SEATTLE OURS FOR THE PROOF

National Commission Encourages President Ewing—Ellis to Cincinnati.

All that the Pacific coast league magnates have to do is to prove that there was collusion between Russ Hall, D. E. Dugdale et al. in allowing the Seattle territory to go into the Northwestern league, and the National commission will award the franchise to the Coast league. Ewing says there will be no trouble proving the Dugdale crowd turned the Pacific coast league into a ball town, and with a strong team will be one of the best money-makers of the club.

Cincinnati wants Rube Ellis, the Angel outfielder, and wants him bad. The Reds are willing to buy the Rube and to pay Henry Berry good money for the young fellow. There has already been a lot of correspondence. Ellis can judge a ball soaring toward the outfield as niftily as any man in the league, and he is one of the most dangerous with the stick. Los Angeles will have a hard time filling Ellis' place once he is out of sight.

Asher Houston, the Portland boy who was picked up by "Pop" Van Halstrom, and who played in two games here during the series last week, was taken south with the Greeks. Asher will fill the utility position on the Oak squad and will probably have a chance to show what he can do. The lad had a chance to get on with Mike Lynch's Tacoma team, but Van Halstrom talked him into going south. He was at bat three times in the two games he entered and got one hit. When he took his first appearance he prevented Basney from making a double on a hard-hit ball down the first base line.

Now the Beavers are "concocted." At first they were all "rank bushers." A Los Angeles scribe has again finished one new one on the local heroes. Perhaps the memory of that last visit of the Beavers to the southern end of the circuit has not left the southerner. Wait till that good old scoring machine gets into working order down in the Golden State next month and there will be more stings and bad tastes for said pencil.

When the Beavers go up against the Seals this afternoon they will be in much better condition than on the former occasion when the Mohlerites won the series. Haffery will be in the game this trip and every one of the locals except possibly Danzig will be on the job. Hal is still suffering from that stone bruise and the big fellow will probably have to hobble along on one foot and the toes of his other.

San Francisco will be materially strengthened by the presence of Fred Beck in the field this afternoon. Beck arrived in Portland from Bloomington last night and is ready to go to work. Whether or not Mohler will send him to center field this afternoon is uncertain. Beck comes with a good record as a sticker and outfielder. He is anxious to get into the game this afternoon, although he has not had a ball in his hand for nearly two weeks. Beck comes heralded and the local fans are anxious to see the boy in action.

Larry Schaffly, erstwhile captain and second baseman of the Beavers, has been promoted. He is now the manager of the Toronto team of the Eastern league. Schaffly's first game was a 15-inning victory over Newark, and was truly a notable opening. Schaffly accepted nine chances in the field without a wobble and scored the winning run with a long sacrifice fly to right field.

FRED BECK STAR OF THREE-EYE LEAGUE

Manager Takes Him From Box Because of Fast Work as Fielder.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Bloomington, Ill., July 28.—Fred Beck, the hard-hitting outfielder of the Bloomington team of the Three-Eye league, who was sold this week to San Francisco in the Pacific Coast league, will no doubt be a strong acquisition to the San Francisco team. He was recommended by the former Bloomington stars, Pitchers Wright, Thorson, KinSELLA and Koestner, all of whom have made good in the Pacific Coast league. Beck joined the Bloomington team three years ago, coming from the independent team of Havana, his home. He was signed as a pitcher, his outstipend delivery being very effective in the independent class. His ability with the stick and his fast work as a fielder decided Manager Conners to play him regularly in the field. His batting has been good for three years the sensation of the Three-Eye league and he has always been among the 300 class hitters. He is able to hit right or left-hand pitchers with equal ease and his stick has been a terror to all Three-Eye twirlers. His fast fielding and his speed and accuracy in handling balls to the plate has also made him famous. Beck is a youngster, being but 21, but is well developed, standing five feet 2, and will probably attract as much attention on the coast as around the Three-Eye. His admirers are confident that it will be but a short time before he graduates to the majors.

KETCHEL IS FAVORED IN FIGHT WITH KELLY

With Two to One Odds No Money Is Offered on Chicagoan.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, July 28.—With Stanley Ketchel a 2 to 1 favorite over Hugo Kelly in the battle for the middleweight championship Friday night there was no Kelly money offered today and the talent expects to see greater odds offered before the fight.
Ketchel is within two pounds of the required weight of 155 pounds and will easily make it by 6 o'clock Friday evening. Hugo Kelly, the Chicago fighter, who applies to take the championship from Ketchel, is inside the weight already. Kelly will finish his preparatory work with a light boxing bout this afternoon. Ketchel will do his last boxing tomorrow.

The experts here are doubtful about forecasting the result on form since the Nelson-Gans fight, when the Dane upset all their calculations. They have lost their faith in the "dope" but the betting public seems satisfied to back the champion.
It is understood that the Ketchel-Thomas fight will be pulled off, no matter whether Ketchel wins or loses Saturday night. It will be held on the night of August 18 at Jack Gleason's club at catch weights. No decision had been made of Ketchel fighting young Peter Jackson at Goldfield on Labor day. A conference set for last night at which another Nelson-Gans fight at Colma was to be proposed, failed to materialize and the matter is still in the air.

