Strike Leaders Claim 3,000 Men Have Laid Down Tools in Canadian Pacific Shops—Will Affect Business Tremendously.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Winnipeg, Aug. 5.—The machinists of the Canadian Pacific railroad in this city struck at 10 o'clock today, according to the announced program. Advances have not been received from other cities, except Toronto, where the men did not stop work.

The leaders here say the strike is general and at the lowest estimate 3,000 men are affected.
J. H. McVey, secretary-treasurer of the machinists' union, who is in charge of the strike with headquarters at Winnipeg, simply stated this morning that the men were out to stay until their demands were satisfied. Stripped of all technical points involved in the strike, he said the real basis between the company and the men as to the status of the unions on the Canadian Pacific system, for the men claim that that is what they are fighting for and point out the recent course of negotiation under the Lennox committee act as proving their point that the efforts of the company have been concentrated on breaking up the unions by setting one against the other and by curtailing opportunities for joint action.

So far the company has said nothing and is resting on the position assumed when both the eastern and western managements accepted the majority award of the conciliation board. The men, though quiet, express themselves as confident of the issue. They have behind them the international organization of their craft, which is not a wheel which will turn on the company's western lines. They say the public are with them and will see to it that non-union labor is not brought in from the states or Europe.

As to the economic influence of the strike, that of course depends on its duration. People here cannot even now believe the strike is an accomplished fact, the prospect is too staggering. The biggest fear is that the Canadian west is just ready to cut under good conditions, and this strike promises to paralyze the whole movement, to leave the transportation system and leave the grain lying idle in the granaries.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 5.—At 10 o'clock the men employed in the shops of the Canadian Pacific here laid down their tools and quit. No spectacular incident marked the inauguration of what many thought would be the longest industrial fight in the history of the city and which if persisted in even for a week will do incalculable damage to every important interest.

Gus R. Olin Is Loser at Least $5,000, With Only $2,000 Insurance.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 5.—The drug store of Gus R. Olin on Main street, between Fifth and Sixth, was completely gutted by fire shortly after 1 o'clock this morning. While it has not been definitely proved what started the blaze it is believed to have been either from defective wiring or spontaneous combustion.

The loss falls particularly heavy on Olin. He had recently fitted up his establishment in first class shape and had been in business for himself but a little over a year. His fixtures were valued at fully $2,500, including an elegant fountain. The loss to the building, owned by Peter Wolff, will not exceed $2,000.

PYTHIANS AGAIN BIG PARADE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Boston, Aug. 5.—Fifteen thousand members of subordinate lodges of the Knights of Pythias marched through the streets of Boston today in a monster procession. The event was the crowning feature of the national convention of the order in progress. The parade was so magnificent that it attracted the attention of the national organization. A heavy rain delayed the start of the marchers until 11 o'clock.

HOURS ON TRACK WITH LEGS OFF

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Walla Walla, Wash., Aug. 5.—Lying in a drunken stupor across the track of the Northern Pacific near Eureka Junction, J. J. Sellars was last night run over about 11 o'clock. His left leg was cut off above the ankle, and his right leg was broken and badly crushed. When a freight train came along seven hours later he was able to raise himself to the rails, and in a few minutes he was dead.

HALF A CENTURY OF THE CABLE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Valencia, Ireland, Aug. 5.—Just 50 years ago today a telegraph instrument in a little shed on the bleak Irish coast at this place ticked faintly, marking the completion of the first cable across the Atlantic and the establishment of instantaneous communication between the old country and the new. Today prominent merchants and financiers of England and Ireland are here to celebrate the semi-centennial of that historic event.

WHEAT PITTS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Chicago, Aug. 5.—With every indication of a repetition of the great bull movement started August 1, 1907, when wheat soared from 50 cents to $1.15 in two weeks, the wheat pit is on the verge of hysterics and at any moment panic mania is expected to break loose.

WALL STREET TO BLAME

It is learned that Wall street, for political and commercial reasons, has been suppressing the crop damage reports which continue to grow so alarmingly. The anti-Dubois faction has been making reports from Canada and the middle northwest show that earlier estimates of damage were far under the real damage, and it is now a matter of general knowledge in commercial circles that the weather, smut, black rust, blight and other causes have combined to make the impending shortage a matter of serious consideration.
