FOURTH WINS GOVERNOR'S TROPHY

Whippy Combination of Whizz-Carts and Amber Brew Leads to Disjointing of Unhappy Couple—Others Get Released.

Governor's Trophy Object of Keen Competition—Shoot Clashes Today.

Nice clothes, a nice house and a good time made up the picture of married life that Mrs. Sylvia L. Wood, when single, had fancied for herself, and because the reality did not come up to her ideal she packed up and left. This was the story told to Circuit Judge Bronaugh in the circuit court this morning by Thomas Wood, who explained that he is so unfortunate as to be poor and unable to provide things to suit the style his wife demanded.

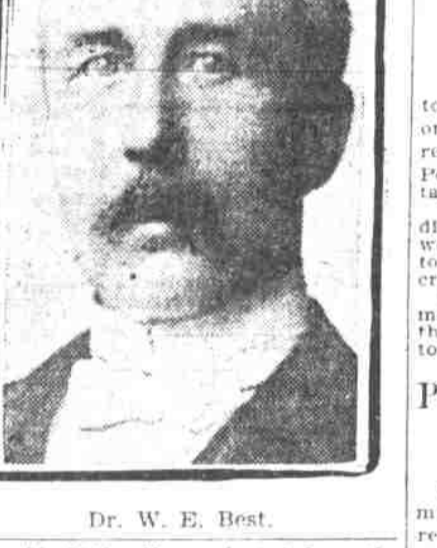

The complete score has not yet been completed. The winning team consisted of Lieutenant Potts, Lieutenant Hamilton, Lieutenant Perkins, Private Schmitt, Captain Hook, Corporal Ferguson and Private Chester Fisher and Lieutenant Stewart. The vanquished team was composed of Corporal Romane, Sergeant Howard, Sergeant Schwartz, Sergeant Rider, Sergeant R. L. White, Lieutenant Abrams, Corporal Scott and Private Royal.

Death Roll of the Northwest

Another abused husband appearing this morning was Nelson C. Ibrahim, who complained that Mrs. Nellie Ibrahim is too fond of a complete change with other men. He was married in Vancouver in May, 1907, and all went happily until last April, he said. Then his wife became so fond of a complete change that she would not stay at home to cook his meals. Then he learned that she had been out with other men and was found in a hotel. He went to San Francisco on business and when he returned lived for only two days with his wife. He said she called him vile names and she learned that the "boss" for whom she worked showed great partiality for her.

Dr. W. E. Best.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Cottage Grove, Or., July 23.—Dr. W. E. Best, who died as the result of a stroke of apoplexy Tuesday afternoon at this city, was born at Ingersoll, Province of Ontario, Canada, Jan. 20, 1840.

Dr. W. E. Best.

That she was left alone for seven or eight winters while John Sigel Partridge went away to gamble was the testimony of Rosetta Partridge. Sometimes he would stay three months and sometimes six, she said, leaving her nothing with which to support herself and her three children. Once when he came home he demanded some money she had saved to gamble with, and she beat her because she would not give it to him. Blood poison resulted from wounds on her arms, she said, and she still wears the scars. She was granted custody of her children, and she and the custody of the children.

HUNT CLUB TO SHOW NEW TANDEM CLASS

The sporting tandem is one of the new classes which will be included on the Hunt club's horse show program this fall, and is arousing deep interest among the local and northwest exhibitors. It is a class entirely new to this field and will consist of a pair of horses, as local exhibitors have the material.

July 20, 1840. He graduated from the Eclectic Medical college of Jefferson, Pa., with the class of 1861, and from the Eclectic college of Pennsylvania, in April, 1868.

WANT SANITARY PORTS FOR THE REPUBLICS

San Antonio, Tex., July 23.—This government has established an international sanitary commission for the mutual information of the South American republics on the subject of the health of ports. The measure has become necessary since there has been a disposition among some of the countries to conceal the truth to the damage of those who have allowed the facts to be known.

Mr. Allen was twice married, his first wife being Cynthia A. Butler of Princeton, Pa., with whom he was married in 1861. He was married September 21, 1872, to Mrs. Peter Murray, died last year at St. Anthony's hospital after an illness of several months with spinal meningitis.

