Committee Adopts Bryan's Program - No Corporation Coin; $10,000 Limit; Full Publicity-Notification Time and Place.

By John E. Nevins. (United Press Leased Wire.) Fairview Farm, Lincoln, Neb., July 14.—The national Democratic committee today adopted the suggestion of William J. Bryan that the ceremonies attending his nomination be held at Fairview farm on August 12.

It was determined that the notification of John W. Kern of the vice-presidential nomination shall take place in Indianapolis at a date yet to be fixed. Bryan addressed the committee on the subject of the contribution clause of the campaign, and Mr. Kern was in sympathy with the pledge. In part he said: "As it is our earnest desire for the party to make good the pledge, we ask you to put the plank into immediate operation. This can be accomplished by the adoption by your committee of a resolution providing that the committee will not accept any contribution from any individual in excess of a reasonable amount. The committee shall make public before the election all contributions above a reasonable minimum. I would suggest your approval of $10,000 as the maximum sum to be accepted and $100 as the minimum to be published. I would suggest that on or before October 15 all contributions of more than $100 received up to that time be published and that after that date all such contributions be published on the day they are received. It would be well not to receive any contribution of more than $100 within three days of the election. The committee thereupon adopted a resolution embodying the suggestions of Bryan.

The question of the selection of officers for the national committee, upon motion of Hall of Nebraska, was left to subcommittees to be composed of the following members: Targart, Hall, Mack, Osborn, Greene, Ryan, Daniels, Wade and Tomlinson. On motion of Cummings, it was decided that a full statement of the campaign expenditures shall be published within a reasonable time after the election, not to exceed 30 days. After this the committee adjourned for business.

The sub-committee which will select the campaign manager and other officers will meet in Chicago, July 25, at which time the name of the manager will be announced. Daniels of North Carolina, was elected secretary of the sub-committee.

SHRINERS MARCH IN ST. PAUL'S STREETS

(United Press Leased Wire.) St. Paul, July 14.—After being entertained for 48 hours with the best of everything the city affords, nobles of the Mystic Shrine today settled down to the duties of the day. The ceremony commenced this morning, will be closed tomorrow and then the visitors will devote the rest of their visit to merry-making. Dressed in their gayest raiment the visitors today marched through gorgeously decorated streets to the cathedral, in which the Imperial council of the ancient Shrin order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine met for the opening. Keeping step to the tuneful music of many hands, the nobles made an imposing spectacle.

HURRY IF YOU WISH DRAUGHTSMAN JOB

Tomorrow is the last day for applicants to file with the city civil service commission for the examination for draughtsmen in the city of Portland. There are three vacancies and the examination will be held Thursday, July 23, at which time inspectors of streets will be examined. There are four other vacancies to be filled in this department.

DIABETES

We have the following unsolicited letter from Mrs. J. Douglas, Harrisburg, Oregon, June 25, 1908. John J. Fulton Co. Oakland, Cal. Gentlemen: I have had Diabetes for over two years and was almost in a very weak condition. I had a friend of mine told me of the Fulton Diabetes Compound, and I have now taken thirty bottles and am feeling fine. I can say that I am sure if I had not gotten relief in some way I would now have been under the sod. Hence, I can speak for your compound. It did the work for me. What will you charge me for three dozen?

Your respectfully, JAMES T. DOUGLAS.

Another name mail brought a letter from E. B. Drake, the druggist in Blacksville, S. C., from which we quote: "I have had a customer who had Diabetes in its worst stages. I have given him out of bed on the Diabetes Compound and have run out. Send duplicate of last order."

Diabetes is rated the world over as incurable, but recoveries are being reported daily through Fulton's Diabetic Compound. You will naturally ask how it is possible for a person to recover under the Fulton treatment when medical text books admit they have nothing to offer.

Let us say in reply that when the late John J. Fulton discovered he had Bright's Disease and that the text books had no specific for inflammation of the kidneys, which was the real difficulty, he set out in a new direction to solve an eminent that would reduce inflammation in the kidneys disease. He worked it out and inflammation of the kidneys all along the line from kidney stones to specific for inflammation of the chronic forms, is now curable in about 50 per cent of all cases.

Diabetes took it upon the theory that it was an impairment of functions that are closely related to the urinary processes. It ought to get results in that trouble, too.

