Howatson.

AFRICAN ELAND AND ITS HABITS

The following information concerning the eland, or Cape elk, and the experiments proposed for its domestication, is furnished by Edwin S. Cunningham of Durban, Natal:

The eland, one of the largest species of antelope, is indigenous to South Africa, and its flesh is considered to be the best of all venisons. It is fast, dainty, either by domesticating or by attempting to preserve this noble animal upon reserves, will be gladly welcomed by all lovers of animals. It can be raised at a profit, as it can be trained to serve a useful purpose. In the eland the heaviest and most powerful of the African buck, is found a type lending itself to domestication, and offering not only the advantage of virtual impunity from the commoner stock diseases, but also good beefing and working qualities. Little difficulty is experienced in the capture of this beast in open country, and it has been proved to thrive in captivity, rapidly becoming docile and tractable. The rapid multiplication of the buck under the partial protection afforded in the Giant's Castle Game reserve, and the need for limiting the size of the herd, affords an opportunity for the conduct of a similar experiment in Natal, and steps are being taken to secure and train a limited number of animals during the coming winter. It will further be possible to definitely determine the degree of immunity enjoyed from, or resistance offered to, the various cattle diseases, with the ultimate object of their utilization in the work of preventive inoculation. It need hardly be added that the finest of the eland has always been regarded as the best game meat in South Africa, that of the old males being loaded with fat, while the hide is of much value for leather.

Pulpit in Railway Station.
From Tit-Bits.
Travelers who enter Shrewsbury by the Abbey Foregate station can scarcely fail to observe one of the most remarkable features to be seen at any railway station in the world. This is a pulpit. It stands prominently above the coal wagons and miscellaneous goods trucks of the station yard, an ancient stone structure, to which access is gained by an equally ancient flight of stone steps. This pulpit is the only remaining fragment of the domestic buildings of the once great and powerful Abbey of Shrewsbury. In the olden days it stood in the monks' refectory and was used for preaching from and for reading lessons while the monks ate their frugal meals.

proached the bird offered a fierce resistance with beak and talons. The men threw their jackets over it, one holding its head enveloped in the jacket while the others tied its legs. The bird was secured alive without much injury. It is 7 feet 1 inch from tip to tip of wings. Eagles, it is said, cannot rise from the ground owing to their immense spread of wings and comparatively short legs. They require "inaclets, boliders or steep precipices ere they can soar."

PERSONAL

Miss Nellie Stubbs, supervisor of music in the city schools of Everett, Wash., is spending the summer at the home of her brother, Charles W. Stubbs, at 875 East Flanders street.

Mrs. Joseph Moore and family are occupying their cottage at Centerville, Long Beach, for the season. Miss Marguerite has as her guest Miss Vandermost.

Miss Grace Wilton left last week for Los Angeles and the southern coast for a much needed rest, after her year's study in Berlin, Germany. Miss Mabel Stout accompanied her.

Miss Mae Beatrice Dillman has returned from an enjoyable visit at Milton, Or., and Walla Walla, Wash.

Mrs. A. R. Schou and son of Seattle are visiting Mrs. Schou's aunt, Mrs. R. Abramson, 346 Thirteenth street.

A Scotch Eagle. From the Westminster Gazette. The other afternoon a full grown golden eagle was captured in Ross-shire under peculiar circumstances. Three surfmen were employed at a section of a new portion of the Highland line when they were attracted by the appearance of an eagle in a field three miles from Ardgay. On being approached the bird offered a fierce resistance with beak and talons. The men threw their jackets over it, one holding its head enveloped in the jacket while the others tied its legs. The bird was secured alive without much injury. It is 7 feet 1 inch from tip to tip of wings. Eagles, it is said, cannot rise from the ground owing to their immense spread of wings and comparatively short legs. They require "inaclets, boliders or steep precipices ere they can soar."

proached the bird offered a fierce resistance with beak and talons. The men threw their jackets over it, one holding its head enveloped in the jacket while the others tied its legs. The bird was secured alive without much injury. It is 7 feet 1 inch from tip to tip of wings. Eagles, it is said, cannot rise from the ground owing to their immense spread of wings and comparatively short legs. They require "inaclets, boliders or steep precipices ere they can soar."

