

LEWIS BROS. & COMPANY GIVEN THIRTY DAYS

IN WHICH TO SELL $30,000 FROM THE $100,000 STOCK OF THE BOSTON STORE

This gigantic adjustment sale has now been in progress one week—Much merchandise has already been sold, but Lewis Bros. & Co. realize that to raise $30,000 in thirty days is a big undertaking and have redoubled their efforts. Another big price cut has been made, and from now on goods will be sold regardless of loss—Money must be raised and slashed selling prices alone must accomplish this desired end. At the conference between Mr. Paul Strain and his creditors it was decided to place Lewis Bros. & Co. of Chicago in charge of the store and give them full authority to make such prices as were thought necessary. Mr. A. W. Lewis, with a staff of four assistants, was sent from Chicago to conduct the sale, and he means to leave no stone unturned to make this the greatest sale ever held in Portland.
