

NOW FOR THE WIND-UP--PRICES ARE CUT STILL DEEPER

Partners disagree and lose their location. Both clamoring for money. The stock must be sold before 10 p. m. Saturday, July 11. The store will pass out of existence on that date forever. Any reasonable offer in either men's or women's department will be accepted. Buy goods at your own prices.

DISSOLUTION SALE

At the ANNEX Entire Corner 5th and Alder

WHAT'S LEFT OF THE ENTIRE STOCK OF THE ANNEX at 10c, 20c and 30c ON THE DOLLAR

A sale that will startle the mercantile world from center to circumference. More terrific price-cutting. More sensational reductions. Only four more days of this tremendous sacrifice, and they are to be the greatest of all. The entire stock going at 10, 20 and 30 cents on the dollar—at prices that beggar description and stagger belief. Join the crowds. Be here tomorrow.

It's a sacrifice utterly without precedent in Portland's mercantile history. The entire Annex stock goes. Absolutely everything included—nothing reserved. Cost and value are utterly ignored in this imperative slaughter, for we must vacate our premises on July 11. Fixtures for sale.