PERSONAL

Miss Nellie Stubbs, supervisor of music in the city schools of Everett, Wash., is spending the summer at the home of her brother, Charles W. Stubbs, at 875 East Flanders street.

Mrs. Joseph Moore and family are occupying their cottage at Centerville, Long Beach, for the season. Miss Marguerite has as her guest Miss Vandermost.

Miss Grace Wilton left last week for Los Angeles and the southern coast for a much needed rest, after her year's study in Berlin, Germany. Miss Mabel Stout accompanied her.

Miss Mae Beatrice Dillman has returned from an enjoyable visit at Milton, Or., and Walla Walla, Wash.

Mrs. A. R. Schou and son of Seattle are visiting Mrs. Schou's aunt, Mrs. R. Abramson, 346 Thirteenth street.

A Scotch Eagle. From the Westminster Gazette. The other afternoon a full grown golden eagle was captured in Ross-shire under peculiar circumstances. Three surfmen were employed at a section of a new portion of the Highland line when they were attracted by the appearance of an eagle in a field three miles from Ardgay. On being approached the bird offered a fierce resistance with beak and talons. The men threw their jackets over it, one holding its head enveloped in the jacket while the others tied its legs. The bird was secured alive without much injury. It is 7 feet 1 inch from tip to tip of wings. Eagles, it is said, cannot rise from the ground owing to their immense spread of wings and comparatively short legs. They require "inaclets, boliders or steep precipices ere they can soar."

Remember Your Wants

In fancy work before leaving town for your vacation. Remember our shop is devoted exclusively to needlework and that we have the largest stock of novelties in the United States. Sounds like a boast, but we can prove it the truth; call and let us show you.

SPECIAL FOR THIS WEEK

Stamped Nightgowns, kimono style, on finest grade French cambric, complete with floss to embroider; regular value $2.25, THIS WEEK ONLY $1.50

NOTE—Our mail order patrons may select any patterns from catalogue at this price.

IMPORTANT—No orders filled after July 12.

THE NEEDLECRAFT SHOPS

382 WASHINGTON ST., PORTLAND
270 North Commercial St., Salem Shell Road, Seaside

Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday Friday Saturday

Carpets and Rugs

Bought at 33 per cent discount

Buffets and China Closets

Bought at 50c on the dollar

Carpets and Rugs

Bought at 33 Per cent Discount

We bought $82,000 worth of Carpets at 33 per cent discount during the famous auction sale of Alexander Smith & Sons in New York, when $8,000,000 worth of Carpets went to the highest bidders. "Bought well, sell well," is always true. Come early. First carload is in.

Being Overstocked

H. JENNINGS & SONS

Home of Good Furniture—Prices Always Lowest
MORRISON and SECOND STREETS

Every Day This Week

You Can Buy Furniture and Carpets at Great Big Genuine Reductions

Buffets and China Closets

Bought at 50c on the dollar

Buffets and China Closets

Bought at 50 Cents on the Dollar

From the bankrupt stock

Of Skinner & Steenman of Grand Rapids, manufacturers on a large scale of buffets and other dining-room furniture of the very finest grades. This concern went under because it manufactured too fine goods for the market. This is indeed an exceptional opportunity to secure just what you need at figures below bedrock.

Other carloads of furniture coming in daily is fast overstocking us. Radical reductions must be made in order to get rid of the surplus stock. We have on hand an immense stock of the very latest conceits and novelties in SUMMER FURNITURE.

Oregon chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, held its annual meeting for the election of officers at the home of Mrs. C. J. Allen, 235 Halley street, last Friday afternoon. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. George H. Stovall; first vice-president, Mrs. J. Allen; second vice-president, Mrs. Daniel Estler; secretary, Mrs. Sylvia W. McGuire; corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. Lee; historian, Mrs. Preston Smith; custodian of the crosses, Mrs. N. H. Duff; a sister vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. Stovall.