IRRIGATED LANDS.

THE AREA OF IRRIGABLE LAND In the Washtucna valley is limited. This is one reason why a big future value is assured—the demand will exceed the supply.

We have abundance of water and it is now running on the land.

Our system is a gravity system, and we have one railroad running within half a mile of every tract now, and two more going in.

We are making exceptional inducements to actual settlers on our land.

Call and get full information, or write for booklet.

OFFICE PHONE, MAIN 8430
RESIDENCE, WOODLAWN 2159

Portland, Oregon, July 18, 1908.

To the Oregon Daily Journal,
Portland, Oregon.

Dear Sirs:

The ad which I ran in Wednesday's paper of last week brought results that are more than gratifying, have had more than 30 calls for farms advertised in that list in one day, from which I have made two good sales and have several pending.

I do believe that any one having ads in your paper will surely reap results for it certainly reaches a class of live buyers.
