

300 YEARS OLD

Celebration Which England's Future King Will Attend - Dedication of Spot Where the Continent Was Made Saxon.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)

Quebec, July 18.—In observance of the 300th anniversary of the founding of Quebec by Samuel de Champlain, the intrepid French navigator and explorer, who was the first man to explore a large section of the North American continent, the Dominion of Canada, England, France and the United States are uniting in the most elaborate celebration ever held in this part of the world.

Qualified National Representatives.

A bare list of the notables who will take part in the celebration, many of whom have arrived in Quebec, would fill columns of newspaper space. The Prince of Wales is due to reach the city next Wednesday on the cruiser Indomitable. He will be accompanied by a brilliant staff of other distinguished persons, entertained on a scale befitting his exalted rank.

Receive Good Support.

Many friends of the contestants are rallying to their support and every contestant is being aided in every way possible to succeed in taking the first check.

Watch the Score List from Time to Time and Keep in Touch with Your Favorite so that you may help him or her to succeed.

Doing Good Work.

These bright contestants are doing preparatory work by thousands of hours eligible for dignified positions of trust whenever they are prepared to start out to earn their own living.

Secure Water From Kind Neighbors.

At Bremerton Yard Admiral Closes His Career of Forty Years.

(United Press Leased Wire) Bremerton Navy Yard, Puget Sound, Wash., July 18.—With simple and impressive ceremonies, Rear Admiral W. T. Burwell, commandant of this yard, hauled down his flag at 10 o'clock this morning, and at that moment his active career in the navy, extending over a period of 40 years, came to an end.

Will Travel in Europe.

Surrounded by officers Captain Rodgers then read his orders placing him in command of the navy yard. His flag, a captain's pennant, was then hauled up and a salute of 13 guns was fired.

Below is printed a list of valuable scholarships and cash awards which will be distributed absolutely free, among clever boys and girls, and young men and women.

For pleasant work during vacation, this is your opportunity—do not let it pass. Read conditions and enter The Journal's Third Annual Contest, which will close in September.

BOGUS LORD AGAIN IN POLICE COURT

C. Francis Richards, Alias Lord Ashburton, Shows Up in New York.

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, July 18.—Accused of passing worthless checks, C. Francis Richards, alias Lord Ashburton, was present in the Tombs police court today.

O. R. & N. FOREMAN PUT UNDER ARREST

(Special Dispatch to The Journal) Pendleton, Or., July 18.—A. C. Pierce, foreman for the O. R. & N. at Umatilla, has just been bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $250 on a charge of padding the payroll.

Shoes Half Soled, 50c.

The Oregon Shoe company of 222 Second street, have added to their establishment a Fleming stitching and finishing machine which will add them greatly in turning out work quickly and efficiently.

Tomorrow (Monday) will be positive the last day on which the Suez canal will get the trade if the transcontinental roads are not allowed to juggle rates as they please.

The information that the Interstate Commerce commission has decided to postpone until October the day on which the rate would become effective, because of a protest from Japan, has given the railroads and steamship company time to act.

The plea will be made to the Interstate Commerce commission that steamers traveling through the Suez canal will get the trade if the transcontinental roads are not allowed to juggle rates as they please.

Blotches, pimples, eruptions, rashes, medicated by Batin skin cream soon disappear.

PACIFIC LOSER TO SUEZ CANAL

Transcontinental Shippers Claim Rate Ruling Fatal to Oriental Trade.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, July 18.—The Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railroads and the Pacific Mail Steamship company are preparing to have a hearing before the Interstate Commerce commission on the question of transcontinental rates for goods shipped across the Pacific ocean.

The new rule of the commission compels the railroads to charge the same price for those goods as for any other, whereas it had been customary for the railroads to make this rate cheaper to the steamship companies.

The information that the Interstate Commerce commission has decided to postpone until October the day on which the rate would become effective, because of a protest from Japan, has given the railroads and steamship company time to act.

The plea will be made to the Interstate Commerce commission that steamers traveling through the Suez canal will get the trade if the transcontinental roads are not allowed to juggle rates as they please.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal) Garfield, Wash., July 18.—Ralph Martin, a young farmer living three miles south of Rosalia, was struck by lightning last evening and it is thought that he cannot recover.

At Public Auction.

The dry goods store of McAllen & McAllister, located at 22-1/2 North Main street, will be sold at public auction on the highest bidder.

THE WAY IT IS DONE

Each and every subscriber to any issue of The Journal will be entitled to vote for a contestant according to the length of time they pay in advance for their subscription.

Equal Chance for All.

For the purpose of awarding the scholarships and cash prizes, the field of The Journal has been divided into four districts, as follows:

Multnomah county, Oregon. Willamette valley—(as far south as Eugene).

Southern Oregon (all south of Eugene).

Eastern Oregon.

A liberal measure of votes is allowed for subscriptions to the semi-weekly edition of The Journal to favor contestants working in districts where the population is scattered.

The cash prizes will be given out similarly. He or she, however, will keep the cash commissions earned during the contest for new subscribers.

How They Are Distributed.

The candidate who at the close of the contest has the largest number of votes, irrespective of locality or district, will have first choice of all scholarships.

The second choice will fall to the contestant of highest vote in the district which does not get the first choice.

The third choice will fall to the contestant of highest vote in a district which does not get either the first or second choice.

The fourth choice will fall to the contestant of highest vote in the district which does not get the first, second or third choice.

The remaining scholarships will be given out to contestants according to their standing, alternating between the districts.

The cash prizes will be given out similarly. He or she, however, will keep the cash commissions earned during the contest for new subscribers.

CASH AWARDS

In addition to the scholarship awards The Journal will make the following cash awards to help defray expenses of the students who may poll the largest vote:

- Cash with first choice of scholarship $150
Cash with second choice of scholarship $125
Cash with third choice of scholarship $100
Cash with fourth choice of scholarship $75
Cash with fifth choice of scholarship $50
Cash with sixth choice of scholarship $25

The above sums in cash will be paid contestants immediately after the close of the contest, in the order of their standing. Cash commissions will be allowed on all new subscribers, in addition to the cash awards, so that a contestant may earn money every day during the contest.
