The Florence Placer Mining company has an advertisement in another column that gives notice that all installment sales of its stock have been discontinued and that it will be taken from the market entirely. Its engineer reports that the stock is too good to sell hence the company will dispose of its shares at 25 cents each for a few days only, and payments must be cash. The management has predicted that its stock will pay 200 per cent per annum, but it is now believed that it will pay even more than this. Anyway the company thinks enough of its shares to own them itself—which is the best recommendation possible to give.

Circuit Judge O'Day yesterday afternoon issued an order revoking the parole of Roy Summers, who was caught in Tacoma a few nights since as he was running away with plunder stolen from a dwelling. He was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary by Judge Brougham several months ago and placed on parole in the east, a hard working farmer in the future. Attorney Stevens left for Tacoma last night and young Summers will be taken to Salem to begin his term. Attorney Stevens left for his father asked for revocation of the parole.

Recognized as a man wanted for passing several bad checks, Charles Healy was taken from the seat of a wagon at Second and Alder streets this morning by Detectives Coleman and Price. Operating with Joseph Lamplier, Healy passed a number of worthless checks. He left the city hurriedly and did not return until last evening. The police had been on the lookout for him ever since the checks were put in circulation, and the fact that he was careful to keep to the seat of a wagon helped him not at all.

F. E. Braga, doing business under the firm name of the Portland Paint & Paper company, filed a bankruptcy petition with A. M. Cannon, clerk of the United States district court, this morning. Mr. Braga's liabilities amount to $2,150, his assets to $1,118. Eighteen Portland firms are among the creditors named. Mr. Braga is also indebted to the Standard Oil company to a certain extent.

ANKENY SURE TO BE REELECTED

Editor of Walla Walla Union Sees No Defeat for Senior Senator.

Senator Ankeny's chances for reelection were never so good as they are today. While they were good six weeks ago there has been a complete revolution in sentiment favoring Washington's senior senator since that time and close political observers who have taken nonpartisan views of the senatorial situation in this state are already conceding Walla Walla's candidate the election.

The above statement was made by Carl Roe, managing editor of the Walla Walla Daily Union, Senator Ankeny's paper. Mr. Roe is down for the state race in Washington. The State Press association at Vancouver. While he was ready to discuss the senatorial race in Washington politics he would not give an opinion as to the probable choice of the state for governor.

The fight for the governorship this year will be unique in the history of the state. According to the terms of the direct primary law, when there are four or more candidates for governor the people must vote for a first and second choice. The candidate receiving the most first and second choices will be elected.

Senator Ankeny is stopping at the Imperial white down on business connected with his Vancouver banking interests. He will probably address the newspaper men at the banquet this evening in the Columbia hotel, Vancouver.

DR. N. J. FULTON NATUROPATH.

A HAPPY WOMAN Mrs. Sarah Hathaway of Milwaukie, Or., a suburb of Portland, has written me this statement and testimonial:

"For 25 years I suffered from inflammation and those delicate troubles usual to my sex, and several times during the last 12 years was unable, for months, to be on my feet, and was in bed the greater part of the time for 18 months before I went to Doctor Fulton. At that time I had come to the conclusion that my kidneys were affected. When I began treatment with the doctor last May I was bloated, had throbbing pains in my head, and at times a severe pain in the region of my heart. I also was exceedingly nervous and my lower limbs seemed heavy and lifeless, and very much swollen. After the first few Naturopathic treatments I was less nervous than I had been for years and AT THE END OF FIVE WEEKS WAS A NEW WOMAN! Now I can do all kinds of work, and lately WALKED FIVE MILES IN ONE DAY!"

"MRS. SARAH HATHAWAY."

MEN ARE CURED As readily as women, no matter what their ailments. It must not be surmised that I treat women only, for Naturopathy is for everybody. Its beneficence is as broad as the earth.
