650 ACRES.

Finest dairy and hog ranch in Clarke county—that famous and well-known Heitman ranch, on the Lewis river, is offered for sale, or is practically given away, for the reason that the owner is too old to handle it. This ranch has carried as high as 500 head of stock; there is about 300 acres of bottom land that can be plowed and is the finest kind of soil for growing anything whatsoever. There are 200 acres which have been slashed and can be put under plow for $5 per acre. The balance is excellent timber and good pasture. Land adjoining is held as high as $100 per acre with few improvements. This ranch can be had at $35 per acre, and with it goes a fine plastered city house costing between $3,000 and $4,000, another 10-room house and still another smaller house; barn accommodating 160 head of cattle, and a good horse barn, accommodating 15 head of horses; 85 head of cattle, hogs and horses, together with every implement needed for the running of the ranch; 33 head of cattle are paying over $300 per month; the milk route pays $8 per day extra; boat landing on the ranch. This ranch should sell for $50,000, instead of the price asked; $15,000 will handle the property; electric survey goes through the place. This is the best bargain that has ever come to our notice in the shape of a large ranch.

FOR SALE—FARMS 17

GET BUSY, IF YOU WANT A FARM, THE OLD LAND GRANT IS GOING FAST

Southern Oregon east of the Cascades, probably the finest country and climate in the world, is the scene of the next great boom in the Pacific Northwest. The old Oregon Military Road land grant, containing the cream of the agricultural lands of Lake, Harney and Klamath counties, is being cut up and sold, in 11,992 tracts of all sizes, at $200 per tract, payable $10 per month, and a town lot at beautiful Lakeview, the county seat, thrown in free. Do you know that the Nevada, California & Oregon railroad is now laying from Madelaine to Lakeview? Do you want to quadruple your investment within the next 18 months? Do you want to become a successful farmer or fruit grower or stock raiser? You never will see again the like of this opportunity. If you don't believe in it write A. M. Smith, fruit inspector of Lake county, or W. J. Moore, district attorney, or Mayor Harry Bailey, Lakeview, Or., or come to our Portland office and read scores of letters from well-known Lake county farmers, pioneers and business men. District Attorney Moore writes us:

"Permit me to say that after 30 years residence in this county I would not under any circumstances think of changing. During 30 years I have never known a failure of crops and but one hard winter. The country is practically undeveloped, the principal cause being that the most choice lands are owned by large corporations, and until recently a vast body of land owned by the Oregon Military Road Land Grant company, which absolutely refused to sell at any price. As these lands are what might be termed the cream of the agricultural lands of Lake county, it is easy to see what the effect has been on the progress and advancement of this part of Oregon. Now that these valuable lands have at last been thrown on the market and are to be divided up into small tracts that will be beautiful homes in the near future, and that we are to have a railroad in the near future, I see an era of prosperity never dreamed of by the pioneers.

"Nowhere are the people more law-abiding than here in Lake county. At the present term of circuit court there is not a single criminal case to be tried. Our jail has been empty for the last six months."

This and many other letters will interest you if you are looking for a home and a farm where you can make yourself and your family independent.

The Chance of Your Life!

Stock of general merchandise, located in eastern Oregon, invoice about $25,000. In a country where every one has money. The country of big sales and fair profits. Owner started 5 years ago with $5,000 and has now a net profit out of the business of over $40,000, but has lost his health and must give up his business. 1907 sales, $85,000; net profit, 25 per cent. This year's business so far, better than last. Here is a rare chance for one or two men with a lot of good business ability and a little money. Owner will sell buildings or rent. $10,000 cash will handle this, with some good city property as part pay. This sounds good doesn't it? Well, come and let me tell you more about it if you are interested and want to buy. I will pay the expense of the trip if you will investigate and find it is not as good as represented in this ad.

Drug Stock

Small stock of drugs for sale at a bargain if taken at once. Owner has larger proposition in view. Good opening for party with small means. Location is good, building new, stock neat and clean, rent reasonable, lease runs 2½ years. Can give you a good bargain on this; take some trade.