The third man of the camp have pledged $30,000. They think a Burns-Johnson fight would prove a better drawing card than a Gans-Nelson fight.

EX-GOVERNOR BUDD'S DAYS ARE NUMBERED.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Stockton, Cal., July 28.—Ex-Governor James H. Budd called this morning from the hospital in which he lay all day yesterday and appeared a little better. Still he is very weak and but faint hopes for his recovery are entertained. He has been suffering from rheumatism and kidney trouble while at Reno and Goldenfield three years ago. In 1905 he went abroad for his health and visited famous watering places in Europe. When he returned home a few months ago he assumed to be much improved and hopes for his ultimate recovery were entertained. He prepared to open law office in Stockton with a partner in business at San Francisco, but before he could carry out his plans he was again taken ill.
A month ago, ex-Governor Budd started for Lake Tahoe with a party but on arriving there his condition became so serious that he was removed to a hospital in San Francisco. Two weeks ago he was removed to his home in this city and among his many close friends there was a feeling that he had been brought home to die. Five physicians held a consultation last night.
Ex-Governor Budd is 60 years old.

GROOM LEADING COAST PITCHERS

Portland's Twirler Has Comfortable Lead—Garret Coming Up Fast.

Bobby Groom is the premier pitcher of the Pacific Coast league at present, and the attenuated one bids fair to keep up his stellar honors. He has a safe margin on his nearest competitors, Nagle and Killian of Los Angeles and Oakland, respectively, and his team mates, Graney and Marshall, are a percentage of .667, while Groom boasts of .682. In addition Groom's 23 games are earned, for he has pitched in 23 games and won 15 of them.
Graney, the new man from Cleveland, had won two of the three games he finished in. Marshall gets charged with losing the fourth game, which he finished up after Graney had filled the seats.

Jesus Garrett, the other twirler above the 600 mark, is handicapped by having two drawn games. As it is, the little fellow has a percentage of .611. He is good now and ought to boost this higher, making Groom a good race for first place on the team, if not in the league. The percentages of game won follow:

The River of Life

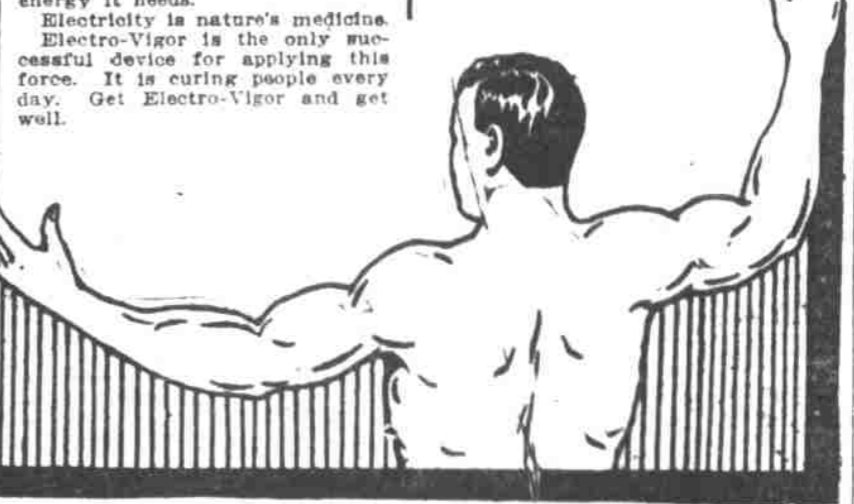

The blood is truly called "the river of life." It is the most important as well as the most wonderful river in all nature, for our life and health depend upon its flow.
One of the worst breeders of disease is impure blood. Constipation, indigestion and kidney troubles are usually responsible for that.
When your food doesn't digest it ferments and forms a poison which gets into the blood. It is the duty of the kidneys to filter the blood and keep out all poisonous matter. They fail to do that when they lack energy.
You might dose yourself for a lifetime with tonics and other drugs, but you can't purify the blood that way. You have got to remove the cause before you can cure any trouble.
Electro-Vigor applied while you sleep infuses a stream of electric life into the stomach, kidneys and every other organ of your body. It gives them the power to do their work as nature intended. There can be no stomach or kidney trouble, no bad blood and the diseases that result therefrom if every part of your body machinery has all the energy it needs.
Electro-Vigor is nature's medicine. Electro-Vigor is the only successful device for applying this force. It is curing people every day. Get Electro-Vigor and get well.

YANKEE ATHLETES IN OLYMPIC GAMES PARADE

American athletes passing in review before the King and Queen and the royal party. The Americans refused to take any chances of chills and colds and paraded in their street clothes while all the other competitors appeared in athletic costumes. Ralph Rose is leading, carrying the flag, while "Matty" Halpin, the manager of the team, is just behind him arrayed in a frock coat and high hat. Forrest Smithson, Alfred C. Gilbert and Dan J. Kelley of Oregon are there.
Rose was criticised by his team mates for not dipping the starry banner as he passed the royal stand, but they lauded him when they learned later that the Britons had failed to hoist the American flag in the stadium as a signal of respect.
