HONOLULU WELCOMES WARSHIPS

Battleships Greeted With Wild Enthusiasm in Isolated Loyal American Territory
—Japanese Join In.

Dances, Banquets, Excursions
and Theatres Open to All Men of Fleet—Reception to Rear-Admiral Sperry in Harbor.

Honolulu, July 16.—Completing the first leg of their voyage around the world from San Francisco to New York, 12 vessels of the American battleship fleet anchored at Pearl harbor today, welcomed with fireworks and the cheers of a tremendous thrang.

The third division, composed of the Louisiana, Virginia, Ohio and Missouri, headed by the Iowa, on the island of Kauai. When the great fighting machines passed Mahukona, at daylight, the lower colonies saluted them with fire works and a brass band composed of members of the colony played the "Stars and Stripes." When the ships were sighted from here the hills were black with cheering people who had assembled to welcome the visiting bluejackets to the first home port they will see until they arrive at Manila.

Deafening cheers arose from thousands of the Hawaiian people, who were swaying in toward shore and a great blaze of day fireworks carried the message of welcome to the men of the fleet.

As the first division, including the Connecticut, Kansas, Minnesota, Vermont
and Wisconsin, steamed into the harbor, the second division, in which are the Montana, Nebraska, New Jersey and Rhode Island, dropped anchor to the eastward of the harbor entrance and the Illinois, Kansas and Kentucky of the fourth division anchored at the west of the entrance.

As soon as the warships were resting safely at anchor the commanding officers boarded their barges and visited the Connecticut to make their first report to Rear-Admiral Sperry.
When this duty was disposed of the commander in chief of the fleet came on board the Connecticut and made his official call on Governor French. Saturday evening Admiral Sperry and his officers will be the guests of the governor at dinner.
The Japanese of Honolulu were entertained by the fleet at a banquet at the chief justice of the supreme court.
An elaborate program for the entertainment of the fleet is being prepared and the exception of a few private dinners given to officers by personal friends here, dances, banquets, excursions and theatres will be open to every man wearing the uniform of the United States navy, whether he be of the warship or enlisted as a sailor.

The Japanese of Honolulu were prominent in the reception. They flew the American flag and joined lustily in the cheering. They were very much interested in the warships and the occasion is being made the gayest and most joyous the city has ever experienced.

BEAUTIFUL HAWAII WHERE WARSHIPS HAVE CAST ANCHOR

The American fleet of 16 battleships will mark off another stage of its glorious journey when it drops anchor in the harbor of Honolulu today.
Recent dispatches from the capital of Hawaii tell of elaborate plans that have been made for the entertainment of the officers and men of the fleet during their week's visit here.
Of all the places to be visited by the fleet in its cruise around the world it is safe to say that none offers more attractions for the visitor than Honolulu and the Hawaiian islands, which were annexed to the United States in 1897.

The Hawaiian group, tropical, volcanic, beautiful, lies more than 2,000 miles from the mainland.

RAILROADS FILE NEW TARIFFS, BATTLE WITH SHIPPERS IS ON

Chicago, July 16.—A battle royal of a billion-dollar combine of manufacturers and shippers arrayed against the railroads of the United States is said to have been declared today, when the new schedule was filed with the interstate commerce commission by the Southwestern Freight association, and becomes effective August 10. It shows a general advance in joint freight rates for Texas of approximately 8 per cent, and it is expected to be followed by others providing for similar advances throughout the country.

When informed of this move, John McGlenn, secretary of the Illinois Manufacturers' association, said: "It means that the fight is on, and we are not going to lose any time getting ready for it."

The big shippers from all parts of the nation are said to have leagued together to fight the advance, and a meeting has been called for July 24 at Chicago to open the battle. The struggle will be carried into the courts if necessary, and if not ended before next winter may be continued in the legislatures of a score of states.

All hope on the part of the shippers that the railroads would recede from their position with reference to an advance in freight rates was removed today, when it was learned that the first definite move, the filing of new tariffs, had been made.

