OSCAR JONES' HOODS BORED

Big Time for Guests at Vaughn Street Wake Yesterday Afternoon.

We laid them gently down to rest beneath the surface green; their hair was as smooth as the best that Webster's ever seen.

Well, a big bunch of us, including Tom Richardson, Elmer Colwell, Billy Pangle and Chuck Anderson, attended the much advertised wake at Vaughn street yesterday afternoon and came away disappointed. We heard that Oscar Jones intended burying his hood out we didn't expect held it before our very eyes.

Marshall Elected Chairman. Reapote Marshall was prominent at the wake, in fact he towered above the others. Well, Reapote was made master of ceremonies at the start and he arranged his program thusly: Kid Moller was first called upon and he responded with a neat speech two lines in length.
