PANIC STRUCK GET READY TO SOUTH FIRST SPENDS $3,000,000

Vice-President Russell of Water Board Begins Preliminary Work on New Bull Run Pipe Line.

Despite the fact that Seneca Smith has filed an application for a rehearing with the supreme court, City Attorney Kavanaugh is so confident that the court will not reverse his decision in the matter of the bond issue that he has notified the water board to proceed with the preliminary work of preparing estimates for the cost of construction for the pipe line for which the people voted $3,000,000 and which was tied up with the rest of the bond issue recently declared void by the court.

To this effect, City Attorney Kavanaugh has sent the following communication to the water board:

Re: Board of Public Works. By the terms of this amendment the council is authorized in the name of the city to issue and dispose of bonds of the city of Portland to the full amount of $3,000,000.
