T. F. Beckwith, secretary of the May-Holland company, 627 Corbett building, will leave in about 60 days on an eastern mission which should be of considerable benefit to Portland and Oregon. He will visit all the principal cities as far east as Boston, and will likely cover the Canadian cities in an effort to interest capitalists and enterprising young men to locate in the west. The May-Holland company is now preparing a big list of opportunities to present to easterners and all those who desire to sell good businesses or who have propositions to appeal to eastern capitalists will do well to submit them. This company shows the right spirit in endeavoring to develop Oregon. Portland needs new blood, and as a rule the progressive easterner is a desirable citizen and a country-developer. Mr. Beckwith will not entertain any other but bonafide propositions and will present them intelligently and no doubt effectively to the people of the east.

Meetings will be held today, July 19, throughout all the states and countries in which the Federation of American Zionists have an organization, in memory of Theodore Herzl, at which meetings collections will be made in support of the Herzl memorial grove now being planted on a beautiful and historic stretch of soil, at Hulda, on the road from Jaffa to Jerusalem, which has been purchased by the Jewish national fund. Fifteen thousand olive trees have already been planted. The meeting in Portland will be held at the Neighborhood House, First and Hall streets, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. A number of speakers, including D. Solis Cohen and others, will address the meeting and opportunity offered to all present to pay their personal tribute to the memory of Dr. Herzl.

J. H. Barbour, of the federal immigration bureau, is conducting an investigation of the alleged practices of persons importing young French girls as well as girls from other nations for immoral purposes. It is said that the federal government will make an examination of the fearful "white slave" trade in Portland as soon as the present investigation is concluded in Chicago. The immigration laws provide that not only the women and those who import them are liable to fines and imprisonment, but those persons who harbor them as well. If such an enforcement is made in Portland there are a number of wealthy and respected persons who would be affected because of the fact that they own the buildings in which the traffic is carried on.

The Pacific Coast Association of Longshoremen is expected to dissolve the relations of Pacific coast longshoremen from the International Longshoremen, Marine and Transport Workers' association and greatly strengthen the position of the longshoremen along the coast. The coast association has been formed but the dissolution from the international organization is still undecided. The idea of the change is to obtain closer jurisdiction for matters and cases which are peculiar to the coast men and are loosely related to the larger organization.

An innovation in Portland theatricals next season will be a stock company playing German dramas. Ernst Paculy, editor of Nachtrichten, is behind the proposition and the scheme promises to be popular among the German residents of the city. It is proposed to give a performance in the Lyric theatre every Friday night and the first production will be given October 2. There are about 20,000 German residents in Portland and many of them love to hear their native tongue used in the drama.

City Building Inspector Dobson swore to two complaints yesterday charging C. W. Nottingham with enlarging a frame building within the fire limits and for erecting a building without a permit. This is a new case which the building inspector discovered on visiting the Nottingham warehouse at East Second and East Washington streets. It is expected that Nottingham will appear in court Monday although he had not been arrested up to a late hour last night.

Mayor Lane vetoed the ordinance granting permission to the Coffin Grain and Milling company to erect an elevated sidewalk alongside the company's warehouse in Albina yesterday. Mayor Lane signed the ordinance granting policemen 15 days' vacation.

Major and Mrs. Faulkner will conduct the farewell meeting Sunday night at 8 o'clock, of Ensign Jennie Anderson and Captain Myrtle Halsey, who have had charge of the Salvation Army corps No. 1, 265 Davis street, the past 15 months, during which time 170 have professed conversion. There will also be a dedication of children. Ensign Anderson and Captain Halsey are appointed to Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and Ensign and Mrs. Oman take up the work at No. 1.

J. F. Ghormley, pastor of Central Christian church, will speak to the men at the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon. His subject is "The Supreme Question." Mr. Ghormley is a strong and energetic speaker and has seen enough of life to entitle him to speak with authority about its real issues. Some of Portland's best singers are always to be found singing at the afternoon men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. This afternoon Miss Alice Justin will sing.

The regular monthly meeting of the New York society of Oregon will be a launch party on Tuesday evening, July 21, on the launch Rose City, leaving Merrill's boathouse, foot of Morrison street, at 7:30 p. m. sharp, fare 25 cents. Light refreshments will be served. All New Yorkers, either visitors or residents, are very cordially invited. Come and see our beautiful river at night. Members may bring a friend.