WELSH TO REFEREE KELLY-KETCHER

Meriden, Conn., July 23.—Plans for the wedding of Wilson Chappell of New Britain and Miss Ellen Steele of Meriden were being celebrated today following close upon the discovery that the young people had been living together for over a year under the false impression that they were married.

ENOUGH IN TWO CHERRIES FOR MEAL

G. W. Baker, who lives about 2 1/2 miles south of Beaverton, brought to The Journal office today a box of Lambert cherries that caused a few new groups of astonishment as to their size. The smile of the entire staff was still further extended when the fruit was passed around and each man made a meal from two cherries. Even the office boy was satisfied with that number, while the agricultural editor asserted that his hunger was appeased by only looking at them.

WIND STORM DOES DAMAGE ON LAKE

But in the night of July 24 a terrific wind and rain storm that swept Lake Erie did considerable damage to the crops and property on the shore. The wind was from the west and did considerable damage to the crops and property on the shore. The wind was from the west and did considerable damage to the crops and property on the shore.

OPEN RACE WAR AT NATALBANY

Hundreds in Arms—Governor of Louisiana Orders Militia to the Scene.

New Orleans, July 24.—Race war has broken out openly at Natalbany between the foreign and American people. This afternoon Governor Sanders ordered General Gardner with the state militia to proceed as rapidly as possible to the scene to protect life and property.

PICKED ON WRONG MAN AND PICKED A FIGHT

People are always "picked" on remittance men. Someone "picked" on the chamber of commerce building yesterday and the remittance man refused to stand for the "pick." As a result there was a rough and tumble encounter between the remittance man and an Italian named Joe. The remittance man, who wears whiskers a la Van Dyke, had his whiskers pulled. Just stretched, not out. He had been showing his money, it seems, and Joe didn't like the sight of the money, or was it that Joe liked the cash? Anyway, the two got together, and strong at that. Several lawyers separated the two, and after a while they went their respective ways.

PRUIN LETS HIS SON FACE THE LAW ALONE

Seattle, Wash., July 21.—Peniless and with friends gradually dropping away, the life of William C. Pruin, alleged bank embezzler in the county jail, is becoming pitiful.

BODY OF MISSING JAMES EAGAN FOUND

San Francisco, July 24.—The body of James Eagan, formerly connected with the Barronage Adding Machine company, who had been missing since July 6, was found floating in the bay off Fisherman's wharf.

DILLER ASKS MORE MONEY THAN ALLOWED

Adam Diller has appealed to the circuit court from the judgment of the viewers who assessed damages and benefits for the extension of East Salmon street recently. The viewers awarded him $800 in excess of benefits, but he alleges that the amount should be paid $1,500, and asks judgment for that sum.

ASKS LETTERS ON MURDERER'S ESTATE

J. P. McEntee has applied for letters on the estate of David Condit, the love-crazed Italian who killed two others and then himself a few days ago. The property is valued at $125. An undertaking firm of which Mr. McEntee is a member is a chief creditor.

EZRA MEEKER TO KILL HIS OXEN AND DOG

Seattle, Wash., July 24.—Despite the storm of protest aroused by the announcement of Ezra Meeker that he would kill "Dave," one of the oxen which pulled him 4,600 miles across the continent and back, the old pioneer has not changed his intention. He still states that he will kill "Dave" and "Dandy," the oxen, and "Jim," the handsome shepherd dog which accompanied him on his trip, and have their bodies stuffed and placed in Pioneer park at Payallup.

SKIDDED HIS SKIDDER TOO FAST

J. D. Harris was fined $10 today in the municipal court for running an automobile faster than the law allows. The auto is the property of Hopkins Jenkins, principal of the Holiday school.

RAILROAD TO QUITO.

Guayaquil, Ecuador, July 24.—At last is completed a railroad from the coast at Quito and great in the tumult of rejoicing thereat though the great gathering will be at Quito on account of the military condition of this port, where too had last week five deaths from yellow fever. There are at this time 30 cases of bubonic in the port.