It did, but much more slowly than in another kidney trouble. This led to a modification of the treatment for Diabetes, with the result that Diabetes is curable in about 75 per cent of all cases in people of middle age and upward. (Kidney disease commonly responds in all ages.)

For Diabetes, ask for Fulton's Diabetic Compound.

Sheldon Drug Co., 351 Third street, has our only local agents. Ask for Fulton's Diabetic Compound.

Now that a new courthouse is a possibility of the near future, talk is being heard that the east side will lay claim to the location for the new building. East sideers have for some time argued that they are entitled to the prestige that comes from the location of some of the public institutions. With the balance of population constantly growing in favor of the east side, this argument is likely to be applied to the courthouse.

Against this idea the west side will place the fact that the offices of the lawyers are mostly on the west side and that would an unnatural thing to do. It put the courthouse on the east side of the river. The fact that the city already owns a fine block only a block or two distant from the city hall is also cited, the tendency in many places being to group the city and county buildings as far as possible.

If the matter were to come to a showdown under the referendum there is no question but that the east side would have the votes to locate the courthouse as it pleased. At the June election, the total vote of the east side was 13,878 and of the west side 9,783, a majority of 3,780. The county vote footed up 2,977, and a large slice of this is likely to be before long adding to the preponderance of the east side.

It is not likely, however, that the east side will be agreed on where the structure should be, if located on that side of the river. The vicinity of East Morrison and Grand avenue is most frequently mentioned thus far as a central location where all elements might meet.

Discussion in the last few days of a plan for a new building appears to localize on a tax levy for two successive years. The cost of such a structure will provide $500,000 in round figures, which it is thought would be enough to provide a creditable structure of the steel frame type. This would not impose a heavy burden on the taxpayer, divided between two years.

EXTENDED FIRE LIMITS IN SUPPORT OF DOBSON

The initial move to extend the fire limits on the east side and at the same time back up Building Inspector Dobson in his fight against any violation of this ordinance was made this afternoon when members of the East Side Business Men's club asked Mr. Dobson to recommend to the city council that certain fire limits be extended.

The limits now only reach to 100 feet south of Hawthorne avenue and the east side club members want it extended to Clay street and to the middle line of East Sixth street. Where the limit now only reaches to 50 feet east of Grand avenue, they want it extended to the north side of Couch street.

The district on the east side bounded by East Second street, the river, Oak and Couch streets, now outside the fire limits, is also included to come within the fire limit jurisdiction, according to the ordinance made to Mr. Dobson this afternoon.

The agitation is said to have been started by the result of the erection of a frame building by Senator Nottingham and in the efforts of the club members to back up the building inspector who has been opposed to the action taken by Nottingham.

Mr. Dobson and V. C. Dunning, representing the club members, will visit the proposed districts this afternoon, and if Mr. Dobson sees fit he will later call on the city council to recommend that the request of the business men of the east side be granted.

BOY DECISION GREAT VICTORY FOR PORTLAND

With the winning of the McKenna suit by the city before the supreme court today every obstacle that has stood in the way of the city going ahead and selling its public improvements bonds is overcome and unprogressive citizens will no longer be able to keep Portland from making the improvements that have been so long needed.

In addition to what it means for the city as a whole, it is a great personal victory for City Attorney J. F. Kavanaugh, it having been by far the most important suit that the city has had to fight for years. Mr. Kavanaugh has worked on the case himself from early till late, and the case was regarded by the public as a hopeless one from the city's point of view.

It is a fact that the city attorney's office was able to save the bond issue means that municipally Portland will continue to go ahead, not backward, and there was general rejoicing and a great deal of praise for City Attorney Kavanaugh on every hand today.

LIST OF OWNERS HOTEL MEN MAY RACE GRAND JURY

The case of Willis Horton, night clerk at the Merchant's hotel, and Will Coffey, dishwasher at that place, charged with the robbery of Patrick Joyce, was this morning taken under advisement by Judge Van Zante.

At the preliminary hearing of these men their attorneys sought to show that the witnesses for the state, Lloyd C. Ross, the helboy of the Merchant, and his wife, was not sufficient to warrant the men being bound over to the grand jury.

Ross and his wife went on the stand and testified substantially to the same facts that they had admitted in their confessions to the detectives before the trial.

Coffey went on the stand and denied that he had robbed Joyce. His story was that he had been in the hotel at the time of the robbery, but he did not receive much credit by any one who heard it. He at first said he was not a man who spent much money. He said he had saved the money from his wages for a month, but the district attorney made him admit that he had but $10 on the Grand Nelson fight.