Tonight at 8 o'clock Adjutant F. Dean and Captain F. Pogue will say goodbye to friends and comrades at 249 Madison street. These officers have labored for the last two years in Portland, visiting the sick and helping the poor. The singing of the captain will be heard no more on the streets after today, nor the bright, happy smile of the adjutant.

Water through hose for sprinkling yards or sidewalks or washing porches or windows must be paid for in advance and used only between the hours of 5 and 8 a. m. and 5 and 9 p. m. It must not be used for sprinkling streets. If used contrary to these rules or wastefully it will be shut off.

Spiritualists File Disclaimer.

Denying that they have ever disputed the authority of Dr. Warne, president of the Nationalist Spiritualist association, or have attempted to act as directors of the state Spiritualistic organization since Dr. Warne decided against the claims of State President Sophia Seip, Mrs. F. M. Branch, Mary A. Congdon and Lou Ellen Cornell have filed a disclaimer in the suit brought in the circuit court in the name of the state at the instance of Rev. Green C. Love, who asked that Mrs. Seip and several others be fined $2,000 each and ousted as officers of the State Spiritualist association. The suit was aimed principally at Mrs. Seip, the only one thus far who is fighting back.

So Burke Will Break Rock.

His statements that his uncle is the chief of police of Oakland, Cal., availed Joseph Burke very little when he faced Judge Van Sante yesterday. Neither did the fact that he came from Council Bluffs, Iowa, help him in the least. When arrested the presence of a hypodermic needle and ammunition caught the eye of the police, so Burke will break rock at Kelly Butte for 30 days.

Tomorrow (Monday) will be positively the last day for discount on East Side gas bills. Portland Gas Co.

BLACK WANTS WHITE SPANKED BRIGHT RED

This is a tale of three races—white, black and yellow.

The black member of the equation came into the juvenile court with much difficulty this morning. This difficulty resulted from her size and weight, for she was of unusual proportions and seemed almost exhausted.

She—her name was not told—explained to Chief Probation Officer Hadley that she came on a mission of mercy. Once started talking, there was nothing to do but to let her run down. Sifting out the gist of the talk, it was learned that she wanted to complain regarding the treatment of a child that is being cared for by the American wife of a Chinaman who is seeking his fortune in Alaska.

She—the woman of large proportions and dark skin—declares that Mrs. Ah Kee is cruel to the child and spanks a youngster that is too young to be spanked. So she wants the juvenile court to spank the spanker—figuratively, of course.

Mr. Hadley promised to investigate, and "she" waddled out, satisfied with duty done.

POCKETS FULL OF STOLEN GOODS

Residence in Seattle does not necessarily mean that a man is a burglar, but when he carries two skeleton keys and a pair of big goggles in his pocket he should not take up his home in Portland. Lee Perry, 20 years old, did not look good to Detectives Coleman and Price so they brought him to headquarters yesterday to be searched.

The contents of Perry's pockets led to a sentence of 15 days on the rockpile. He also carried a puff and a quantity of face powder. He arrived from Seattle only a few days ago.

J. W. Spencer, the Fort Worth (Texas) Banker, Says of Portland's Future:

"I want to congratulate Portland upon having secured the location of Swift & Co.'s (Union Meat Co.) packing plant. . . . Swift & Co. have made Fort Worth, my home city, their packing center for the Southwest. . . . Since the location of the packing plants Fort Worth has considerably more than doubled in its population while its business has increased 300 per cent."

The general prosperity of a community is reflected in the bank accounts of the individuals. What the great packing industry has done for Fort Worth will be repeated and emphasized in Portland. The Union Meat Co. is distinctly a home industry, through which millions of eastern capital will flow into Portland and Oregon channels.

Choicest facilities make choicest products; the Union Meat Co., under Federal inspection, provides retailers with the highest grade, finest quality, most wholesome, Oregon grown, fresh meats. Their Columbia Brand hams and bacon, U. S. Inspected, cannot be surpassed.

Loyalty to Portland's best interests, to your own health and good taste, and to an enterprise that means a 300 per cent (and more) increase in Portland's business, demands that the consumer insist on his dealer furnishing him these Government Inspected products; there's not only loyalty, but health and safety in so doing.