THESE MAY BE THE BOSTON DESPERADOES

Needham, Mass., July 24.—Two Italians, one wounded and the other heavily armed, were arrested this afternoon near Needham. They are thought to be the desperadoes who escaped after the battle at Forest Hill cemetery yesterday. One of the men who escaped yesterday was wounded.

EAST STARK STREET FILL SLIDES INTO SLOUGH

Gravel Elevates Muddy Bottom of Guich. The big East Stark street fill, between Grand avenue and East Seventh street, presents a more than usually difficult problem to the engineers having it in charge owing to the unstable nature of feet. The sand and gravel on top of the fill pushed the soft mud and water under it in falling clear out to one side, pushing up an area of half an acre and extended a distance of nearly 300 feet.

SPIRITUALIST HAD SPIRIT COIN

Wasn't Tangible Kind So Did No Good to Try to Collect.

"They never could collect anything, because I haven't got anything," declared Edward King, spiritualist, as he stood before Judge Bronaugh in the circuit court this morning. He had been cited to show cause why a default should not be entered against him in the suit brought by Rev. Green C. Love to quiet the officers of the state spiritualist association and fine them $2,000 each. Like several other of the spiritualist defendants, he has attempted to fight the case without an attorney.

BRAYAN LOOKS EASY WINNER

Strong Belief That Nebraska Will Elect Democratic Ticket by Heavy Majority—Weak Spots in Republican Platform.

Lincoln, Neb., July 23.—"Will Bryan and Kern carry Nebraska?" This question I have asked many times while going westward through this state, before the Denver convention and returning therefrom. Having judgment on answers given by all sorts of people, I am inclined to believe the commoner is more likely to carry than lose Nebraska. Republicans estimate that the normal Republican majority in the state is about 15,000. Bryan carried the state in 1896 by about 10,000 and lost it in 1904 by 10,000. Not many votes will need to be changed to give a Democratic majority.

LEFT BREAD TO BAKE, HOUSE BURNS INSTEAD

The home of Mrs. M. Ewing in Woodlawn was burned to the ground at noon today. All the furniture was destroyed by the fire. The highland fire engine arrived in time to save the adjoining buildings. The house was on the old Vancouver car line, a few blocks from the center of Woodlawn.

REPUBLICANS' WEAK SPOT

The weak spot for the Republicans in the nomination of James Sherman for vice-president, because he is a "stand-patter" on the tariff. Governor Sheldon of this state, a Chicago, when interviewed by the Omaha World-Herald on Sherman's candidacy, said:

EXCITING CHASE FOR A TILL ROBBER

San Francisco, July 24.—After a sensational running fight on the streets with the police, George Brown, alleged to be a notorious crook, is in jail here today.

CUMMINS STANDS SOILD.

Cummins would have been proof evident of a sincere intention to lower exactions caused by the too high tariff. Sherman causes honest revisionists to scrutinize very closely the revision program of the Republican party.

MOVE TO BLOCK ANTI-SWIFT CASE

San Francisco, July 24.—Attorney Hatfield for the Western Meat company, today gave notice that he would apply to the court of appeals for a writ of prohibition to suspend the trial of the concern on a charge of violating the "cartwright" anti-trust law. The case has been on in local courts for months, but only reached the superior court to be set for trial today.

STRIKE THREATENED ON MANCHURIA ROAD FROM RETRENCHMENT

Tokio, July 24.—Dispatches received here today at the office of the minister of communications state that a general strike among all the employees of the Manchurian railroad is threatened.

WAS MADE A MANIAC BY HUSBAND'S DEATH

Seattle, Wash., July 24.—The last chapter of a sad tragedy was written today when Mrs. Clara Brown died at the Western Hospital for the Insane at Steadman.

THE SOAP DOES THE WORK.

That's the difference between P. & G. Naphtha Soap and ordinary laundry soap. When you use ordinary laundry soap, YOU do the work. When you use P. & G. Naphtha Soap, the work is done for you—the SOAP does it.

Advertisement for P. & G. Naphtha Soap, detailing its benefits for laundry work and providing instructions for use. Includes the slogan "The Soap Does the Work." and a small illustration of the soap box.
