THE past week has been the quietest of the entire summer season. Here are in spite of midsummer there has been a good deal of entertaining for outside guests and an occasional tournament or something of the kind has kept up interest. Now many of the stragglers have gone to the beach and taken with them their guests. All entertaining is of a decidedly informal nature.

The tennis tournament at Long Beach the middle of this month is attracting a good crowd. The tennis side is well emphasized. The week of play is well filled with social events from start to finish.

At Seaside the big event is the Arthur Alexander concert which is planned for the near future. A similar concert is talked of a little later for Long Beach, where Mr. Alexander has many friends who are clamoring for a similar favor.

A marriage of especial interest to Portland's set was celebrated last Wednesday in San Jose when Miss Beatie E. Henry, the daughter of J. H. Henry, a prominent mining man and capitalist, was married to Charles Edward Greig of Portland. The ceremony was an elaborate one with a large attendance of society. It was pronounced one of the most brilliant seen in San Jose.

Miss Gertrude McIntosh of Seattle was the maid of honor and W. B. Mackay of Portland was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Greig have gone to Santa Barbara and other more southern points to spend their honeymoon before returning to Portland.

Mrs. Greig will be warmly welcomed to Portland where she already has many friends. She first visited here with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, classmates of hers from Stanford. Last winter she was the guest here of Mrs. Greig from New Jersey. Mrs. Greig's mother who with her two charming daughters was spending the winter here in the Percy Elyth house on Kluge Heights. Miss Henry was extensively entertained on both visits. She is a prominent and popular social figure in San Jose and in San Luis Obispo where she spends much of her time at her country home. Mr. Greig is well known and has been one of the leaders of the young set for several years.

Mrs. Walter E. Burrell gave a delightful supper last Saturday night for her guest, Mrs. J. G. Edwards of Hay Creek, who has been visiting her the past three weeks, and for Mr. Edwards, who had just arrived. The party of 10 consisted of the Burrells, the Edwards, Major and Mrs. James Canby, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot, Miss Gertrude Talbot of New York and Harry Montgomery.

Mrs. Edwards has been entertained constantly during her stay here. Among her entertainers were Mrs. H. C. Williams, Mrs. Helen Ladd, Mrs. Walter V. Smith and Mrs. L. Allen Lewis. Wednesday afternoon Miss Mary Beattie, who is a daughter of Mr. J. B. Montgomery and a sister of Mrs. Walter Burrell of this city and who has been visiting here for some time, was the guest of Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Burrell here. An interesting letter in the Catholic Transcript from Hartford, Conn., formerly Episcopal minister, Charles Collier Adams of Cromwell, Conn., says:

In today's issue you will find a list of those Episcopal clergymen and sisters who have just been received into the ranks of this body. Her mother and her sister, Sister Eliza Montgomery, grand-daughter of the late John Smith Phelps, for twenty years pastor of the Episcopal church in the city of New York, and then governor of Missouri. He was the son of the distinguished Eliza Phelps of slavery and the daughter of Cromwell, and his sister Eliza is a descendant of the Rev. John Smith Phelps, first pastor, 1736, of the Cromwell, Congregational church.

Miss Ella Stephens gave a small informal tea Thursday for Miss Ruth Woolsey of Tacoma and Miss Marion Booth of Philadelphia. A number of the young girls, mostly the college set, were asked. Miss Nichols assisted the hostess.

Miss Beattie Bear of B-11th came to Portland last week with her brother, Dr. Gustav Bear, who was returning from study in Vienna. She will remain here a few days. A number of the young girls, mostly the college set, were asked. Miss Nichols assisted the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Stevens entertained Tuesday evening at their east side home in compliment to their daughter, Mrs. Howard T. Wilkinson of Denver, who is visiting here for a month with her little daughter, Mildred and her little son, Howard Wilkinson Jr. The rooms were decorated with ferns in large bowls and sweetpeas and nasturtiums in vases. Whist was played and the prizes were won by Mrs. A. D. Howe and Bert C. Sampson. The consolation gifts went to Mrs. Dora Simonson and George H. Jasper. Refreshments were served at the card tables and a few of the hostess' girl friends assisted her. They were Miss Olive Frye, Miss Mabel Riggs, Miss Gertrude Donaldson and Miss Frances Carter.

The guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Jasper, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Larkins, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sampson, Mr. and Mrs. William Hagell, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Woodcock, Mrs. Dora Simonson, Mrs. Adelaide Trimball, Mrs. Frank Dick, Mrs. Kate A. Henderson, Miss Sarah Parke, Miss Mary Butler, James H. Karlson, Harry H. Harson, F. E. T. Burdick, Seth Merton, B. Harold Jenkins and George Wilbur.

A delightful evening was spent by friends of Miss Grace Finger at her home, 550 East Eighth street, Wednesday. The event was a lawn party, a complete surprise to the young hostess. The spacious grounds were decorated and lighted by many Japanese lanterns. Games were indulged in during the early part of the evening after which piano and vocal selections were rendered by Miss Finger and J. E. Callahan. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McMurphy, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Metcher, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Finger, Mr. and Mrs. H. W.