Marysville, Cal., July 16.—Adolph Jules, who murdered 16 Liberators and Giovanni Pucelli in cold blood at camp No. 29 on the Western Pacific railroad, 25 miles east of Oroville, is today roaming the hills of the Big Bar region, terrorizing every resident in the lower counties of the mountains.

PORTLAND TAKES SEATTLE'S PLACE

Frank Hitchcock and Geo. Sheldon
Public to Know All, Says Bryan

Chicago, July 16.—"What would you think of a sheriff who, when approached by a man whose horse was stolen, should reply, 'You can't get your horse back, but I can tell you who has it?'"

This was William Jennings Bryan's reply to a query yesterday as to what comment he had to make upon the declaration of Treasurer Sheldon of the Republican national committee that campaign contributions would be made public after election day.

"We want the people to know," declared Mr. Bryan, "before and not after the election, just what influences are at work for and against the respective party candidates. Anybody who reads my speech to the committee yesterday must appreciate how earnest Mr. Kern and myself are in our purpose to turn the light on the character of men who are behind the ticket nominated at Chicago."

"Publication" as an issue, Mr. Bryan made it plain to every man that he intends to make public the names of campaign contributors to the Democratic ticket in the national campaign.

BRYAN NOTIFIES BUSINESS MEN

Sends Invitations to Six Merchants That He Desires a Conference.

By John E. Nevin.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., July 16.—William J. Bryan today sent invitations to six big Democratic business men, who are not known as politicians or even as strict party men, requesting that they visit him here next week, or if that is impossible to meet him at Chicago, July 25, when he will be in that city to attend the meeting of the sub-committee of the national committee.

The Democratic candidate desires the aid of these men in the matter of selecting the manager of the campaign. It is understood that he wishes to give the business element, heretofore not active in such matters, a voice in the selection of the director of the campaign.

It is learned from an authoritative source today that Bryan will make one of his famous speaking tours through the West during the campaign and will visit all the main cities in the states in that section that are considered doubtful.

In response to an order from the board of county commissioners, all of whom are Republicans, workmen today began grading the road to Fairview in preparation for the Bryan notification ceremonies, which will be held August 12.

Bryan today expressed gratification upon the receipt of a telegram from W. H. Dunphy of Walla Walla, Wash., announcing the defeat of the local Taft organization in that city in the majority election.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, July 16.—Four important decisions were handed down by the interstate commerce commission today. They are:

In cases where members of a family are entitled to a pass under the provisions of the commission, a household servant traveling with the family is entitled to a pass.

A direct route between the two points is a "reasonable route" for the shipper, in cases where the cost of a circuitous route is less for the railroad company, the shipper and the consumer.

At the bottom is a photo of George Runsey Sheldon of New York, who has been selected as treasurer of the Republican national committee, who is referred to by Bryan in his interview today. Sheldon is an experienced promoter and organizer of corporations, being connected with no less than 22 important corporations with large interests in nine of the most important states in the Union.

Lincoln, Neb., July 16.—"What would you think of a sheriff who, when approached by a man whose horse was stolen, should reply, 'You can't get your horse back, but I can tell you who has it?'"

This was William Jennings Bryan's reply to a query yesterday as to what comment he had to make upon the declaration of Treasurer Sheldon of the Republican national committee that campaign contributions would be made public after election day.

Anybody who reads my speech to the committee yesterday must appreciate how earnest Mr. Kern and myself are in our purpose to turn the light on the character of men who are behind the ticket nominated at Chicago."

"Publication" as an issue, Mr. Bryan made it plain to every man that he intends to make public the names of campaign contributors to the Democratic ticket in the national campaign.

As in his address to the notification committee here, August 12, so possibly also at Chicago, he will make a speech Saturday and indeed everywhere he appears on the public platform, he proposes to make the names of contributors to the Republican and Democratic treasuries shall be revealed before the polls open.

At the same time the Democratic candidate for president is searching for a national chairman upon whom he can depend for the collection of a campaign fund of at least $1,000,000.

Enemy's Country to Be Won.
Mr. Mack of New York set a part of the time with Mr. Bryan at Fairview, Neb., for the collection of a fund to relieve the overwhelming disasters suffered by him in the east in 1896 and 1897.

