Parents who are looking up the matter of schools, to which they may trust their boys and girls, would do well to consider the claims of one of eastern Oregon's most promising schools, Pendleton academy. This academy offers a complete course in strong courses and individual supervision of its students. During past year its student body has been one of the highest classes. Parents will at once realize what this means to the boy or girl away from home the first time. The academy has both boys and girls dormitories, under charge of members of the faculty. Parents desiring to place their children here should at once write to Rev. H. Bleakney, principal, Pendleton, Or. All inquiries will be cheerfully answered.

When the council convened for its afternoon session yesterday, action on the transfer of the license of E. H. Spranger to F. X. Bouthlier in the board of trade building was referred to the liquor license committee. There was little debate on the transfer in the afternoon, the members evidently having given their attention to other business engaged in during the morning session. Willis and Holding contented that John Conrad in the morning had transferred and for that reason objected to granting it. The other members felt that an investigation should be made and the transfer back to the committee.

When Patrolman Hepper was two blocks from 574 Fifth street last evening he heard the voices of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blets raised in anger. When the policeman heard the epithets being exchanged his ears began to burn and he hurried to the scene. To explain the slurrer he quoted several of the choicest pet names of the Blets in writing to the police. The wife's husband and wife called down very quickly in the presence of the officer, and after a short session with the police, the Blets were turned home. They have two daughters and three sons, all between the ages of 10 and 22 years.

Efforts of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company to use brick for paving between rails on Hawthorne avenue failed in the trial yesterday. The Belgian and Belgian blocks will form the pavement. The company sought to have the change made at a meeting of the street committee last week but the members objected and delegated Councilman Ruslight to interview the property owners and learn what kind of pavement they desired. He reported to the council yesterday that the property owners favored Belgian block and the council so ordered.

A dinner given in honor of Charles H. Fuller, of Chicago, at the Commercial club last evening, was attended by a number of Portland men who have known the guest of honor as one of Chicago's foremost advertising agency proprietors. Some 250 guests of the dinner, now a well-known Portland advertising agency man, started life in the Fuller office at Chicago. His Chicago office is now master at last evening's dinner.

Dodge to recover $4,198.82 as damages for alleged failure to transport lumber and box shooks from Portland to San Francisco. Much of the material was intended for orange boxes for handling the southern California orange crop.

At the invitation of Clement Scott of Vancouver, Wash., the members of the Oregon Burns club will hold their next meeting on Saturday, July 25, at 8 p. m., at the Columbia club, Vancouver. George J. Cameron of Portland will present songs and recitations from Burns which will be rendered by the members. Pipe Major McDonald will play a selection of reels and strathspeys on the bagpipes. All interested in the works of the poet Burns invited.

L. E. Karo, president of the Karo-Klapper company's department store, left yesterday for Chicago and New York to be absent for about a month. It is the intention of the company to go out entirely of the dry goods line and to put in its place a complete line of ready-to-wear goods, and Mr. Karo's trip to the eastern markets is solely for the purpose of selecting the stock for their fall and winter trade.

An effort on the part of Councilman Belding to amend the ordinance defining the fire limits so as to include all of the property to the harbor lines resulted in the passage of a resolution, introduced by the committee on health and police for passage referred to Chief Campbell to investigate and report on. The ordinance was amended by Councilman Belding.

mittee is the same as the present ordinance except that it provides for the removal of the limit line to the middle of the streets on the east side of the river instead of in the middle of the block.

Councilman Willis' scheme for a full site failed to come up yesterday because of a clerical error made in the advertising and the proposition went over until a later meeting of the council. This is the plan which Councilman Belding has taken umbrage at, declaring that Willis is interested in a corporation which desires to sell a piece of land to the city.

A dinner at the Arlington club last night in honor of General Daniel F. Bishop, new commandant at Vancouver barracks, was attended by the general's staff and about 50 Portlanders. John M. Gearin, president of the club, presided over the affair and a speech of welcome. General Bishop responded. A number of topics were discussed by other speakers.

CONCERT TONIGHT IN PLAZA BLOCK

Signor DeCaprio's band will play at the Plaza, Third and Main streets, this evening. A program of unusual merit has been selected, including a highly interesting descriptive piece entitled "The Midnight Alarm," a number giving all the imitations of a fire scene. The music is heard in the middle of the night, the changing bells and gongs and the clatter of hoofts as the imaginary apparatus hove through the imaginary streets to an imaginary conflagration. Other features on the program will be a clarinet solo by Signor Bianchi, selections from Victor Herbert's popular "Singing Girl," and the famous overture to "William Tell." Following is the program in full: March—"Jolly General"; Moret Waltz—"Symphonic"; Holoman overture—"Wanderer"; Belli Concerto—Clarinet solo—"Serenade"; Silvestri Signor Bianchi. Selection—"Cavalleria Rusticana"; Intermission; Masagnoli Descriptive—"The Midnight Alarm"; Reeves Characteristic—"La Papirotte"; Paphos—"The Banks and Braes of Bonnie Doon"; Grünwald Selection—"The Singing Girl"; Herbert March—"The Main Chance"; Spaulding Signor A. DeCaprio, director.

Last night's concert at Holladay park drew an immense crowd. A decidedly popular program was rendered, one of the numbers of particular local interest being DeCaprio's new march entitled "General Sumner's March."
