FIERCE BATTLE ON COAL TENDER

Two Men, Stealing Rides, Attacked by Drink-Crazed Hoboes.

(Special Press Leased Wire.)

Sullivan, Ind., July 27.—After fighting for their lives with three drink-crazed maniacs, while clinging to the tender of a passenger engine going at the rate of 40 miles an hour, Alexander Davis and Terre Haute and Ed McCoy of Progress, Ind., lie dying in jail here today.

The men were rescued from their perilous position this morning when the train arrived here and were taken to the jail unconscious.

The two strangers and Connell, demanded that Davis and McCoy take a drink of whiskey, and when they refused attacked them with dirks.

The five men wrestled together, screaming and crying, on the back of the engine for 40 miles, when the engine finally heard the noise of the strange battle above the roar of the train.

POLICEMEN TOO FEW IN PORTLAND

Mayor Says It Is Impossible at Present to Cope With Social Evil.

"Dr. Brougher's argument is very good. The laws should be enforced. But with what can I enforce them? The police department is not sufficiently strong to cope with the problem.

EXCITING CHASE FOR WATER SNAKE

Whole Harbor Stirred Up by Boats and Launches Pursuing Reptile.

Intense excitement was created in the harbor this morning by the appearance of a water snake fully six feet in length and of about the thickness of a man's arm.

The occupants were busy with oars, pike poles and all kinds of weapons that came handy trying to kill the monster.