Mr. Mack urged Mr. Bryan to hasten the organization of the national committee and to establish the New York headquarters without delay, insisting that a tremendous amount of work must be done to make even an impression upon the enemy's country. Mr. Mack protested that a mistake had been made in the disapproval of his suggestion that the notification ceremonies be held in New York, but expected a pledge from Mr. Bryan that he and Mr. Kern would both visit the metropolitan and soon the campaign here very soon after they were formally apprised of their nominations.

Bryan Waits for Taft Letter.
"We shall make a fight for every state where there is a chance to secure the electoral votes," said National Committee man Mack. "If anyone thinks we can't win New York to Taft, they are entirely mistaken. We have a much better organization than we had in the 1896 and 1897 campaigns and the national committee is better organized than behind Bryan and against Taft means that we have a very good chance to carry the state."

After Mr. Mack had departed for Omaha to visit Mayor Dahlman, Mr. Bryan was asked if he had started on his notification speech.

"No," he replied. "I understand that Mr. Taft is to deliver his July 28. I should like to see him very much, but I must speak before he leaves. I have a copy of my newspaper boys have a copy of it about you I would very much like to see. It added the candidate with a laugh."

"But Mr. Taft has the Democratic platform to work on," was suggested. "I think it will keep him busy for awhile," was Mr. Bryan's reply, accompanied with a broad smile.

WIRELESS USED IN SEA FIGHTS

England Tries New Experiment
in North Sea
Fleet Maneuvers.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
London, July 16.—England tried today a new experiment in naval warfare, the conducting of a battle from land by wireless. Over 200 vessels are now maneuvering in the North sea engaged in a sham battle. The movement of every vessel being controlled by wireless experts in the admiralty office in this city.

As each ship changed her position or fired a gun, the radio waves were reported to the naval experts here. They set before a map showing the position of every ship, and the movements of the vessels being controlled by wireless.

The message of this system would be better in the control of vessels than by an admiral in action, as the men on land can receive reports from the front and work out the problems which caused from the existing scenes.

The experts who conducted the battle from the admiralty office would not receive the result. They simply said it was satisfactory.

MORE RESTRICTIONS FOR RAILROADS IN THE INTERSTATE DECISIONS

(United Press Leased Wire.)

CLIMBER IN ARROYO CHAMEZ

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Santa Fe, N. M., July 16.—A climber in Arroyo Chamez swept down the canyon and washed out a freight train before the arrival of a passenger train on the Santa Fe railroad.

Today 200 cars of the railroad tracks are missing and hundreds of dead sheep mark the path of the torrent.

The climber occurred late yesterday afternoon. A wall of water in feet high rushed down Arroyo Chamez and its roar could be heard for several miles. A southbound passenger train was stopped by the flood and the train was out of it 24 hours will be required to make repairs to the track.

FINDS CALIFORNIA IS BRYAN STATE

State Labor Organizer Says 75 Per Cent of Labor Is for Bryan.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Palo Alto, Cal., July 16.—State Labor Organizer E. Rosenthal of San Francisco, who has arrived here after a trip through the state, said:

"In my opinion 75 per cent of the total labor vote of California will be cast for William J. Bryan, and I consider that a conservative estimate. Every laboring man I have spoken to since the nomination is going to cast his vote for Bryan. Labor in San Francisco is going to vote that city for the Democratic ticket, union organizations throughout the country believe that Bryan, if elected, will give labor representation in the cabinet in the person of a man like Gompers or Mitchell."

FORESTERS GREET SUPREME RANGER

John J. O'Grady of New York Entertained by Frisco Lodgemen.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, July 16.—John J. O'Grady of New York, supreme chief ranger of the Foresters of America, is spending today with the members of the local lodge and will be the guest of honor at a banquet tonight.

There are more than 1,000 Foresters of America in San Francisco and elaborate preparations for the entertainment of the supreme chief ranger have been made. A public reception will be tendered him at Golden Gate Commandery hall Friday night.
