and South Africa were together at the start and clung together tenaciously for several minutes, the Tom Longboat Canadian Indian, forged ahead and set a terrific pace.

Protests against Longboat entering the Marathon were overruled at the last minute today and the Indian was allowed to start. The Americans objected to allowing the redskin to compete on the grounds that he was a professional, and they were backed in this assertion by the leader of the Canadian team.

Grouping of the Runners. At the start the runners were grouped in rows. Among the men placed in the first row by the judges were: A. R. Walton of Chicago, Sidney Hatch of Chicago, M. J. Ryan of New York and Tom Morrissey of Yonkers, N. Y.

There were no Americans in the second row, but in the third John F. Hayes of the Irish-American Athletic club of New York, Lewis Twining of Carlisle Indian school and Joseph Forshaw of the Missouri Athletic club were entered. There were no Americans in the fourth row.

Although the Marathon was set one day ahead of the original date because of the fact that the Saturday half holiday would cause the attendance of such a crowd as to obstruct the runners, the entire spectators covering the 26 miles and 38 yards, which is the exact distance of the run.

The course from the east terrace of Windsor castle was through Windsor Great Park to High street and across the Thames river bridge into Eton, past Eton college and along Windsor road to High street slough. After running along the London road for a short distance the course crossed the Eton bridge road and crossing the Great Western railroad into George Green, the Long Branch and the canal several twists were made bringing the runners into Windsor street and later into High street, Uxbridge.

More twists were made and Ickenham, Ryall, Eastcote, Harrow and Sudbury villages were passed. Making several more short turns, the contestants had a clear field to the stadium, the race ended with a partial lap of the Olympic track.

Entered in the Marathon at the start were: Englishmen, 1; Englishmen, 2; Americans, 4; Swedes, 23; Australians, 2; South Africans, 2; Greeks, 2; men from Denmark, 1; German, 1; Finn, 1; Russian, 1; man from Belgium, 1; Austrian, 1; Bohemian and 1 Italian.

support for the nominees of the party. He continued for nearly an hour to urge his document before the committee.

It is reported that the reason of the condition of the engine boiler was that it had been washed early this morning.

The first cottage to burn, located south of the sash and door building, was occupied by C. Rogers. The next one was occupied by a family recently from Portland, and the third one was unoccupied. All three were ruined.

Most of the furniture from the first two was saved, although badly damaged from being roughly handled.

The district in which the mill stood is largely filled with working people and there were many strange sights as people looked on from the street.

Because of the dry condition of everything it was feared for a time that the entire western part of town would go up in flames a month ago with heavy loss, throwing out of employment 200 men.

As men as can be estimated the loss will reach close to $30,000 with little insurance.

The sash and door building was unharmed, having been recently purchased by Mr. Tenney.

The fire throws out of employment a considerable number of men.

The site of the fire is one block from the Pittock and Leadbetter mill, which went up in flames a month ago with heavy loss, throwing out of employment 200 men.

After Massage, Creams and Beauty Doctors Had Failed.

BY HARRIETT META.

HOW I TOOK MY WRINKLES OUT

Trouble, worry and ill health brought me deep lines and wrinkles. I realized that they not only greatly marred my appearance and made me look much older, but that they would greatly interfere with my success, because a woman's success, either socially or financially, depends very largely on her appearance.

The homely woman, with deep lines and furrows in her face, must fight an unequal battle with her younger and better looking sister.

I therefore bought various brands of cold cream and skin foods and massaged my face with most constant regularity, hoping to regain my former appearance. But the wrinkles simply would not go. On the contrary, they seemed to get deeper. Next I went to a beauty specialist, who told me she could easily rid me of my wrinkles. I paid my money and took the treatment. Sometimes I thought they got less, but after spending all the money I could afford for such treatment, I found I still had my wrinkles. So I gave up in despair and concluded I must carry them to my grave.

One day a friend of mine who was versed in chemistry made a suggestion, and this gave me a new idea. I immediately went to work making experiments and studying everything I could get hold of on this subject. After several long months of almost numberless trials and discouragements I finally produced one which produced most astounding results on my wrinkles in a single night. I was delighted beyond expression. I tried my treatment again, and lo and behold, my wrinkles were practically gone. A third treatment—three nights in all—and I had no wrinkles and my face was as smooth as ever. I next offered my treatment to some of my immediate friends, who used it with surprising results, and I have now decided to offer it to the public. Miss Gladys E. Leonard, of Astoria, writes that it made her wrinkles disappear in one night. Mrs. M. W. Graves of Newport, Conn., states: "There is not a wrinkle left. My friends say I look 20 years younger. I consider my treatment a godsend to women."

Mrs. James Barge of Central City, S. D., writes: "The change is so great that it seems more a miracle of magic. I will send further particulars to anyone who is interested, absolutely free of charge. I use no cream, facial massage, face steamings or so-called skin foods, there is nothing to injure the skin. It is an entirely new discovery of my own and so simple that you can use it without the knowledge of your most intimate friends. You apply the treatment at night and go to bed in the morning, lo! the wonderful transformation. People often write to me. It sounds too good to be true! Well, the test will tell. If interested in my discovery, please address Harriett Meta, Suite 1037, Syracuse, N. Y., and I will send you full particulars."

TAGGART IS SARCASTIC

Standard Oil Cases Would Not Affect the Campaign, Says Chairman of Democratic National Committee—Big Stick "Stuffed."

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, July 24.—Chairman Thomas Taggart of the Democratic national committee, who is here to attend a meeting of the sub-committee tomorrow, said today that he thought the recent Standard Oil decision would not affect the campaign.

The decision shows one thing plainly, the "big stick" is a stuffed club. It may be poised in the air above the head of a big offender, but the hand holding it will never allow it to fall.

Taggart of the Democratic national committee, who arrived here this morning, stated that the Democratic headquarters would probably be located here.

Taggart is here to attend the meeting of the sub-committee of the national committee, which is to meet tomorrow to select a chairman for the national committee.

John H. Atwood of Leavenworth, Kan., is said to be in the lead for this position. The members of the sub-committee, besides the chairman, are: Nebraska, Mack of New York, Osborne of Wyoming, Green of Rhode Island, Ryan of Wisconsin, Harlan of North Carolina, Wade of Iowa, Tomlinson of Alabama, Cole of California and Brady of Oklahoma.

Fairview, Neb., July 24.—Bryan departed this afternoon for Chicago to attend the meeting of the sub-committee of the national committee which is to select the manager for the fall campaign.

Chicago, July 24.—Frank H. Hitchcock, the Taft manager, arrived here today and announced that there would be a conference of the Republicans of the middle west to plan measures for the coming campaign. Hitchcock predicted an enthusiastic campaign in the middle west.

When Secretary of Commerce and Labor Strauss visited Hawaii last September he investigated the project for the issuance of such certificates. Inspector Brown was asked for a report and recommended the adoption of the plan.

TEXAS MAY FIGHT "DRYS" BY SUPPORTING REPUBLICAN TICKET

(United Press Leased Wire.) Austin, Tex., July 24.—A heated campaign with prohibition as the principal issue was closed today and the Democrats of Texas will vote on the question at the primaries tomorrow. If the party adopts the "dry" plank which has been submitted to it the result may be that the liquor interests will bolt to the Republicans, making that party a force to be reckoned with for the first time in the history of the state.

Warfare between the Halley and anti-Halley factions has weakened the Democratic party in Texas and the leaders recognize that they are facing a crisis.