At the conclusion of the testimony the defense made a plea that the prisoners be released on the grounds of uncorroborated evidence and uncorroborated character. Judge Van Zante will decide tomorrow morning whether or not Horton and Coffey will be bound over to the grand jury.

BROTHERS' ROW IS AIRED IN COURT

Charges of ingratitude of brother to brother were bandied about in the circuit court this morning in a hearing before Judge O'Day in which an effort is being made to overturn the decision of N. A. Peary regarding the accounts of H. Hessian, W. A. Hessian and C. D. Hessian. Peary was appointed by Judge O'Day some time ago to hear testimony and decide the case as referred.

The Hessians were interested in a livery business. W. A. Hessian after a time became dissatisfied with his brother as a conductor of the business, and in November they quarreled. W. A. Hessian then brought suit, claiming that about $2,000 was due him. C. D. Hessian came back with a counter claim for $1,000. Peary decided that C. D. Hessian is entitled to $447 from his brother.

The matter came up this morning on objections to the report of the referee. It resulted in a vigorous fight on both sides, arguing all morning and Judge O'Day took the case under advisement.

HONEST MAN GIVES OWNER A CHANCE

A dispute over the ownership of a gold coin, picked up from the floor of the premises of Eddy & Ledor at 754 Thurman street, has found its way to the county clerk's office. Arthur G. Andrus, who found the coin, has filed a statement of the fact, in compliance with the Oregon law regarding the finding of lost money. When he picked it up a man who saw the act had claim to it, when Andrus asked him to tell the value of the coin, the man made a wrong guess. So Andrus held onto it, and the other fellow will have to give a better proof. If no one succeeds in proving ownership, one half goes to the finder and the other half to the county treasurer, after all the costs are paid.

DAVIDOR SUES THE CHAMPION COMPANY

S. V. Davidor has begun suit in the circuit court against the Champion Group Mining company for $16,752 alleged to be due on loans and notes. He alleges that he loaned the company $1,252 for the purchase and lease of property in Siskiyou county, California, and that in October, 1904, there were given in different denominations aggregating the sum sued for.

HOLLAND ELECTED RULER OF ELKS

(United Press Leased Wire.) Dallas, Texas, July 14.—Rush L. Holland of Colorado Springs was elected grand exalted ruler of the B. P. O. E. this afternoon.

All other officers in the grand lodge were re-elected. Thirty-five thousand persons attended the old-fashioned barbecue served to the Elks today.

District Attorney Threatens an Investigation - Hot Words Exchanged Regarding Size of the Bond Which Gave Liberty.

The disappearance of Don Hoaglin a second time when he was supposed by the district attorney and Mrs. Lola O. Baldwin, who had Hoaglin arrested, to be in jail under $1,000 bonds awaiting his trial, has caused Mrs. Baldwin to express her suspicion regarding the handling of the case.

Not only has Hoaglin disappeared, but the complaint and bond have disappeared. He was released from the county jail Saturday, when his father furnished $100 bonds, and the clerk failed to inform the district attorney of the fact. The first time Hoaglin was arrested several months ago the same thing took place. He was let loose and the bond and complaint were never heard of. The clerk's office knew nothing of the matter.

Mrs. Baldwin had been given to understand by District Attorney Cameron that Hoaglin's bonds would be placed so high that he could not possibly get away, and the police department's woman's auxiliary chief had trusted to Judge Cameron to produce Hoaglin. The fact that Hoaglin was released from the jail until this morning, when he was asked why he had allowed Hoaglin to go, was a surprise.

Then followed a stormy interview between Miller and the district attorney, in which the clerk told Mr. Cameron that Hoaglin was running the police force and that he would get away at whatever figure he pleased. Regardless of advice from the district attorney, Mrs. Baldwin is charged with having allowed Hoaglin to escape.

A profuse floral tribute showed the esteem in which the departed citizen instructor and Mason, was held by those who knew him, the casket being banked with flowers. According to the wishes of the family, services, both in the cathedral and at the grave, were of the simplest character, being the burial service of the Congregational church and of the Masonic order.

Owing to the prominence of the deceased, the various Masonic orders of the city took part in the services. The honorary pallbearers were chosen from among the list of thirty-third degree officers and were as follows: G. A. Dolph, John McCracken, J. W. Cook, P. S. Malcolm, B. G. Whitehouse, Joseph Simon, Jacob Bauer, Seth St. Pope, and Judge O. C. George. The active pallbearers were from the list of past masters of Portland lodge No. 55, of which the deceased was a member, and were as follows: Louis G. Clarke, H. L. Pitcock, Frank H. Lewis, Henry Roe, Boyer, and William C. Mackay. James E. Robinson and Archie Thurlow.

The survivors of the deceased are two sisters and one brother living in the east.

Professor M. L. Pratt, for 20 years the principal of the Williams Avenue school, died this morning at his home at 1000 Commercial street. He was a son of a former wife, Professor M. L. Pratt, for the past 26 years, and is well known as a prominent member of the public school system of the city.

REMEMBER, NO GROCERIES CAN BE BOUGHT TOMORROW

Today is the last day for buying groceries—until day after tomorrow. At 5:30 tomorrow morning the annual picnic of the Portland Retail Grocers' association will commence with the leaving of the trains for Bonneville on the Columbia river, where the picnic proper is to be held. There are more than 2,000 people going and with the promise of good weather given today, Mrs. Baldwin is charged with being the most successful ever held by the grocers' association.

WIFE OF SENATOR MILLER'S DEAD

Mrs. M. A. Miller of Lebanon, wife of Senator M. A. Miller of Linn county, died this morning at her home after an illness of several months' duration. Word was received this morning of Mrs. Miller's death by Portland friends.

Mrs. Miller has been ill for some time with a cancerous growth and recently her condition had become so serious that she was taken to the hospital. After the operation it was thought that the condition of the patient was such that an ultimate recovery would be possible but the disease had taken too firm a hold to be defeated.

Senator Miller was a delegate to the national Democratic convention where he was elected national committeeman for Oregon. He was called home at the rest of his delegation by the illness of Mrs. Miller and was at her bedside when she died.

Because of Mrs. Miller's death, which was made known to George H. Thomas, this morning it has been concluded to postpone the Democratic ratification meeting planned for tomorrow night out of respect for Senator Miller and his bereavement.

VIOLATED TEN HOUR LAW, FINED EIGHTEEN GIRLS IN WADING CONTEST

Because the East Side laundry at East Ash and Sixth streets worked its women employees longer than 10 hours in a day, Labor Commissioner O. P. Hoff hailed the proprietors into the federal court, and his court imposed a fine of $25 for having violated the law.

This is the first conviction to be had under the law since the recent decision by the United States supreme court, which declared that it was unlawful for women to be worked more than 10 hours in one day. This decision was the result of a suit brought against a Portland laundry service by the Portland Association of the Laundrymen's association filed to the state supreme court and then to the United States supreme court. The suit was brought under the administration of District Attorney Manning and was fought through all the state courts up to the United States supreme court by Bert Haney, he preparing the brief upon which it was submitted to the highest tribunal.

The interesting item of the conviction is the fact that the first case to test the law was started by the violation of a laundry, while the first conviction after the final decision was also the infraction of a laundry.

STATE SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

(United Press Leased Wire.) Salem, July 14.—Beside the cases of F. J. McKenna versus the city of Portland, which was reversed by Chief Justice Bean, the following decisions were handed down by the supreme court today:

Quartz Gold Mining company vs. C. A. Peterson, motion for dismissal denied by court.

William M. Manning vs. Portland Shubert, affirmed in an opinion by Justice Eakin.

George W. Fredericks vs. Antonio Knauer, affirmed in an opinion by Justice Eakin.

E. F. Hatten and others, appealed from a decision by Judge A. L. Fraser in Multnomah county, affirmed in an opinion by Justice Eakin.

I. N. Maxwell vs. P. L. Fraser and Fred Hurst, appealed from a decision by Judge George W. Latta in Marion county, reversed in an opinion by Justice Eakin.

Petition for rehearing in the case of M. C. Lacompton vs. Water Power & Electric company, denied.

WALLA WALLA FOR ONCE IS DEMOCRATIC

(United Press Leased Wire.) Walla Walla, Wash., July 14.—Walla Walla woke up today to find that for the first time in 18 years it had elected a Democrat to the city of Walla Walla. The majority is concerned, Eugene T. Bennett, Democrat, by a vote of 1,400 to 1,000. This is the largest majority ever recorded in Walla Walla history. Mr. Bennett, a Republican, was elected mayor over the Republican majority of 700. McKenna defeated the Democrat, Mr. Bennett, after a fierce scrap. He was knifed hard by the Ankeny men in the ward.

Both candidates for mayor were councilmen. Toussick is at the head of several big manufacturing concerns in Walla Walla.

Mike Davis was re-elected chief of police. Dixon was re-elected, Democrat, elected street commissioner over H. C. Crumpton, and C. H. Cummings, Democrat, defeated A. Dunham, Republican, for councilman, third ward.

LAND CROOK IS EXPECTED HERE TONIGHT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) LA Grande, Or., July 14.—E. G. Cooke, the alleged swindler arrested in Baker City, will probably return to Portland tonight in charge of Clyde Nicholson, deputy United States marshal. The Elmira, N. Y., people gave their addresses as Baker City when filing at the land office here. Cooke's name does not appear on any of the filings. There were only about 30 New Yorkers that filed.

Locators seemed careless about the land obtained. If the claim selected was gone, they picked from the map at random and filed. Nearly all took square quarter sections. The timber lies in Grant county.

Will Make Another Effort to Fly 24 Hours for Grand Prize.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Berlin, July 14.—Count Zeppelin, who started his monster dirigible balloon from Lake Constance today in an effort to win the $500,000 prize by staying in the air 24 hours, was forced to descend after a flight lasting less than three hours.

His flight started with every prospect of great success. The air monster rose gracefully and quickly began traveling at a terrific rate of speed, evidently under perfect control. For 41 minutes Count Zeppelin maintained a speed of 70 miles an hour and for two hours he traveled at the rate of 60 miles an hour. His flight was wrong, with the machinery and he was forced to abandon the trip. He brought the airship to the ground and will make another test tomorrow.

All Germany is interested in the flights of Count Zeppelin, as the airship craze has swept the whole country.

Regardless of advice from the district attorney, Mrs. Baldwin is charged with having allowed Hoaglin to escape.

A profuse floral tribute showed the esteem in which the departed citizen instructor and Mason, was held by those who knew him, the casket being banked with flowers. According to the wishes of the family, services, both in the cathedral and at the grave, were of the simplest character, being the burial service of the Congregational church and of the Masonic order.

Owing to the prominence of the deceased, the various Masonic orders of the city took part in the services. The honorary pallbearers were chosen from among the list of thirty-third degree officers and were as follows: G. A. Dolph, John McCracken, J. W. Cook, P. S. Malcolm, B. G. Whitehouse, Joseph Simon, Jacob Bauer, Seth St. Pope, and Judge O. C. George. The active pallbearers were from the list of past masters of Portland lodge No. 55, of which the deceased was a member, and were as follows: Louis G. Clarke, H. L. Pitcock, Frank H. Lewis, Henry Roe, Boyer, and William C. Mackay. James E. Robinson and Archie Thurlow.

The survivors of the deceased are two sisters and one brother living in the east.

Professor M. L. Pratt, for 20 years the principal of the Williams Avenue school, died this morning at his home at 1000 Commercial street. He was a son of a former wife, Professor M. L. Pratt, for the past 26 years, and is well known as a prominent member of the public school system of the city.

WIFE OF SENATOR MILLER'S DEAD

Mrs. M. A. Miller of Lebanon, wife of Senator M. A. Miller of Linn county, died this morning at her home after an illness of several months' duration. Word was received this morning of Mrs. Miller's death by Portland friends.

Mrs. Miller has been ill for some time with a cancerous growth and recently her condition had become so serious that she was taken to the hospital. After the operation it was thought that the condition of the patient was such that an ultimate recovery would be possible but the disease had taken too firm a hold to be defeated.

Senator Miller was a delegate to the national Democratic convention where he was elected national committeeman for Oregon. He was called home at the rest of his delegation by the illness of Mrs. Miller and was at her bedside when she died.

Because of Mrs. Miller's death, which was made known to George H. Thomas, this morning it has been concluded to postpone the Democratic ratification meeting planned for tomorrow night out of respect for Senator Miller and his bereavement.

VIOLATED TEN HOUR LAW, FINED EIGHTEEN GIRLS IN WADING CONTEST

Because the East Side laundry at East Ash and Sixth streets worked its women employees longer than 10 hours in a day, Labor Commissioner O. P. Hoff hailed the proprietors into the federal court, and his court imposed a fine of $25 for having violated the law.

This is the first conviction to be had under the law since the recent decision by the United States supreme court, which declared that it was unlawful for women to be worked more than 10 hours in one day. This decision was the result of a suit brought against a Portland laundry service by the Portland Association of the Laundrymen's association filed to the state supreme court and then to the United States supreme court. The suit was brought under the administration of District Attorney Manning and was fought through all the state courts up to the United States supreme court by Bert Haney, he preparing the brief upon which it was submitted to the highest tribunal.

The interesting item of the conviction is the fact that the first case to test the law was started by the violation of a laundry, while the first conviction after the final decision was also the infraction of a laundry.

STATE SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

(United Press Leased Wire.) Salem, July 14.—Beside the cases of F. J. McKenna versus the city of Portland, which was reversed by Chief Justice Bean, the following decisions were handed down by the supreme court today:

WALLA WALLA FOR ONCE IS DEMOCRATIC

(United Press Leased Wire.) Walla Walla, Wash., July 14.—Walla Walla woke up today to find that for the first time in 18 years it had elected a Democrat to the city of Walla Walla. The majority is concerned, Eugene T. Bennett, Democrat, by a vote of 1,400 to 1,000. This is the largest majority ever recorded in Walla Walla history. Mr. Bennett, a Republican, was elected mayor over the Republican majority of 700. McKenna defeated the Democrat, Mr. Bennett, after a fierce scrap. He was knifed hard by the Ankeny men in the ward.

Both candidates for mayor were councilmen. Toussick is at the head of several big manufacturing concerns in Walla Walla.

Mike Davis was re-elected chief of police. Dixon was re-elected, Democrat, elected street commissioner over H. C. Crumpton, and C. H. Cummings, Democrat, defeated A. Dunham, Republican, for councilman, third ward.

LAND CROOK IS EXPECTED HERE TONIGHT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) LA Grande, Or., July 14.—E. G. Cooke, the alleged swindler arrested in Baker City, will probably return to Portland tonight in charge of Clyde Nicholson, deputy United States marshal. The Elmira, N. Y., people gave their addresses as Baker City when filing at the land office here. Cooke's name does not appear on any of the filings. There were only about 30 New Yorkers that filed.

Locators seemed careless about the land obtained. If the claim selected was gone, they picked from the map at random and filed. Nearly all took square quarter sections. The timber lies in Grant county.

OHIO PROHIBS NINE WATKINS GOVERNOR

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Columbus, Ohio, July 14.—The Ohio state prohibition convention has concluded its work by nominating a full state ticket. Its candidate for governor is Astor, Ohio.

ZEPPIN STAYS SHOTS HIMSELF AS MOB RAGES WILL GEAR UP COOLS

Will Make Another Effort to Fly 24 Hours for Grand Prize.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Berlin, July 14.—Count Zeppelin, who started his monster dirigible balloon from Lake Constance today in an effort to win the $500,000 prize by staying in the air 24 hours, was forced to descend after a flight lasting less than three hours.

His flight started with every prospect of great success. The air monster rose gracefully and quickly began traveling at a terrific rate of speed, evidently under perfect control. For 41 minutes Count Zeppelin maintained a speed of 70 miles an hour and for two hours he traveled at the rate of 60 miles an hour. His flight was wrong, with the machinery and he was forced to abandon the trip. He brought the airship to the ground and will make another test tomorrow.

All Germany is interested in the flights of Count Zeppelin, as the airship craze has swept the whole country.

District Attorney Threatens an Investigation - Hot Words Exchanged Regarding Size of the Bond Which Gave Liberty.

The disappearance of Don Hoaglin a second time when he was supposed by the district attorney and Mrs. Lola O. Baldwin, who had Hoaglin arrested, to be in jail under $1,000 bonds awaiting his trial, has caused Mrs. Baldwin to express her suspicion regarding the handling of the case.

Not only has Hoaglin disappeared, but the complaint and bond have disappeared. He was released from the county jail Saturday, when his father furnished $100 bonds, and the clerk failed to inform the district attorney of the fact. The first time Hoaglin was arrested several months ago the same thing took place. He was let loose and the bond and complaint were never heard of. The clerk's office knew nothing of the matter.

Mrs. Baldwin had been given to understand by District Attorney Cameron that Hoaglin's bonds would be placed so high that he could not possibly get
